WEDDED YESTERDAY.—A quiet wedding was solemnized in the drawing room of the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 21st, when Miss Lillian Hall of Wallington, Surrey, England was united in marriage to Mr. Alexander Gillis McLean of Highbank, P. E. I. Rev. Geo. C. Taylor officiating. The bride looked very pretty in a gray gown with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pale pink asters and maiden hair fern. The Guardian joins in happiest congratulations.

HYMENEAL.—A very interesting social event took place in St. Peter's Church, St. Peter's, on Tuesday morning, when Philip J. Rossiter, Morell, led to the altar Miss Alyce Macdonald. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Eugene, while her cousin, Miss Jeanette Macdonald, did like honors for the bride, who was given away by her father, Dr. R. J. Macdonald. The bride looked charming gowned in white silk, wearing a veil and carrying a bouquet of sweet peas and fern. The Rev. A. Sinnott, cousin of the groom, tied the nuptial knot. The marriage ceremony over the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where breakfast was served, after which the newly wed set out by auto, amidst confetti and rice, on their honeymoon in the Maritime Provinces.

Nothing To Equal

For Sprains and Bruises The first thing to do when you have an injury is to apply Minard's famous Liniment. It is antiseptic, soothing, healing and gives quick relief.

Your Home

Have you placed the "guardian angel" of life insurance over your home?

A home protected by life insurance—covering the mortgage and the necessities of life—is one of the happiest places possible. There is no dread of the future; no fear of losing the home through forced sale should death occur to the bread-winner; nor is there any likelihood of the mother having to supplement a meagre income by working, nor of the children having to forego the advantages of an education.

The guardian angel of life insurance simply takes your place and "carries on." With a mighty three billions of dollars she is standing watch over thousands of Canadian homes, where the parents and children all live in the happiness that comes through the knowledge of adequate protection.

Life Insurance representatives are the great ambassadors to your home. They will be pleased to show you how simply and easily you can throw the "mantle of protection" around it.

NOTHING CAN EVER TAKE THE PLACE OF YOUR HOME. IT IS A WORLD IN ITSELF ABOUT WHICH EVERYTHING REVOLVES.

How John Parvin's Mortgage Was Paid.

JOHN PARVIN was a farmer living near Port Hope, Ont. He bought a farm for $6,000, of which amount he paid $2,000 cash and signed a mortgage for the remaining $4,000.

But the thought of this $4,000 overhanging his home made him uneasy. He feared the loss of the farm to his wife in case of his death.

One day he went to Port Hope. Here he met a North American Life representative and confided to him his doubts and fears. He was advised to take out a policy for $4,000 to cover his estate, which he did.

The second winter after this he was taking grain to town. The day was bitterly cold and he caught a chill. Pneumonia resulted. Inside of a week John Parvin had passed away.

His North American Life policy lifted the mortgage off that farm.

We have a booklet entitled "About That Mortgage," which gives full information on how to cover mortgaged property. Send for it to-day.
