KINDLY REMEMBERED.—On New Year's Day Mr. James S. Farquharson, Bunbury called at the home of Mrs. Hammond Kelly and presented her with a snug purse of gold in token of the appreciation and esteem of the congregation of Bunbury Church of which she has been organist for several years. Mrs. Kelly was most agreeably taken by surprise and through Mr. Farquharson, secretary of the Church Trustees' Board, she extended most cordial thanks for the thoughtful and kindly act on the part of the congregation.

POLICE COURT.—A large crowd gathered at the Police Court yesterday morning when the assault case of Fred Beer vs John Horne came up for hearing. Mr. Beer testified that he drove into the Highland Hotel gang way on Saturday afternoon where he saw Mr. John Horne and another young man in a wagon apparently ready to drive out. Mr. Horne, he stated, shouted something at him and then hit his own horse a crack of the whip and then struck at Mr. Beer who got the most of it over the face while Mr. McKinnon who was seated beside him got the last end of the whip. Plaintiff then stated that all hands got out of the wagons and the young man who was with Mr. Horne made at him. He testified that the next thing he saw was Mr. Horne coming out of the house with his coat off and an iron bar in his hand. McKinnon closed with Horne and apparently succeeded in getting the bar away from him. After that plaintiff stated that Horne made at him with a stake and again with a shovel. Plaintiff swore he had not been drinking. John D. McKinnon told of driving into the yard when Mr. Horne was coming out. He swore that Horne shouted something and hit both he and Beer at the same time with a stroke of the whip. Later Horne came out of the house with a piece of iron pipe. Witness was not sure whether he took it from him or not, but he lost it anyway. Next he claims that he saw Mr. Horne with a stick and that Beer took it from him. He next saw Mr. Horne coming from the barn with a shovel and all got into a clinch. The Marshal then arrived and the fight stopped. John Horne testified that on Saturday about 3.45 he drove out of his barn down to the archway. The yard was lined on both sides with wagons. Beer and McKinnon he claimed drove into the yard at full trot. He hung out to them to hold on and Mr. Harrington tried to persuade them to back up and let him get out. This defendant said was vehemently refused, Beer claiming it to be a public yard and that he was going in. Defendant then went on to say that Beer jumped out of his wagon, and took his horse by the head and despite his protests seemed bound to crash him—"wagon, horse, and all." Then, declared defendant, "I took my driving whip and struck him and his horse to keep him back and he struck me when I was sitting in my wagon. Defendant claimed he tried to get out of the left side of the wagon but that his fur coat jammed in the chaffing iron and he could neither move one way or the other and finally struggled free, where both men attacked him violently. A man named Darrach coming in later and helping them. Mr. Horne swore that when he got away he ran into the barn where he grabbed a shovel and warned them to keep back. Beer after this, he testified, struck Horne's eldest son. The Marshal separated them, and defendant afterwards went back and struck McKinnon twice and put him out of action. Other evidence heard was that of Mr. E. L. Harrington, proprietor of the Highland Hotel, and Parker and Reigh Horne, and John R. McWilliams, stableman at the Highland Hotel. The case was adjourned until Tuesday next to get the evidence of Messrs F. Darrach, and Neil and Angus Darrach.

CALEDONIA.—The school is progressing favourably under the skilful management of Miss Katie E. McLeod (teacher)—Mr. John McKeown spent the weekend in Glen William the guest of Mr. Alexander Matheson. While on a business trip to Mr. Murdoch McKinnon's Glen Martin Mr. Donald Walker was so unfortunate as to suffer a severe relapse of the la grippe as he was just recovering from the disease a few days before—Mr. John Stewart was a recent guest of Mr. Duncan McMillan in Caledonia recently visiting friends.—The many friends of Mr. M. M. Stewart, merchant will be pleased to hear that he has recovered from a most violent attack of the la grippe.—A successful pie-society was held in Caledonia on Dec. 20th, '16, the program being the best on record. A prominent part which is worthy of special mention was the sword-dance by Miss Effie McQueen, the music being furnished by Lieutenant McQueen, D. C. M.

