It is suggested that a school children's subscription be organized.

LYNCH & Co., 18 Fulton Fish Market, New York, have been handling fish on consignment for the past 43 years and are experienced buyers. Prince Edward Island fishermen are requested to write them before shipping their goods elsewhere and they will from time to time send valuable information as to shipping etc. Careful attention and prompt handling of consignments for which highest market prices are paid and itemized daily returns made, make a safe market for Island consignees to ship to. The firm's standing can be had in Dunn's Mercantile Agency, Bradstreets, or the Market and Fulton National Bank.

"THE GUARDIAN MAN" will make his second round some evening this week and will distribute three more envelopes. Number one envelope will contain Mark Wright Furlanish Co's order, for $10.00 worth of furniture or carpets. Number two envelope will have McDonald & MacKinnon's order for $5.00 worth of goods in their line, and number three envelope will contain Saunders & Newson's order for $2.00 worth of meats. As an announced in Saturday's issue, "The Guardian Man" is a stranger in the city and no one knows whom he will call on next. Be sure you have the paper ready when he calls and thus not be disappointed.

ON October 22nd at her home at Nine Mile Creek after a lingering illness which she bore with Christian resignation to the Divine will, there passed away an old and respected inhabitant in the person of Mrs. James Currie in the 81st year of her age, leaving a disconsolate husband, two sons, and three daughters, John at Fairview, Peter on the homestead; Mrs. Barry in Boston, O. King at Rocky Point and Mrs. Barry at St. Peter's. So mourn the their irreparable loss. Her son, Francis, and daughter Selina (Mrs. Edward Harrington, Jr.) predeceased her. She was a kind neighbor and devoted wife and mother, and held in the highest esteem in the community in which she resided as was exemplified by the large concourse of people that followed her remains to the South Shore Chapel where Requiem Mass was said by the Rev. Dr. Morrison. The pall bearers were Edward Harrington, Hector McLaine, A. B. McDonald, George Wilson, Dugal Currie, and Thomas E. Murphy, Esquires.

THE Rose Valley correspondent of The Guardian writes:—The roads are in a terrible condition owing to the recent snow-storm which passed over the country a few days ago.—The farmers have about completed their fall's work and are busily preparing for winter. John McIntosh has purchased the very valuable farm previously owned by Joseph Trowdale, for which Mr. McIntosh has paid a handsome sum.—Miss Katie Todd left Saturday for Moncton, where she will spend the winter with her sister Mrs. Anderson.

Laughlin Graham, Bradshaw, paid a flying visit to Rose Valley last week the guest of John D. Matheson.—The party held at Kenneth Gillis's on Nov. 29th proved a grand success, at which were about 60 invited guests present, among those were Messrs Alex. McDonald Samuel and Jas. Biggar, Leonard Todd, Rod. McKay, and A. Morrison Bradshaw, Arthur and Wm. French, Archie Anderson, Westmoreland. The night passed away in singing, music, dancing etc until the wee sma' hours of day-break.—Miss Annie Eward has returned home from a visit to Westmoreland.—John McDonald, Inkerman, spent the past week in Rose Valley.

ROBERT HARRIS, C. M. G. and Mrs. Harris have returned to their home in Montreal, after having spent the summer in Munich, Milan, Venice, Rome and European art centres.

The manager of the Royal Bank of Canada promises Guardian readers new and interesting matter in his advertising space twice a week. Be sure and always read the advertisement, as it may save you money.

The hundreds of persons and firms who are from day to day placing advertising in The Guardian reach between forty and fifty thousand people daily. Such a large circulation obtains a large amount of advertising and this occasions a large newspaper of from eight to twenty pages each issue.

WILLIAM AND MRS. SMITH, who have been visiting at Hampton, leave next Monday on return to their home in Bishop, Cal. They will be accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Radcliffe and Miss Claude Smith. The former goes as far as Boston, and the latter to Amherst, where she will spend a week before proceeding to Boston.

THE GUARDIAN is in receipt of a letter bearing the Pictou postmark and containing the following message: "St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 20. Lost off steamer Alma, of Halifax, in heavy storm, W. Hennessy, formerly of Prince Edward Island, supposed to have met a watery grave. Signed, Captain Grant, St. John's, Nfld. Kindly publish." The Guardian is not in possession of any other facts.

THE marriage took place yesterday morning, at the Church of the Most Precious Blood, Hyde Park, Mass., of Miss Mary Winifred Ryan, daughter of D. D. and Mrs. Ryan, Charlottetown, to Daniel Bernard McDonald. A reception was held in the evening at the home of the groom's parents, Canton Avenue, Blue Hills. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will be at home after January 1st at 116 Lexington Avenue, New York City.
