

BRITISH GENERAL'S LIFE SAVED.

Suffered for Years From Kidney Disease—Was Cured by Warner's Safe Cure.

Many years ago I recommended your Safe Cure to my old friend, Gen. William Frost Nuttall, of the British Army, who was a great sufferer from kidney troubles as a result of long service in India. He took my advice, and after using your remedy, he was completely cured, and was a hale and hearty man when I saw him last, and must have been nearly eighty years of age. He has assured me again and again that he earnestly believed Warner's Safe Cure saved his life, and he swore by it.

"I myself, have used your remedy with the greatest benefits, as I was refused by the Equitable Insurance Co. years since for indications of Bright's Disease, but after taking your Safe Cure for some time I was able to obtain insurance. This speaks for itself, in my roving career I have been greatly benefited by using your Safe Cure, not only in the hot climates of Egypt and India, but also in the Arctic regions of Alaska."

G. P. ARMSTRONG, New York City. More suffering and deaths result from affections of the kidneys than from all other diseases, and principally because they are not discovered in time.

If you have the slightest doubt about your condition without delay TEST YOUR KIDNEYS AT HOME:

Let some morning urine stand 24 hours: If a reddish-brown sediment forms, or if particles float about in it, or if it is the least cloudy or smoky, your kidneys are seriously affected and utterly unable to carry the waste matter out of the body; and if allowed to run on without treatment the urine will clog the blood and poison the whole system, causing inflammation of the bladder and urinary organs, headache, backache, especially in the loins, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, rheumatic pains and swellings, torpid liver, nervousness, all manner of blood and skin eruptions, and finally a complete breakdown of the general health, with Bright's disease or diabetes and death. If you are already suffering from any of these diseases your life is in grave danger, as the kidneys rarely put forth such outward symptoms until the disease has secured a firm hold.

DISEASES OF WOMEN. Bearing-down sensations, fainting spells, painful periods and other so-called female troubles are all unfailing symptoms of kidney disease. Warner's Safe Cure is absolutely the only complete, permanent and safe home cure for Bright's Disease, diabetes, gall stones, gout, uric acid, rheumatism and diseases of kidneys, liver and bladder. It soothes inflammation and irritation; repairs the delicate tissues; heals the organs, restores energy and vigor, and builds up a strong, healthy body. Safe Cure is made entirely of herbs, contains no harmful drugs, is free from sediment, and pleasant to take. Prescribed by doctors and used successfully in leading hospitals for fifty years. Sold at all drug stores or direct, $1 A BOTTLE.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES. They are worthless and very often exceedingly dangerous. Ask for Warner's Safe Cure; it will cure you. WARNER'S SAFE PILLS move the bowels gently and aid a speedy cure. Write to Warner's Safe Cure Co., 44 Lombard St., Toronto, or Rochester, N. Y., for free medical book.

RUSSIA'S GREAT COMMANDER

Admiral Alexeieff the Czar's Viceroy in the East

A Statesman of the Energetic Class Who Stands High in Imperial Favor—Sketch of his Life and Travels.

Admiral Iyevgeny Ivanovitch Alexeieff, the Czar's viceroy in the Far East, commander-in-chief of Russia's military forces in Asia and of Russia's fleets in the Pacific, is best with difficulties of a nature so serious, it is asserted in newspapers abroad, that his alleged warlike temperament may be perceptibly affected. First of all, his health has not, it is rumored, been of the best, and the London News suspects that his recent indisposition was of a more serious character than official Russians would care to proclaim. In the next place, according to the London Standard, he has been ascended to find that Port Arthur is indifferently provisioned to supply half his forces for some six months, whereas he had all along supposed that Russia's fortress was in a position to feed 250,000 men well for two years.

But the Admiral's friends will not admit that he is losing favor. The Lokal-Anzeiger (Berlin) declares that Admiral Alexeieff has a powerful friend at court in the person of Mr. Pobiedonostzeff, procurator of the Holy Synod, "who, on religious grounds, favors the advance of Holy Russia throughout Asia, and who supports the viceroy in the Far East, both being advocates of an uncompromising policy." The Paris edition of the New York Herald says that "the Czar, after much hesitation has finally decided to leave the decision to be taken in the hands of Admiral Alexeieff, and has authorized him to act the instant he deems it necessary."

