THE first meeting of the Institute Course was held at Eidon on Monday afternoon and evening. At the afternoon meeting two Ayrshire cows were shown, one owned by Mr Halliday and the other by Mr Moore, also a pure bred Ayrshire bull owned by Mr Halliday. At the evening meeting the breeding, care, and feeding of the dairy cow was considered. The addresses were delivered by Duncan Anderson and Artemus Moffatt and the members of the Robertson Institute took part in the interesting discussions that followed. The meetings are being continued according to the program set forth in the advertisements.

THE community of St. Peter's Bay was greatly shocked when the news spread that on the evening of the 19th inst. one of its most respected citizens, Edward Coffin, had suddenly passed away. He had done his evening chores and not feeling quite so well as usual, was preparing to retire early. He had wound the clock and was out fastening the door of the porch for the night. His wife who was alone in the house, hearing a heavy fall, went out to find him lying motionless upon the floor. After vainly trying to arouse him from what she thought was a stupor, she quickly alarmed the nearest neighbors and their power to restore him. But no—he had passed beyond the reach of human aid. His day's work was done—he was dead. Within an hour Dr. R. D. McLaughlin was on hand and an examination pronounced it a sudden heart failure causing instant death. Mr. Coffin was a man of sterling Christian character. In his home he was an ideal husband, a kind father. As a neighbor he was ever ready to oblige and help. In the social, educational and religious life of the community he took an active interest, and always did his part to the best of his ability. He was a consistent member and faithful office bearer in the Presbyterian Church. Punctuality, exactness, faithfulness, marked his every act in public and in private. He leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing widow two sons, Frank T. of the Boston Machine Sewing Co. Boston, Edward of Providence, R. I., and two daughters Ada M. of Boston and Emma, wife of Dr. A. H. Lilley, Battle, Montana. The funeral which was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. McKenzie was largely attended by friends and acquaintances from all parts of the community assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to one who in life had earned their highest esteem.

TEMPTING STYLES IN NEWEST WASH GOODS.

Unquestionably the largest stock shown in the Province. THE time to buy wash goods is, right now. Summer is coming—really it is, and the hot days are not going to give you much notice. Early buyers find better assortments than will be possible in a short time and then you're thoroughly ready when the really hot days do come. Hundreds of pretty styles, whatever your fancy dictates, you will easily find with us.

We are always very much pleased to send samples to anyone living outside the City.

Now we will quote you some PRICES and DESCRIPTIONS, which will give you some idea of what is here.
Dainty lace striped muslins in shades of fawn and blue, blue and pink, Nile green, fawn, pink and in linen shades. Thirty inches wide, 10c a yard.
Printed muslins in blue, pink, green and grey, 26 inches wide, 10c a yard.
Pretty zephyr gingham in pink and white, navy and white, green with lace stripe effect, 27 inches wide, 12c a yard.

Fashion's fabrics freely provided.
Good prices for thrifty buyers.
And we'll tell you the rest when we have the pleasure of a personal talk with you while you make your choice. Will you be in today?

MOORE & MCLEOD.

SAY BOYS— "I HAD A GREAT SLEEP LAST NIGHT."

This WAS the expression used by a customer the morning after we supplied him with one of our "easy" springs and "comfort" mattresses—and without doubt they ARE the most comfortable bed fixings made. The springs, strong and easy—the mattresses pure, clean and the essence of comfort, the combination cannot possibly fail to please—The prices are not high either. Springs at $2.85 (the lowest price possible for a reliable spring) and up to $4.50. Mattresses $2.85 up to $11.50—Get your springs and mattresses here.
