

New Fire Insurance Agency

T. W. BENTLEY, INSURANCE AGENT, begs to announce he is now in a position to take care of all insurance wants. Having selected strong tariff fire insurance companies, he is able to give the best of service, and respectfully solicits patronage along this, or any line of insurance from his friends, customers and the public generally.

We would appreciate a share of your business. T. W. BENTLEY Phone No. 1036 or 1016 Cameron Block

Central Guardian

JUST ARRIVED—OH cake meal, cornmeal, cracked corn and Schumacher feed, all of which we are selling at lowest prices, wholesale and retail. A. HORNE & CO. 6973-8-8-21

ENTRIES FOR 230 trot and pace to be raced at the Provincial Exhibition close today. Entries post-marked up to noon tomorrow will be accepted. $20 pays you up in the $400 purse. J. W. Boulter, Phone 300, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

HAMPTON—United Church services for Sunday, August 12th, are as follows:—Sable 11 a. m.; Bonshaw 3 p. m.; Hampton 7.30 p. m. Mr. Thomas Moyses of Bedeque will be the speaker at these services. Rev. James P. Kaye, Minister.

POLICE COURT—Eight drunkers appeared before His Honor yesterday morning; two had their bail bonds of $10.00 estreated, while five were fined $3.00 and costs respectively—first offence. A man found drunk in possession of a car was "taxed" $15.00. A speeder was also fined.

THE TRAFFIC TO NEW ANAN today is expected to be the greatest in the history of this province. Mr. Pendergast has been in touch with all parts of the Island and automobile parties are expected from points East to Souris and West to Tignish. Hundreds will leave from Charlottetown. In order to cope with this vast crowd, excellent arrangements have been made, but Mr. Pendergast urges the necessity of an early start, so that everybody can be comfortably placed before the races begin.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horton, Miss May Horton, and Mr. Chester Acorn of Cambridge, Mass., motored down to the Island, arriving last Thursday. They are the guests of Mr. Haviland Horton, Mt. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horton, Miss May Horton of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Wm. Schwesinger, Chicago, motored to the Island, arriving on Thursday, and are visiting their homes in Bethel.

Dr. T. E. J. Robins leaves this morning for Winnipeg, where he will join a party of friends on a motor trip to Minneapolis, where they will attend the National American Dental Convention.

The many friends of Miss Irene Lawson of Stanhope will be pleased to learn that she is doing nicely after an operation for appendicitis in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Miss Florence Hogan, City, is spending a pleasant vacation at Kinkora the guest of Miss Margaret McCabe.

Mrs. J. G. Joyce of St. John's Newfoundland, who is visiting her uncle Mr. C. C. Carleton, Souris was in the city yesterday the guest of Miss Jessie Wise, 50 Hillsboro St.

Mr. Willard G. Spencer who has been in the employ of the Telephone Company for several years as accountant has resigned his position to go with Messrs. Laphort & Stevenson, District Managers of the North American Life. It is Mr. Spencer's intention to handle all lines of Insurance in due course.

An auto party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. James Daley and daughter Edith and two sons William and Arthur arrived yesterday to spend a while visiting their relatives and friends on the Island. Mrs. Daley is a sister of Mr. James Smith, Great George St. It is Mr. Daley's first visit to the Island and he is delighted with the beauty of the Garden of the Gulf.

To Let

TO LET—A VERY DESIRABLE front room with all modern improvements and home comforts. Refined surroundings. B. S. T. Guardian. 6870-8-8-21

BIRTHS

BOATES—At Bethesda Maternity Hospital, Alamosa, Colo., July 30th, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Boates, a daughter.

MARRIAGES

McLEOD-LAMONT—At St. James Mansie Aug. 7th by the Rev. W. Bruce Muir. Kenneth McLeod, New London, to Minnie Lamont, French River.

DEATHS

NICHOLSON—At Wood Islands, Aug. 7th, John Nicholson. Funeral Thursday, Aug. 9th, at 10 a. m.

TAYLOR—At Chino, San Bernardino County, California, on July 8th 1928, John T. Taylor, aged 66 years, a son of the late Duncan Taylor of Wood Islands, P. E. I.

