MUCH FAITH BRINGS MANY TROUBLES.

Faith is a cardinal virtue, but when misplaced it is apt to lead to deplorable consequences, says the Montreal Witness. John Williams was a leading exhorter among the people lately assembled at Ashdod, Massachusetts, to witness the end of the world. He was so firmly convinced that the last day was at hand that he turned all his property into cash and laid it all on the collection plate. When the end did not come and the assembly dispersed, he found himself penniless, destitute even of food and clothing and started on foot for Boston. Arrived there footsore and starving, he was welcomed with a writ of divorce issued by his wife, who, though she had believed like himself in the consummation of the world, had no more use for him when his money was all gone. His course in realizing his all and laying it on the collection plate, though otherwise nugatory in view of his expectations, was no doubt meant as an assurance to his followers of his own full conviction. The taking up of a collection was certainly a curious ceremonial under the circumstances. Williams' case and the disappointment of his companions will prove a wholesome tonic for those who are able to follow every wild theory or revelation. It is not unnatural to look for portents and cataclysms in connection with the divine dealings with men, but the wise course is to follow the instruction of the gospel. He who is right with God and doing what he can for men, has no occasion to busy or bother himself about what divine providence may have in store for himself or the world. What is evident is that if the world is to be made into the Kingdom of Heaven there is a good deal to do yet, and pious people would do well to get busy about that.

A correspondent of The London Chronicle states that Canada is all the talk amongst the industrious population of the Fen country in England. The younger generation have been moving westward for some years past and many of them, now are able to pay visits home. They return comparatively rich men, and it is the stories which they are able to tell which set the occupants of every little farm house talking of what might be done if they could only get to Canada. The desirability of this class of settlers no doubt attracted C. C. James' attention when he was across the water.

To quote President Lowell, of Harvard University, critics and apologists both assert that the British political system is not logical, and the statement is true in the sense that system was not excoigitated by an apriori method, says an exchange. On the other hand the very fact that it has grown up by a continual series of adaptations to existing needs has made it on the whole more consistent with itself, has brought each part more into harmony with the rest than is the case in any other government. In this he says, it is like a living organism. The institutions being empirical have resulted from experience, and the system of government is therefore perhaps the most truly scientific of any in the world.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. HAT BEAUTIFUL

The show for our fall millinery grows more interesting day by day as additions are made to the collection. Our milliners are busy creating and evolving new and pretty styles and large numbers of them are being brought forward just as fast as they are completed. But the hats that are attracting particular attention just now are those made for early fall wear, trimmed in admirable fashion and in shapes, styles and colors in variety sufficient to please practically every taste. Visit our opening this evening 7.30.—Paton & Co. 10-6dtf.

"The loveliest fall hats. The hats for this season are more beautiful than ever before. All the rich colorings so suitable for the autumn are being shown. Velvets are very much in evidence, and French felts, the trimmings being graceful ostrich plumes, feathers, wings, ribbons and flowers. Shades are as first favorite, with greys, blues, greens and black and white following closely. See our opening display, this evening 7.30.—Paton & Co. 10-6dtf.

"Refinement, distinction, smartness without bizarre effects—these are the characteristics which seem most noticeable in the new hats. But as for description—come and see this evening 7.30.—Paton's. 10-6dtf.

No special invitations to this opening have been issued. We wish every woman in Ch'Town and vicinity to regard this as a personal invitation to view these lovely Hats this evening 7.30 p. m. at Paton's 10-6dtf

Paton's Millinery Show THIS EVENING AT 7-30 P. M

We will hold this opening in our ANNEX of which we are proud, a section so much enlarged and improved by re-arrangement; it has no equal, in extent and convenience in this city.

And this fine Show Room is a fine setting for the most splendid exhibition of woman's Hats ever made in this vicinity.

An Exhibition in which Island women will have the keenest pleasure, because though full of inspiration of Paris, New York and our own Canadian fashion centres, and often reproducing Paris Models.

This is an exhibit of Maritime and Island skill. In passing you will observe the grace of line, the exquisite use of beautiful materials, the originality of design the individuality expressed in each model. It would be easy to expect that the most famous names in Paris would be on the label, but you will find Paton's instead; and as you look closer and study workmanship, you will know that even Paris workrooms do not always produce such high grade of finish as is manifest in these New Models

In fact it is a supreme achievement of Home Makers; an exhibit of which every Island lady will feel proud; a display which in beauty, in wearableness, in moderate pricing, reaches a higher level than anything we have ever shown, or has been in this Province. You and Yours are Welcome
