WELCOME NEWS.—Word has been received by Mrs. Frank Smith, Jr., Rocky Point, from her brother John D., who is overseas, that her brother Pte. Hector McEachern, No. 712182, who is seriously ill and wounded since last October, is doing well, and is expected home shortly. It will be remembered that some time ago his death was reported in the casualty list.

A RETURNED HERO.—Among the soldiers who recently returned to Charlottetown last Sunday was Pte. John M. Mellish, who is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. D. MacCallum, Pte. Mellish has been absent from the Island for about ten years. At the outbreak of the war, he enlisted in Vancouver in the 158th Battalion. In England, he transferred to the famous fighting 7th, which played such a prominent part during the early battles of the war. He reached France in 1916, and was there continuously until the end marching with his Regiment to the Rhine. He took part in the battles of Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, Amiens, Arras and Cambrai. On April 9th, 1917, at Vimy he received a sniper's bullet in the leg and was in Hospital in England for five months. On returning to France he again entered the firing line. There were quite a number of Islanders in the 7th, including Corporal P. A. Hughes of the Pensions Office in this city. It will be remembered that they suffered very heavy casualties particularly all the originals being wiped out. Mr. Mellish is receiving a warm welcome from his many friends here.

MAE EDWARDS CO. ENTERTAIN ROTARIANS.—The Rotarians had an unusually good time at luncheon in the Davies Hotel yesterday, when a mixed quartette from the Mae Edwards Company contributed an enjoyable musical program. Rotarian Frank Clark presided, and the guests included Colonel Campbell, Lieut. Russell Watson, R. N. Flight Lieut. H. C. Bourke, Mr. Norman Watson, Mr. W. L. Strickland, Mr. Charles Smith, Mr. "Jack" Corbin, Mr. "Billy" Pritchard, and Miss Edith Lee. Vocal solos, trios, banjo solos and choruses enlivened the proceedings and made the rafters resound for the best part of half an hour. Lieut. Watson then gave a short account of his experiences with the British Navy in the North Sea, where he was engaged with a flotilla chasing submarines, mine-sweeping and patrol work generally. Their base was at Granton and throughout the whole war they did not lose a ship to the enemy. On one occasion they were mined in, but were immediately relieved by the fleet. His flotilla accounted for seven submarines. Their area covered 2,000 miles, which they had to keep clear, and sections of which they traversed every twenty-four hours. Mr. Watson in conclusion expressed the opinion that it was desirable to encourage recruiting for the navy to keep it up to the high standard it had attained.

YOU!
(By Sergt. Major Lee C. Kitson.)
You talk, you laugh, you brag, you boast,
You never freely give a friendly toast,
You hate, you groan, never say a

kindly word,
What is life to you, your neighbor, you've never heard?
You grumble, you gossip, you don't say much, do YOU
You save, you hoard, you get "in dutch," that is quite true,
YOU and YOU and YOU.

You say this and do that, you don't stand pat.
You preach, you teach, your aim is simply flat,
You worship, you give, you say a "how-do-do,"
But what's in a greeting friend, its entirety up to YOU,
You're genuine or false, you smile or frown,
You help or hurt when a friend is down.
YOU and YOU and YOU.
