With a pocket full of money he arrives in New York, intent on seeing the sights. Things happen to him so fast and so hilariously that in self defense he pretends she will be run dry - only to learn, at a very inopportune moment, that it actually has.

The songs that are rendered by Cass Daley (and "rendered" is the word), and sung by Bracken, Miss Welles and Spike Jones include "Away Cut West," "I Gotta Get a Love in North and South Dakota," "What Am I Gonna Do About You?", "I'm as Ready as I'll Ever Be" In addition, Cass does a specialty called "Mama Eu Quere" - and Spike Jones and his boys perform the favorites of millions "Holiday for Strings" and "Cocktails for Two."

A word must be said in praise of Johnny Coy's dancing. It is nothing short of sensational and contributes much to the enjoyment of "Ladies' Man," a thoroughly enjoyable film.