In Memoriam

In Loving Memory of RUSSELL COFFIN Of Cherry Hill Drowned at Savage Harbor, August 7th, 1927 Gone But Not Forgotten.

TENDERS

Tenders will be received by the undersigned up to the sixteenth day of August, 1928, for the painting and papering of the interior of the Peters Road Presbyterian Church. Tender to find all material except paper. For further particulars apply to MRS. HIRAM LEECO, Peters Road, P. E. I. 8-8-31.

DR. J. P. MILLAR

DENTAL SURGEON Corner Queen and Richmond HOURS—9 to 12.30 2 to 5.00

N. D. MacLEAN

Undertaker EMBALMER PHONE 149 KING SQUARE

Mackinnon Drug Co.

Phone THE RECALL 1080 115 KODAK STORE 532

OATMEAL COOKIES

When making oatmeal cookies or muffins, heat the milk used in the mixture before adding it. This gives a finer texture to the product.

Political Meeting At Iris Hall

(Continued) The first speaker of the evening was Mr. Callum Bruce, the Liberal candidate. The situation, he said, was somewhat unusual, in that there were three candidates instead of two. He went on to speak of the excellence of the roads. From this fact he touched on the prohibition question, and the necessity of keeping the government in line. Mr. MacLean, the Conservative candidate, then spoke, and after alluding briefly to the circumstances which led up to the by-election referred to—the appointment of Judge Inman to his present post. As the Saunders Government, there never was a Government in the history of the Province so open to criticism. First, the Saunders Government had broken every single promise they had made in respect of taxation, prohibition, and no accounting went on to criticize the road policy of the present Government. On the whole the roads were never so bad as now in the Belfast District. There were some good roads, he was prepared to admit, but many of the roads at present they had bought a lot of expensive road machinery, and spent $465,000—an unprecedented sum, which the taxpayers must fund.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horton, Miss May Horton, and Mr. Chester Acorn of Cambridge, Mass., motored down to the Island, arriving last Thursday. They are the guests of Mr. Haviland Horton, Mt. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horton, Miss May Horton of Cambridge, Mass., and Mrs. Wm. Schwesinger, Chicago, motored to the Island, arriving on Thursday, and are visiting their homes in Bethel.

Dr. T. E. J. Robins leaves this morning for Winnipeg, where he will join a party of friends on a motor trip to Minneapolis, where they will attend the National American Dental Convention.

The many friends of Miss Irene Lawson of Stanhope will be pleased to learn that she is doing nicely after an operation for appendicitis in the P. E. Island Hospital.

Miss Florence Hogan, City, is spending a pleasant vacation at Kinkora the guest of Miss Margaret McCabe.

Mrs. J. G. Joyce of St. John's Newfoundland, who is visiting her uncle Mr. C. C. Carleton, Souris was in the city yesterday the guest of Miss Jessie Wise, 50 Hillsboro St.

Facilities For Fall Transportation

DEPUTATION WAITS UPON SUPT. GRADY AND PROCEEDS TO MONCTON.

A delegation of King's County shippers, consisting of Mr. W. L. Poole, Hon. John A. MacDonald, Mr. E. A. Scully, Mr. Russell C. Clark, and Senator Hughes yesterday waited upon Superintendent Grady of the C. N. R. and urged upon him the absolute necessity of having improved facilities for the shipping of potatoes this fall through Georgetown. Mr. Grady replied that he had authority to increase the yardroom at Mt. Stewart and that they had already started work thereon. He had also authority to increase the yardroom at Georgetown and expected to begin work there in a few days. He said the Railway had decided to put down 12 miles of heavier rails between Mt. Stewart and 48 Road, but from there to Georgetown no provision had been made for replacing the old rails nor for ballasting the road.

The deputation thanked Mr. Grady for the friendly and helpful suggestions he had made. Subsequently the deputation appointed three of their number to proceed immediately to Moncton to see the general manager for the Atlantic Region to endeavor to get heavier rails laid all the way to Georgetown, so that full loaded cars and trains of standard length could be hauled over the whole line, and also so that continuous loading of ships at Georgetown may be proceeded with from the opening of the season to the close of navigation.

