—ENJOYABLE CARD PARTIES

—On the evening of Nov. 7th, the commodious residence of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McLellan, Indian River, who are famous for their hospitality, was the scene of the weekly card party under the auspices of the C. W. L. of Indian River and Kensington. A record number of players were present occupying twenty-two tables. The prizes were won by Mr. Patrick Noonan, Indian River, and Mrs. C. J. Cooke, Kensington. After the prizes had been awarded and refreshments served, instrumental music was rendered by Mrs. Hubert Gillis and some old favorite songs were sung in chorus by several of the company present and greatly enjoyed. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. McLellan to which Mr. McLellan humorously responded. On Nov. 28th, the annual card party of the season was held in the Odd-fellows' Hall, Kensington. Mrs. (Dr.) E. G. Gillis and Mrs. Andrew O'Keefe were hostesses. Auction forty-fives was played and thoroughly enjoyed by the large number present. Prizes were won as follows, 1st prize, Mrs. Ivan Brown, 2nd prize, Mrs. James E. Saunders, G. Klemen, 1st prize, Mr. Andrew Keefe, 2nd prize, Mr. Norman R. say. Delicious refreshments served after which a delightful program was given by the following artists who were enthusiastically applauded. Instrumental music by Messrs. Phillips and Cousins and Miss Mary Ready, vocal solos by Miss Miriam Profit and Mr. T. N. Donahue and a reading by Mr. J. A. Ready. The singing by all present of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem brought a very pleasant evening to a close. —K.

The Markets

MONTREAL, Que., Dec. 5.—Dealers in the poultry section continued to feature trading on the Montreal wholesale produce market today. Trading continued fairly active in other branches of the market with prices holding unchanged. There is still an over stock of poultry and it is expected there will be a further decrease in prices to the retail trade shortly. Wheat on the local cash grain market was advanced four cents per bushel today, but other prices remained unchanged.
