Character in Investment

WHEN buying bonds for investment two factors should be taken into consideration. First—Property values, revenue producing powers and other tangible elements of security. Second—The character and experience of the investment house which sponsors the issue. Experienced investors everywhere scrutinize the second factor quite as carefully as the first.

ANCHORS AND STARS PLAY DRAWN GAME LAST EVENING

Nice Ball as Both Teams Fight a Stubborn 5 All Tie—Large Attendance to Witness Duel.

By ("TEC")

Starting away like sure winners by grabbing four runs in the first inning, the Anchors battled against the Eastern Stars in the second clash in the City League play-off series last evening were forced to take some of their own medicine when the "Easterners" counted four times before the third inning to deaden the tide until the seventh, the Stars again scoring to lose their one run advantage when the "West End" crew pushed a tally over in the eighth inning for another tie score—the darkness left leaving the argument unsettled to the detail until early next week. It was a great game of ball and one of the largest crowd of fans this season shouted themselves hoarse and at times worked their enthusiasm into a frenzy when close plays were called on the bags.
