A GOOD EXAMPLE.—Mrs. George Carver, President of the Pownal Red Cross Society, has started an unique way of raising funds for Red Cross purposes. On her own initiative, and at her own expense, on last Thursday night, the regular weekly night of meeting of the society, she gave what Mrs. C. styles a ten cent tea, and which proved to be a good substantial lunch, well worth twice the money. Although not generally known, the sum of $5.50 was realized. Mr. and Mrs. Carver have kindly and generously offered the use of their house, dishes etc., to any of the ladies of the Society who wish to do likewise. Would that there were more men and women of such a generous and patriotic spirit. The evening was happily spent, with music and singing, amid the pleasant clicking of the knitting needles. Notice will be given through the press and from the Pulpit, the date of the next tea.—Com.

RED CROSS ENTERTAINMENT.—The Red Cross Concert and Basket Social in the North Wiltshire Hall on Friday the 27th, Oct. proved a great success. The program was an excellent one throughout almost every number receiving a hearty encore. Mr. Bradley of Kelly's Cross as auctioneer proved once again his ability to please the OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—As a measure of Government for shipbuilding in Canada an Order-in-Council has been passed granting ninety-nine per cent. drawback of customs paid on material used in the construction of ships measuring over 500 tons gross tonnage built in Canada to be exported for outside registry. The vessel must be constructed so as to obtain a registry in Lloyd satisfactory to the Minister of Customs and their export on completion must in each case be authorized by Order-in-Council. A considerable number of vessels on foreign order are now being built in Canada, but in each case arrangements have to be made with the Government for permission to export. Under the general regulations of the War Measures Act the export of vessels to non-British countries is prohibited, but the Government has power to permit exportation in all cases where conditions warrant.

ABOUT THIS--THE GRANDEST PICTURE EVER FILMED:

Toronto News:
"The Battle Cry of Peace" is a tremendously impressive picture and a terrible sermon on the necessity for military preparedness on the North American Continent.

Toronto World:
"The Battle Cry of Peace" is the most wonderful of all films and its series of thrilling pictures showing the bombardment of New York from land, sea and sky, Wall Street district in flames, the dynamiting of public buildings are of the most sensational kind.

Toronto Telegram:
There have been war pictures upon war pictures exhibited here, but this one is the biggest and most powerful sermon that could possibly be imagined.

Toronto Globe:
As a story, as a spectacle and as a sermon on the necessity for military preparedness, "The Battle Cry of Peace" constitutes a class all its very own. It is based on Hudson Maxim's "Defenceless America."

Montreal Star:
To do justice to the extraordinarily powerful photodrama "The Battle Cry of Peace" one would have to write almost wholly in superlatives.

Montreal Gazette:
"The Battle Cry of Peace" is frankly a propaganda play for preparation and as such it is always earnest, always persistent and at times terribly eloquent.

Montreal Herald:
For though the warning is primarily direct to United States, yet it has its lesson too for other countries, including our own.

Principals In The Film

L. ROGERS LYTTON, the Vitagraph's star "heavy" man, assumes the unenviable role of the foreign spy known as "Emanon"—spell it backwards.

CHARLES RICHMAN, eminent leading actor, is the hero of the play, the American big brother who heard Maxim's great lecture on Unpreparedness and got busy.

JAMES MORRISON is the youngest brother who is first incredulous about "enemies," etc. He figures prominently in the raids of the foreigners.

NORMA TALMADGE, pretty and demure, is the sweetheart of the alert American and daughter of a prominent Peace Propagandist, a multi-millionaire.

"MOTHER" MARY MAURICE is truly the dear, sweet old mother of the boys and falls a victim to the enemy's random shells.

Teff Johnston is commander of the invading forces, Harry Northrup is one of the foreign generals, Louise Baudet is a mother who dies for her girls; in fact all the Vitagraph stars take part and 16,000 people, counting soldiers and supernumeraries, are employed.

Our Boys Write Home and Tell of what they have seen in Belgium and France. We can't just grasp what they are writing us, it seems so unnatural, so much an unheard of thing, but this film depiction strikes the truth. The Vitagraph people have not glossed it over to get by the Censor Boards, they have struck out boldly and pictured the invasion. They have adhered closely to the awful pattern of King Albert's little land in this matter and the effect will be magical upon your minds and impulses.

NOW WE CAN SEE FOR OURSELVES!