Howie Morenz Has Narrow Escape

MONTREAL, Aug. 7.—Fifty thousand dollars worth of hockey talent came close to being snuffed out Saturday afternoon. Howie Morenz, brilliant centre of the Canadiens, for whom $50,000 had been refused, is an ardent golfer and when the terrific electric storm swept this district Saturday he insisted on playing along at Forest Hills course. Fortunately Morenz was playing with a wooden shafted club, for as he was swinging it, there was a sharp crackle and a flash, the club was wrenched from his hands, the steel twisted and the wood split by the force of the shock. Morenz got a jolt and so did his caddy.

FEW FLOWERS

A single flower or several vases with a single flower each often is better for a sick room with quantities of blooms that make the air too heavy with fragrance.

P. E. I. Dental Society

The General Annual Meeting of the P. E. I. Dental Society took place in the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening with the President, Dr. T. E. J. Robins, presiding. Among the out of town doctors present were Dr. H. S. Sherman, Toronto, Dr. Stanley Bagnall, Halifax and Dr. Robert Irving, Boston. Many important subjects were discussed and a very profitable evening spent. Dr. Bagnall gave a very interesting talk on the organization of the Canadian Dental Association as did Dr. Sampson in his usual eloquent manner, tell about the wonderful accomplishment of the Canadian Dental Hygiene Council. Election of officers took place and were as follows: Pres.—A. W. Leard, S.S. Side. Vice Pres.—J. E. Beer. Secy.—T. O. E. Robbins. To complete the list—F. E. Smallwood, T. E. E. Robbins.

SWAT THE FLY

Screens and doors will not keep all the flies out. Some find their way in. Swatting them is very good but destroys them much easier and in a sanitary manner. We also stock Tanglefoot, Wilson's Fly Pads, Sapho Powder and Aero Hangers.

FLY TOX OR FLIT

STOCKAID

for cattle flies is the best preparation for spraying.

THE PROMPT DRUGGISTS

Mackinnon Drug Co. Phone THE RECALL 1080 115 KODAK STORE 532

Another Maritimer

(Manitoba Free Press) Prince Edward Island first where the world was apple blossoms, rusted roads, swimmin' holes, schools, and long, long thoughts. Then came Dalhousie with its Nova Scotia atmosphere, and the school of the day. The school of the day was of destiny which bids its graduates go forth and look after the rest of the world. Oxford next with the name of Rhodes Scholar, an Oxford that included travel on the Continent. A short session as teacher at McGill in another year in a Vancouver high school, and then Wesley College and Manitoba University. Now Professor D. C. Harvey, Associate Professor of History at this university with a record of thirteen years' service, has been called to the head of the department of History at the University of British Columbia. He will leave in a few days.

Canadian history has claimed Professor Harvey's vigorous powers of research, Canadian history with its ramifications in French history, English history, and American history. That knowledge and that love of seeking knowledge the professor has striven to give to his students, to his extension course audiences and through his writing. Several books and pamphlets, valued of libraries and of careful students, bear his name prominently. The most widely known being "The French Regime in Prince Edward Island" and a memorial of Thomas D'Arcy McGee. In these writings, as in his lectures and personal contacts, he has displayed not only the meticulous regard of the historian, but that capacity for hero worship, that touch of imagination which brings color into the picture and lights fires in the listener's brain. So he has been found in the Canadian Club, in the League of Nations Society as well as in University circles and those which touch upon the university, in the activities of which he has taken a leading part.

At this time when Canada is taking upon herself the consciousness and conscience—of nationhood it is a beneficent dispensation that her history and her interests have so much other history, should have as exponents so many strong departments of history in our universities. The coast province takes from Manitoba a young man who will enhance the reputation of her university along this line.