Admiral Alexeieff is undoubtedly the most able commander in the Russian navy and one of the most energetic statesmen in the Russia of to-day. Born May 11, 1843, Alexeieff had passed through the marine cadet corps when but a youth of nineteen, and entered the service, in one of the divisions of the fleet. In a short time Alexeieff had attracted the attention of the higher officials of the navy, and Admiral Lissofski had him join the corvette Varayag in a tour of the globe. During the Civil War between the North and the South in the United States, Alexeieff remained in America with Admiral Lissofski's squadron, making a report on the progress of the conflict which attracted great attention in St. Petersburg. When Alexeieff returned from the United States he was made a lieutenant and transferred to the first division of the navy on the staff of the general admiral. He acted now as flag officer to Admiral Batakoff, commanding the Russian squadron in Greek Waters. In 1878 and 1879 Alexeieff was on the staff of the Grand Duke Alexei Alexandrovitch, then voyaging in the Atlantic and the Mediterranean in the frigate Svetlana. Alexeieff later, aboard the ironclad Kreml, superintended coast-defense work with such success that he was given command of the cruiser Africa and sent on a mission to the United States. He performed his work with such skill and diplomatic talent that St. Petersburg official circles recognized in him not only an able naval officer, but a brilliant statesman. So when the post of naval attaché in Paris became vacant in 1883, Alexander III, bestowed it upon Alexeieff, enjoining him at the same time to cultivate the friendliest relations with the French. For nine full years Alexeieff remained as Russian naval attaché in France, and worked incessantly to smooth the way for the conclusion of the Franco-Russian alliance.

"Alexander III, according to Alexeieff's absolute confidence, in 1892 he was recalled to St. Petersburg and appointed aid to the chief of the general navy staff. For three years Alexeieff held this post, manifesting throughout this period the utmost zeal in promoting an increase of the Russian navy. As is well known, the Chinese-Japanese war had intensified the watchfulness of Russia in the Far East. Alexeieff was placed at the head of the Russian squadron in the Pacific. In this post Alexeieff showed the highest political capacity, his course throughout winning for him the designation of 'the energetic.' At the time of the uprisings in China, Alexeieff was promoted to command in the Kwang-Tung region and to the supreme command of the naval forces in the Pacific. In this new capacity Alexeieff was brilliantly successful in a military and administrative sense, acquiring a comprehensive knowledge of the whole situation in the Far East which was fully acknowledged in St. Petersburg. As a favorite at the court of the Dowager Empress, as the confidential adviser of Nicholas III, and as the friend of the General Admiral Grand Duke Alexei, Alexeieff was last August—when Russia was very eager to strengthen her position in east Asia—appointed viceroy in the Far East and clothed with almost sovereign authority. In his general political views, Alexeieff inclines toward the Moscow Slavophile element, while the most conspicuous trait in his character is unyielding energy."

Mr. A. B. Macdonald A Terrible Case of Diabetes. Physicians Pronounced Him Incurable.

Mr A. B. Macdonald, of Ottawa, Ont., says:—"Some four years ago I was so overworked with the pressing sales forced upon me, that I had to refuse many and cut off my regular work to a large extent. I was too late, however, in taking this first step, for disease had a firm hold upon me, and matters continually grew worse; finally I refused business entirely, and my condition was regarded as dangerous. To further intensify alarm and danger, grippe got hold of me, and by the time I had conquered that, diabetes was pronounced a seated trouble with me. At this stage physicians said to me 'No matter what is done for you Macdonald, you cannot live three years, and you cannot attend to any business from this time forth.' Friends urged me to go abroad, but I decided to remain here and continue business. At this time I commenced to use Paine's Celery Compound, but had little faith that it would do me any good. Soon I became persuaded that I could see improvement and from that time on my hope of recovery increased. Old friends and customers noticed my improvement, from week to week, and I could gladly tell them, one and all, that Paine's Celery Compound alone was doing the work. Fancy my gratitude now to find myself in good business condition, and able to attend to all the requirements of my calling. I now sleep and rest with ease, and my nervousness is entirely overcome."

