The BIG REASON why Old Dutch Cleanser costs less to use

It's very simple. These illustrations show how entirely different Old Dutch is from ordinary, gritty cleansers... and it's this difference that makes it cost less to use.

Old Dutch is the only cleanser made of pure "seismotite" scientifically recognized as the safest, most efficient and most economical cleaning material.

That he was unable to use it. The jealous Nahanni river tipped his boat and sent all but a small bottle containing five ounces of flake gold to the sands of the tropical valley. This was around 1904. ORDER IS RESTORED IN FRANCE

"Truce Cabinet" Guards Against Outbreaks And Turns to Foreign Problems.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) PARIS, Feb. 13.—Adopting a policy of "silent work," the political truce cabinet of Premier Gaston Doumergue tonight devoted itself to the principal aim of restoring public confidence.

Police were withdrawn from public gathering places, following suppression of riots early today in several provincial cities. Quiet apparently was restored following the end of yesterday's general strike.

Officers were ordered not to open fire unless fired upon.

Expressing belief disorders had finished but remaining in readiness for other possible outbreaks, the government turned to its programme of balancing the budget and showing a firm hand in foreign problems, as evidenced by two notes.

One was sent Great Britain refusing to change the French attitude in the trade dispute between the two countries.

A solid stand against Chancellor Hitler's arms demands was contained in a note sent to Berlin tonight, which will be published tomorrow.

Vigorous prosecution of several financial scandals are underway and three new arrests were made, two in the Stavisky case. Deputy Gaston Boumaure, an attorney for the late Serge Stavisky, who allegedly caused collapse of the Bapostone Partnership, was one of those placed under arrest.

Premier "Papa Doumergue" imposed silence on all of his ministers, while he tried to smooth out differences behind cabinet walls.

Government spokesmen said the political truce was working its desired effects, pointing to the rise in value of all treasury bonds, particularly the four and a half percent 1932 conversion issue, which climbed from 79.50 to 83.50, and increased activity in the stock market. There were fewer redemptions of treasury bonds.

The provinces, however, deputies said, are not fully won over to the neutral government, with some suspicion existing in Poitiers caused the leftist cabinet of Premier Edouard Daladier by "foul means."

Disorders were suppressed early this morning at Marseilles, Nantes, Toulon, Lille, Roubaix and Mulhouse. Some 40 were arrested at Marseilles, where police broke down rioters.

February 1st, a nice program was enjoyed by all. A reading by Mr. Ernest Palfrey of Mt. Stewart added much to the occasion. After the program a splendid lunch was served by a capable group of young folks. Mr. John Joe McDonald, a man of four score years, said in a recent conversation that this is the worst winter he ever knew, believe it or not. Well supplied with feed and stock not one Indian resident of Saskatchewan has applied for relief this winter. W. Murison, in charge of Indian affairs, has reported way to England. Against Canada's meagre contribution, the total amount of dead poultry and eggs imported by the United Kingdom from all countries in the year 1933 was 655,453 cwt. of dead poultry and 25,925,201 great hundreds of eggs in shell. A great hundred is 120. The amount that the United Kingdom requires apparently is not decrease in spite of her own increased production because her importations keep on showing an increase. A splendid stand of virgin hemlock still remains uncut in the centre of Nova Scotia, north of Lake Rossignol, a perfect fairy-land of forest beauty.

Canadian Pioneer Problems. Towards the establishment of the science of settlement and development, the Canadian Pioneer Problems Committee is making some considerable contributions. The old homestead policy and its near associates as practised by the land and development companies have been subjected to the scrutiny of the historian and the statistician, which will at least avoid the glaring errors of the past can be devised from the findings of the committee. Many of the traditional attitudes respecting land ownership and farm tenancy are undergoing a change and the new agricultural boom when it comes, as come will, may find people with a new attitude on land prices, and perhaps a saner attitude towards land ownership. The Committee has been at work for several years and has presented the necessary data for the beginning of a "science of settlement" in a concise form. The nine volumes now going to press are Professor R. W. Murchie.
