IN MEMORIAM

MISS MARY McNEIL

On Wednesday, March 20th there passed peacefully away to her eternal rest, Miss Mary McNeil, at the home of her brother, Joseph, of Cardigan. The late Miss McNeil, although not in robust health for the past year, continued her work, until stricken down with the flu, which she bore patiently for two weeks, then quietly yielded up her spirit to the one who gave it.

Deceased was possessed of a very retiring, cheerful disposition. To know her was to love her, and she will be greatly missed by her immediate friends, and in the community in which she resided. During her illness, she was frequently visited by her pastor, Rev. M. J. Rooney, who also administered the last rites of Holy Mother Church, of which the deceased was a very faithful, and devoted member. Her funeral which was largely attended took place to All Saints Church, Cardigan, on Saturday, March 23rd, at 3 P. M. when, after a short service at the church, all that was mortal of a kind sister, and a loving daughter, was tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery there to await the resurrection morn.

She leaves to mourn her passing three brothers, John of Halifax, N. S., Wm. Boston, Mass., Joseph Cardigan. The pall-bearers were: Messrs Joseph Quinn, Hugh McEachern, Angus McQuinn, Wm. McEachern, Cornelius Ryan, Aidan Brothers. The many mass cards, messages of sympathy and flowers received, testify to the esteem in which deceased was held. May her soul rest in peace.
