BULGARIA ALARMED AT RUSSIAN NOTE

Clergy are Unitedly Pro-Russian and the People Largely of Same Mind, While Adhesion of Parliamentary Leaders to Ministry is Only Apparent.

ROME, Oct. 6.—Reports from Sofia state that the Russian ultimatum to Bulgaria produced real alarm in political and official circles.

Greek territories nor with the Debrastate. He also announced a military convention with Germany and Austria for the invasion of Serbia, declaring that henceforth it would be impossible for Bulgaria to have steps.

ANOTHER BRILLIANT VICTORY FOR FRENCH TROOPS IN WEST

Capture Village of Tahure and Reached Summit of Hill Which Constituted Supporting Point in Second German Line. Took Over 1,000 German Prisoners. Heavy Artillery Fighting Along Whole Front.

(Special to the Guardian.)

PARIS, Oct. 6.—French infantry, after a heavy bombardment by artillery, to-day captured by assault the village of Tahure and reached the summit of the hill of the same name, which constituted the supporting point in the second German line, according to an official communication to-night. The text follows: "Our action in Champagne obtained to-day new results. Our infantry troops after strong artillery preparation captured by assault the village of Tahure and reached the summit of the same hill. We also made progress in the environs of Navarin farm. The prisoners taken exceeded 1,000. On the rest of the front only artillery engagements are reported. These were especially intense in Artois, in the region of Giverny Wood and Hill 119, in Argonne, north from La Bassee to La Petre, in Lorraine, near Lientry, Balidon and Badonviller, as well as in the Vosges on Metzeral ridge.

THE GREEK CABINET HAS RESIGNED

King Refuses to Support Policy of Venizelos Cabinet. Premier Bitterly Attacked by Opposition. Government Policy Approved by Majority Vote.

PARIS, Oct. 6.—An Athens despatch to the Havas Agency says: "Premier Venizelos has resigned, the King having informed him that he was unable to support the policy of his Ministry."

The same authority declares that General Savoff, former Minister of War, and former Commander-in-Chief of the Bulgarian army, in concluding a thrilling speech, said: "Every Bulgarian who breaks away from Russia commits an act of treason towards his country."

ATHENS, via London, Oct. 6.—After Premier Venizelos had explained to the Chamber of Deputies the circumstances connected with the landing of Allied troops at Saloniki, the Chamber passed a vote of confidence in the Government. The vote was 142 to 102, with thirteen members not voting.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—A despatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's Telegram Company, says: "The People's Gazette of Cologne understands that the Bulgarian Government probably will make no reply to the Russian ultimatum. The recall from Sofia of all the Entente Ministers, the newspaper says, is expected to-day and it adds that a declaration of war by Russia is considered possible."

SUMMARY OF WAR SITUATION EAST AND WEST

(Special to the Guardian.)

LONDON, Oct. 6.—There is little change in the military situation on any of the various war fronts. Reports, which remain unconfirmed, are to the effect that an Austro-German force, variously estimated at from 100,000 to 500,000 men with 2,000 guns is proceeding through Southern Hungary to attack the Serbians.

desperate effort to assume the initiative in the fighting. On some sectors, Petrograd reports, the Russians already succeeded in doing this; besides, it is asserted, they have now held up against Divinsk for several weeks and inflicted very serious losses on him. Von Hindenburg is receiving reinforcements with a view to making another attempt to force his way through the outer defences of the city.

The Italians record another advance toward Rovereto, which has so many times been reported as evacuated by the Austrians. Heavy losses were sustained by the British and French in their attempts to penetrate the Germans' lines in France and a large number of men is required for operations along the Dardanelles and the Balkans.

EXPLOSION ON U. S. NAVAL CRAFT

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 5.—An explosion followed by a fire took place to-day on board the torpedo boat destroyer Cummings while she was engaged in war manoeuvres, off the coast. The Cummings was immediately headed for this port.

NO SHORTAGE OF HIGH EXPLOSIVES

LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Daily Mail's political correspondent says the reduction of high explosive shells recently has shown very marked improvement. The difficulties of labor resulting in restriction of output of which there was for some time much reason to complain, have within the last fortnight largely disappeared.

ALLIES' MINISTERS DEMANDED PASSPORTS FROM BULGARIA

(Special to the Guardian.) SOFIA, Oct. 6th, via Paris, Oct. 6.—Russian, French, British and Italian Ministers have asked for their passports, Bulgaria's answer to the Allies' Minister to-day also asked for his passports.

THE CAPTURE OF 9,000 AUSTRIANS

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Nine thousand Austrian prisoners, including 185 officers, belonging to five Hungarian and Honved regiments, have arrived at Kiev, says a Petrograd despatch to Reuter's.

RUSSIAN DUMA TO MEET ON OCTOBER 8

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A delayed despatch to The Times, dated Petrograd Sept. 30, says: "The members of the Cabinet returned from field headquarters, after a meeting in the presence of the Emperor, this afternoon. According to newspaper reports, the Duma will reconvene on Oct. 8."

MUST STOP MASSACRE OF ARMENIANS OR LOSE FRIENDSHIP OF U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—United States Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople, was instructed by cable today to inform the Turkish minister of foreign affairs that public sentiment in the United States was so stirred by the reports of the Armenian atrocities that until the massacres ceased friendly relations between the American people and the people of Turkey would be threatened.

THE SERBIAN ARMY IS IN GOOD CONDITION

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Dr Richard P. Strong, professor at Harvard University, who has been directing the anti-typhus campaign of the American Red Cross sanitary commission in Serbia during the past six months, returned to-day on the steamer Duca Degli Abruzzi, and declared that the Serbian army is free from typhus, and is in as good physical condition as any army in the world.

ITALIAN BATTERIES SHELLING APPROACHES TO TORREONE

ROME, via Paris, Oct. 6.—The official statement issued to-day at the headquarters of the Italian general staff, was as follows: "In the Tonale zone, during the night of the third, one of our mountain detachments, having scaled the rugged Torreone Peak (at the head of the Strino Valley), drove out several enemy detachments posted there and destroyed partly constructed defences, then returning to our lines, after avoiding a violent artillery fire directed upon it by the enemy. Our batteries continue to shell the approaches to Torreone, thus preventing the enemy from re-occupying the position."

REV. H. R. GRANT IS THE NEW MODERATOR

ST JOHN, Oct. 5.—The Maritime Provinces Presbyterian Synod in session here to-night elected Rev. H. R. Grant of New Glasgow, head of the Nova Scotia Temperance Federation moderator. More than three hundred delegates from all parts of the Maritime Provinces were in attendance.

SHELL FIRE KILLS FORTY-SIX NUNS A SPECIAL MACHINE GUN CORPS

LONDON, Oct. 6.—A Petrograd despatch to Reuter's Telegram Co says that the Russian Red Cross Society has published a list of forty-six Sisters of Mercy who perished in the bombardment of a hospital by the Austrians and Germans. The despatch adds that the Germans have constructed huge railway workshops at Wirballen, where they are employing French and Belgian prisoners.

KILL PRAIRIE DOGS BY CHLORINE GAS

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Oct. 6.—Killing prairie dogs with gas is the newest and most successful method of warfare against the western pest, according to reports from the infested county near here. Chlorine gas from a large automobile generator is forced into the holes through a hose. The hole is then quickly covered, and the occupant, be it prairie dog, ground squirrel or snake, immediately dies.

ALLIES CHANCES IN THE GREAT WAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A news agency despatch from Berlin published here this afternoon says: "In the scale of human hazards, the Allies have eighty chances in one hundred of scoring a decisive victory over the Germans when the general offensive begins."
