DIVES INTO LAKE
FROM AEROPLANE

CHICAGO, Aug. 17—Arthur Stone, driver of a Queen monoplane, was snatched back from death at the international aviation meet here yesterday after hopes for him had been given up.

Howard Gill, in a baby Wright, came almost as close to death, but escaped unhurt from under the wreck of his machine.

Lincoln Beachey, after being driven far to the south and fighting his way back above the field, glided 3000 feet in safety to the earth after his engine had stopped suddenly.

James Ward had an equally hard task to make his way from far out over Lake Michigan, but descended safely in the field.

SAVED IN TIME

Stone's machine fell into the lake just at dusk. He leaped from the falling plane and was rescued, at the point of exhaustion, by a motor boat after he has supported himself on the water more than half an hour.
His machine was not recovered.

That Stone was rescued was attributed to the insistence of his wife that he provide himself with a life preserver. Despite the orders that all fliers must wear life preservers, Stone and others started for their machines without the safeguards.
Mrs. Stone ran from the hangar just before the flight and made her husband wait until she had tied an inflated automobile tire about his shoulders.

Unnerved by the deaths the previous day of William R. Badger and St. Croix Johnstone, and deterred by a high wind, many of the fliers here protested against going up, and warned the contest committee that the aeroplanes could not be controlled in the half gale that prevailed in the upper air.

Contemplate!

Do not weigh anything in a second, but take a second thought when a druggist or dealer asks you to accept a substitute for DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry.

This preparation has been on the market for over 65 years, and so far as we know has never yet failed to either relieve or cure the worst case of DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, CRAMPS OR PAINS IN THE STOMACH, CHOLERA MOR-BUS, CHOLERA INFANTUM, SUMMER COMPLAINT, OR ANY LOOSENESS OF THE BOWELS.

Mrs. A. J. McLellan, London, Ont., writes:—"It is with much pleasure I write to say that I have used Dr.
Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry with great success. Last summer my little boy, 18 months old, was attacked two or three times with Diarrhoea, but each time, after one day's doses, he was all right again. My husband was also taken bad one night. The next day three doses cured him. I always insist on Dr. Fowler's being given me."

ROMAN HOLIDAY

Gill promised the first feature of a Roman holiday when his machine suddenly checked as it skimmed over the ground after a perfect landing, toppling over with great force. Gill, who lay motionless beneath tangled wires, taut canvas, but before started spectators had reached him, he extricated himself.

Gill probably owes his life to the new piece of construction in the baby Wright biplane. The engine, instead of resting in the rear of the avia-tor's seat, is fixed to one side.

Gill was skimming over the turf at 40 miles an hour. The wheels of his machine struck a rut. The skid supports snapped and the machine toppled over head foremost.

The effect of Tuesday's tragedies was manifested both upon aviators and spectators. There was noticeably smaller attendance. Even some of the best men here felt the loss of the field and at the hangars the fliers grouped and presented objections to further flying.

BROOKINGS SPEAKS

Walter Brookings expressed the feelings of others.

"No individual dare refuse to fly," he said. "His reputation as an aviator of daring and courage would be gone and he would be branded a coward. Every man here feels the loss of Badger and Johnstone, and no one wants to go up."

Finally Ward, Beachey and Parmalee made flights, but the wind made the flights difficult. Eventually the wind subsided and races were run over the pylon and crib courses.

Beachey was an easy winner in the nine-mile race around the pylons, finishing in 9 minutes 28 2-5 seconds.

Beachey also was unofficially accorded the day's altitude record, reaching a height of 7076 feet.

The following was given out today by Dr. Stuart Johnstone, father of St. Croix Johnstone, the Chicago aviator who was drowned in Lake Michigan yesterday after a fall with his monoplane:
