MacSweeney Wants Simple Burial

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, Sept. 15.—The latest bulletin issued from the Sinn Fein headquarters today said the condition of Terence MacSweeney, Lord Mayor of Cork, remained unchanged and physicians were puzzled over MacSweeney's grip on life. Although practically in a comatose condition the hunger striking prisoner was conscious. He talked with his wife yesterday whispering to her his desires as to funeral rites. He asked her to arrange for simple Catholic services with funeral orations in the Irish tongue. Despite the MacSweeney's refusal Sinn Fein leaders said they planned to make the service the greatest demonstration in Ireland's history.

The Industrial Crisis in Italy

(Special to The Guardian.)
ROME, September 15.—The solution of the economic controversy in Italy has passed into the hands of confederation labor, representing nearly 2,000,000 workers and the confederation of industries, representing more than $2,000,000,000 capital, according to Senator Contini. The meeting of confederation of industries in Milan today was expected to reach an epoch making decision affecting Italy's national and industrial future. While the manufacturers are not opposed to permitting the workers to share in the profits and allowing them representation in administration of each industry they will energetically oppose any attempt on the part of the unions to intervene in active management of factories or to place limitations on the rights of technical and financial directors in conducting production. It was learned from an authoritative source.

POTASH AND PERLMUTTER A DELIGHTFUL COMEDY

The Klark Urban Company in their presentation of the delightful humorous three act play Potash and Perlmutter scored a distinct hit and the big audience went away feeling that in this production they had certainly got their full money's worth of entertainment. The story of Potash and Perlmutter deals with the adventures of Abe and Mawruss, their friends and rivals. The two partners, despite their continual quarrels, are shown to be generous and loyal to a fault. Troubles pile up fast on them. Their rival has a design whose goals make those of Potash and Perlmutter the laughing stock of their customers; their lawyer, Henry Fieldman proves to be a rascal; the Russian government has their bookkeeper arrested on attempted charge and in order to save him from extradition he risks their fortunes and are on the verge of bankruptcy. Then enters Ruth Goldman, the designer of the famous Armore, Saque, and with her enters sunshine and happiness. She secured a great politician to help the bookkeeper, she gets out a new saque for Potash and Perlmutter that brings in trade with a rush; she helps rout the rascally lawyer and, finally she consents to become Mrs. Perlmutter, while the young bookkeeper weds the charming young daughter of Abe Potash. Plenty of love, plenty of law, plenty of politics and plenty of fashions and plenty of fun in this most delightful comedy. Mr. Klark as Mawruss took the part in his inimitable manner and as Abe Perlmutter Mr. Scoville took the part splendidly. The various other members of the cast carried out their parts in typical Klark-Urban style, which means that practically everybody was satisfied. The play for tonight is "The Man From Home."

HUNGER STRIKING MAYOR BECOMES DELIRIOUS

(Special to The Guardian.)
LONDON, September 15.—Terence MacSweeney, hunger striker, Lord Mayor of Cork, was in a ravine of delirium during the greater part of last night, his sister Annie declared today as she left Brixton prison after visiting him. He was raving that he was leading a Sinn Fein army. MacSweeney talked wildly and shouted commands, his sister said. This morning realizing that he might betray Sinn Fein secrets while raving MacSweeney, asked his lawyer to have him put in a hospital where he became delirious while the prison doctors were present.

Alleged Cure For Leprosy Elephant Throws Menagerie Around

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Successful experiments upon 59 persons suffering from leprosy lead officials of the United States Public Health Service to believe they have at last found a cure for that ancient and dread disease. Everyone of the 59 recovered to such an extent that they were released on parole and after a year not one has shown the smallest symptom of recurrence. Announcement of this fact in the Journal of the Missouri Medical Association was confirmed to-night by Dr. Claude Lavindar, of the Washington Public Health Service. "The starting point for this study was the observation that now and then the course of the disease appeared to be favorably influenced by treatment with chaulmoogra oil," says an official representative. "The treatment, however, was attended with many difficulties and could not be carried out in all cases."

"At this point the United States Public Health Service enlisted the co-operation of Prof. L. E. Dean, head of the chemical department of the College of Hawaii, and president of the institution, suggestion that attempts be made either to isolate the active constituent of this drug or to devise means for making its continued administration feasible. The latter has been accomplished by preparing what is known as an 'ethyl ester' from the chaulmoogra oil. The treatment has been carried on at the leprosy investigation station at Kailhi, Hawaii, the work being directed by Dr. J. T. McDonald, director at the station."