PAINE'S Celery Compound Saved His Life.

FILLING UP DORCHESTER PENITENTIARY.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 7.—The Sydney, C. B., prisoners who were found guilty on different charges before the supreme court last week, received sentence on Saturday morning just before the court adjourned. Five of them were given terms in the penitentiary at Dorchester, while one was sent to jail for 30 days.

CHAMBERLAIN'S HOLIDAY.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—Joseph Chamberlain will start February 11 on a two months' holiday. He declines to say where he is going because it is his desire to have a complete rest, and not to be troubled with correspondence.

TENDENCY OF THE TIMES.

The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by all druggists.

OF INTEREST IN THE HOUSEHOLD.

The March Delineator contains much matter of interest and value in its household departments. One of the most excellent features is an article by Eleanor Marchant on Serving the Informal Sunday Night Supper and Impromptu Evening Refreshments, effectively illustrated. Refreshments for Receptions, illustrated, as well as the unique luncheon dishes a la Planchette, will appeal to all who enjoy dainty confections. Lent-observing housewives will find many suggestions to lessen their table difficulties at this season, including Novel Oyster Recipes by Frances E. Peck, Special Lenten Dishes by Alice Chittenden, and Dainty Soups by Margaret Hill. In addition there are numerous other seasonable recipes and useful information for many home needs.

READING NOTICE FOR FEBRUARY.

The February issue of Keith's Magazine has a number of suggestions for the home builder of the South, its opening article being 'Cottages in the Southland.' The second article illustrates bedrooms and is followed by a fully illustrated and described number of Typical American Homes.

There is a quaint article on the subject of mirrors. The article is entitled, 'The Revival of Mirrors' and would tend to show that the old fashioned mirror will before long be seen in many of the most modern homes of the day. Some half dozen styles of mirrors are shown, representing the Eighteenth Century, Pier Glass, the Sheperden mirror and so on.

The number also gives a building experience by a subscriber of the magazine residing in Pidgefield Park, N. J. In this number are some fifteen or more illustrations of house plans with full descriptions, floor plans and measurements. At most every suggestion in the building line that one could ask for. A very complete number, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Published monthly, $1.00 per year.

Dear Sirs,—I was for seven years a sufferer from Bronchial trouble, and would be so hourly at times that I could scarcely speak above a whisper. I got no relief from anything till I tried your MINNARD'S HONEY BALSAM. Two bottles gave relief and six bottles made a complete cure. I would heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from throat or lung trouble. J. F. VANBUSKIRK. Fredericton.

MY WIFE COUGHED NIGHT AND DAY

Husband Joyfully Relates a Remarkable Recovery from Consumption with Dr. Slocum's PSYCHINE

PSYCHINE (PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

Destroys Disease Germs, Builds Up Weak, Wasted Bodies.

A POSITIVE CURE That Should Interest Sick People, Their Friends and Neighbors.

Coldwater, Nov. 2nd, 1903. Dr. T. A. Slocum, Toronto. I desire to inform you what your remedy, Psychine, has done for my wife. Some time ago she became "run down," lost flesh and strength rapidly, and coughed night and day. Her throat was so sore and inflamed that she could only speak in a whisper. The only nourishment that she took was milk and eggs. The doctor said he could give her medicine to prolong her life, but could not cure her. We sent for a sample of Psychine, and it did her so much good that we immediately purchased a further supply from our druggist, Mr. Millard. Today she is well and strong, and I thank you for restoring to her my faithful wife and to my peace. Our friends and neighbors are amazed at Mrs. Beach's recovery, and join with us in wishing you success. Yours sincerely, J. C. LEACH. P.S.—You may publish this letter, if you like.

PSYCHINE is pronounced SI-KEEN. For sale at all drug stores, or a sample bottle free of charge if your druggist does not have it in stock. Write, mentioning druggist's name, Dr. T. A. Slocum, Limited, 179 King Street West, Toronto, Ont.