IT WILL PREVENT ULCERATED THROAT.—At the first symptoms of sore throat, which presages ulceration and inflammation, take a spoonful of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Add a little sugar to it to make it palatable. It will allay the irritation and prevent the ulceration and swelling that are so painful. Those who were periodically subject to quinsy have thus made themselves immune to attacks.

A PURELY VEGETABLE PILL.—The chief ingredients of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are mandrake and dandelion, sedative and purgative but perfectly harmless in their action. They cleanse and purify and have a most healthful effect upon the secretions of the digestive organs. The dyspeptic and all who suffer from liver and kidney ailments will find in these pills the most effective medicine in concentrated form that has yet been ordered to the suffering.

And the question is CASH?

On January 31st this store goes on a CASH basis. The slate breaks. The shingle is retired from duty—no more chalk marks on the wall.

SOMEONE ASKS WHY? There are two or three good whys—and here they are—
FIRST. So long as we do a credit business, we will always have, at all times, a large sum of money on our books, practically idle. Now, in these days the busy dollar is the only dollar that is any good. Prices are so much higher, that it means a far larger investment to keep up our stock to the point that will satisfy you—or us. The lazy dollar must work. And so the answer to this question is CASH.

SECOND. So long as we do a credit business—we're bound to make some mistakes in granting credit—that means bad debts. Now, somebody has to pay for those bad debts. And you who always pay your own bills—are not anxious to pay any others, are you? AND SO, the answer to this question is CASH.

THIRD. So long as we do a credit business, we have to remember that it costs something. Paper and ink—books and pens—postage stamps and bill heads—letters and duns—the labor of attending to all of this—it all means money—and not a little money either. Somebody has to pay it. YOU do not want to. And so the answer is CASH.

FOURTH. Who profits. Where we save expenses—we can sell a little cheaper. Where we cut out losses—we can sell cheaper still. And where our capital is FREE, we can always carry the great big assortment that you look for here. In other words, YOU GET THE BENEFIT. THINK IT OVER.

It will be better after the war.

"I don't know a nation that will dare touch us after the war. They had forgotten what we were like in the old days, but it will take them a long time to forget this lesson."

"Before the war began we had many shortcomings in business and industry. The war is setting things right in a marvelous way. Our factories are scrapping old machinery, discarding old slipshod methods and discontinuing hampering customs. I do not know what the national debt will be at the end of the war, but I venture the prediction that whatever is added will be a real asset to the real riches of the nation."

The Nation Braced up

"The nation has been developed, disciplined and braced up."

"The Prussian menace was a running mortgage which depreciated the value of our national security."

ity. That mortgage will now be cleared off forever.

After the war the world will be able to attend to its business in peace, and in the future the best security for peace will be found when the nations of the world band themselves together to punish the first peace breaker."

This reference to the American proposals for a league to enforce peace was greeted with prolonged cheers.

The Premier added a final exhortation for contributions to the loan, and then closed his address.

Right Hon. Reginald McKenna, former Chancellor of the Exchequer, wound up the meeting supporting the appeal made in behalf of the loan and urging the favorable effect a huge subscription would have upon neutrals.

Concluding Mr. McKenna said: "In paying our expenditures abroad the Chancellor of the Exchequer needs the support of a heavy purse. It gives him strength and credit abroad if he is master of our gigantic revenue and if our internal finances are running smoothly."

In many a home the keystone of the family's health is a daily ration of the splendid whole wheat and barley food—

Crape-Nuts

The reason lies in the fact that this food contains an abundance of those elements—the mineral salts—so necessary for well-balanced bodies, brains and nerves. Grape-Nuts also includes the entire nutriment of the grains, in concentrated, easily digestible form, ready-to-eat from the package.

Grape-Nuts is usually eaten with cream or milk, and the flavor is wonderfully delicious. It also combines in numerous attractive, special dishes.

Better digestion, better health, better accomplishment, with Grape-Nuts as a daily food.