"One difficulty now lies in obtaining this rare oil in adequate quantities. The chaulmoogra tree is a native of India. To obtain sufficient number of trees the Federal Government is sending Prof. Joseph F. Rock, of the department of Agriculture to Burma. He will bring back seeds and slips, which will be set out in Government nurseries in Hawaii and elsewhere."

Settlement of Industrial Troubles

(Special to The Guardian.)
ROME, Sept. 15.—Negotiations between the workers and manufacturers to bring about a settlement of the industrial problem will be resumed under government direction, according to advices received today, from Milan. Although the owners naturally are continuing their position to union control of their factories, many are favoring the profit sharing system as a solution. Indications are however that they will insist upon the workers evacuating the plants they have seized before agreeing to any settlements.

(Special to The Guardian.)
TORONTO, Sept. 14.—On the request of the Department of Naval Affairs at Ottawa to the Navy League of Canada, fifty Ontario boys—members of the Boys' Naval Brigade—will leave Toronto tomorrow for Halifax to join the new ships presented by Britain to the Canadian Navy. The event marks an epoch in Canadian naval history because this is the first group of boys definitely launched upon a Canadian Royal Naval career as the result of the efforts of the Navy League of Canada—and it marks definite recognition of the work of the League. The boys are all of fine type, representative of the best Canadian spirit and tradition.

Resignation of Hon. E. A. Smith

(Special to The Guardian.)
ST. JOHN, Sept. 15.—Hon. E. A. Smith, Minister of Lands and Mines has resigned his portfolio. The resignation was submitted to his Honor the Lieut. Governor and has been accepted, the announcement was made yesterday by Premier Foster. In speaking of the matter Hon. Mr. Foster said the name of Hon. Dr. Smith's successor would be made public in a short time. The Premier said this resignation was not the result of any difference of opinion as to stampage or any matter of public policy but arose because of a division of opinion in connection with details of the proposed game preserve. Dr. Smith has been in the government from the first and has been a prominent figure in provincial affairs ever since he won the famous Westmorland by-election. There is no word as to the identity of his successor.

FORMER MONCTON PEOPLE IN DISPUTE OVER YOUNG GIRL.

NEWARK, September 15.—By a court decision handed down this afternoon Mrs. Annie O'Brien, Moncton, N.B., was denied possession of her 13 year old daughter, Kathleen. The girl was awarded to Mrs. Lillian Delaney, this city, her foster mother. Vice-Chancellor Fielder, in announcing the decision said he would insert a clause restraining the child's parents ever from attempting to gain possession of her. Kathleen was placed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delaney when she was a year old because the parents were unable to provide for her. She did not know that the Delaneys were not her real parents until a few weeks ago when the action for her recovery was started by Mrs. O'Brien, who is a sister of Harmon Delaney, the foster father. This step was taken by Mrs. O'Brien after the Delaneys had separated and Delaney assisted her in her attempt to get Kathleen back, according to statements made in court.

GREAT STORM SWEEPS OVER NOVA SCOTIA

In Digby St. Patrick's Church Was Hit Three Times by Lightning Bolts. Three Houses on One Street Damaged.

DIGBY, September 15.—One of the worst electrical storms which ever passed over this country took place this morning resulting in much damage. In Digby four places were struck, St. Patrick's Catholic church being the worst sufferer. This building which stands on a high hill, was struck twice, if not three times. There are holes in the roof, front wall, foundation and the steeple is ripped to pieces. Windows were torn out and thrown around and it will cost a great deal to repair the damage. The other three buildings were on St. Mary's street, a few hundred yards apart. They were the residence of S. L. Sallis, a cottage owned by Edward Sullivan and the Hutcheson barn. The latter was set on fire and destroyed.

Acadiaville, the residence of John Murley, was badly damaged. In Bear River the house of Stanley Sullivan was struck, the bolt entering the north end of the house and almost wrecking it. Beds were torn to pieces and portions torn out, but no one was hurt.

HALIFAX, N.S., September 15.—A heavy electrical and rain storm swept over the province last night and today. Damage is reported in several places, and the telegraph service to eastern points is interrupted. A despatch from Port Hawkesbury says that no trains arrived today. Several bridges at that place have been carried away, and the iron bridge and concrete abutment at the head of Hawkesbury harbor are down.
