

WAR ORPHANS ENTERTAINED—Senor Alvarez Mosenweiz Diaz, Mexican Minister to England, does some story telling for children of one of England's Foster Parents' Plan Orphanages, which care for children of England orphaned by current war.

It is not trick photography even though one is left-handed and the other right-handed when it comes to stuffing towels in kit-bags. The two men in battle-dress are the Schwandt twins, Privates T. H. and F. J. Schwandt, or vice versa, 23-year-old sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Schwandt of Strasburg, Sask., who after two years in the Canadian Army at Basic Training Centre in Regina, Sask. have been selected to take officers' training courses. Officers can only tell them apart by observing whether one is right handed or left handed. (Canadian Army Photo)

Advertisement for Dominion Steel & Coal Corporation Limited. Features a large ship and the word 'FAST'. Text: 'The Corvettes are coming... FAST... Yes, and they're the Johnnies-on-the-spot that have put so many U-Boats on the spot! Off the ways of Canadian shipbuilders, corvettes are sliding in ever-increasing numbers. Out they dash, with propellers churning—tough little dogs of steel, fangs ready to close on the sea-snakes of the deep—bigger, better corvettes than those which helped win the first Battle of the Atlantic. Speed is their watchword, speed that must be transmitted from power-plant to propeller. And into the all-important link—the propeller shaft—must go flawlessly dependable steel. Steel that will not fail! To Dosco—one of Canada's largest industries—has been entrusted the job of producing propeller shafts for many of Canada's corvettes and the ships they convoy. Aboard these vessels of our growing fleet is found evidence of the scope of Dosco's vast resources—shell-cases, gun-mountings, ship-plate, and other vital war matériel. The corvettes are coming! And Dosco's steel will shoulder its full share of the burden.' DOMINION STEEL & COAL CORPORATION LIMITED. Only Producer of Steel and Steel Products in Canada Wholly Self-Sustained Within the Empire.