The General Annual Meeting of the P. E. I. Dental Society took place in the Y. M. C. A. Monday evening with the President, Dr. T. E. J. Robins, presiding. Among the out of town doctors present were Dr. H. S. Sherman, Toronto, Dr. Stanley Bagnall, Halifax and Dr. Robert Irving, Boston. Many important subjects were discussed and a very profitable evening spent. Dr. Bagnall gave a very interesting talk on the organization of the Canadian Dental Association as did Dr. Sampson in his usual eloquent manner, tell about the wonderful accomplishment of the Canadian Dental Hygiene Council. Election of officers took place and were as follows: Pres.—A. W. Leard, S.S. Side. Vice Pres.—J. E. Beer. Secy.—T. O. E. Robbins. To complete the list—F. E. Smallwood, T. E. E. Robbins.

The Oil of the People—Many oils have come and gone, but Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil continues to maintain its position and increase its sphere of usefulness. It has brought its sterling quality to have brought it to the front and kept it there, and it can truly be called the oil of the people. Thousands have benefited by it and would use no other preparation.

When making oatmeal cookies or muffins, heat the milk used in the mixture before adding it. This gives a finer texture to the product.

Political Meeting At Iris Hall

(Continued) The first speaker of the evening was Mr. Callum Bruce, the Liberal candidate. The situation, he said, was somewhat unusual, in that there were three candidates instead of two. He went on to speak of the excellence of the roads. From this fact he touched on the prohibition question, and the necessity of keeping the government in line. Mr. MacLean, the Conservative candidate, then spoke, and after alluding briefly to the circumstances which led up to the by-election referred to—the appointment of Judge Inman to his present post. As the Saunders Government, there never was a Government in the history of the Province so open to criticism. First, the Saunders Government had broken every single promise they had made in respect of taxation, prohibition, and no accounting went on to criticize the road policy of the present Government. On the whole the roads were never so bad as now in the Belfast District. There were some good roads, he was prepared to admit, but many of the roads at present they had bought a lot of expensive road machinery, and spent $465,000—an unprecedented sum, which the taxpayers must fund.

Mr. W. E. Bentley, the Prohibitionist candidate, announced the beginning of his speech that he proposed to confine himself to the liquor question. In the last election this had been the most effective he felt it should be today. The speaker then went on to give a resume of the last election, pointing out that, in his opinion, the prohibition question was what had caused the overturn at the last election. The Liberal speakers had made a promise that prohibition would be strictly enforced in the two years intervening between the election and the promised plebiscite. These speakers, he said, had claimed that it had never been properly enforced previously by any Government. So it was a real test to give a stringent enforcement for these two years. As a result of this, the Liberal Government was placed in power. Prohibition meant that there should be no sale of liquor for beverage purposes. Government Control meant there should be such sale. As a result of this choice of policies, prohibitionists of both parties united to vote for the Liberal Government so that a real test could be made. Those who believed in prohibition were glad, therefore, when the Liberal Government was sustained. But that rejoicing has now disappeared. He had visited many homes in the Belfast District, and had failed to find that unanimity in regard to prohibition which had obtained a year ago. And this was because it had been enforced by the Liberal Government.

He went on to point out that liquor was continuing to be sold for beverage purposes by the Government through the vendors by means of "doctors' certificates." It was said that when the Conservatives were in power, 90 per cent. of the certificates issued were for beverage use. The Saunders Government said it would put an end to this, and if, since it came into power, it has its promise, he violated the Act. Mr. Bentley stated that under the Saunders Government large numbers of certificates have been issued for beverage use, and the parties had not been prosecuted. "I have not a single doctor who has been prosecuted for this improper use."

In the month of December last over 3,200 certificates had been issued. If even 1,200 were required for medicine that would still leave 2,000 for illegal use—for beverage purposes. The Government, he said, would point out to prohibitionists that this was a violation of the law. And this, he said, caused disrespect for law. It would encourage bootleggers, and the order was given by telephone. "My friend," he said, "took a course in ordering the machinery in which there was no written record—over the telephone. And we are left in ignorance as to whether or not there was any local agent, and whether there was a commission. It is true there may be some work on the roads just now in the Belfast district. But the reason was evident—there was a by-election in prospect.

The speaker then went on to criticize the high-grown, heavy roads which the Saunders Government had produced. If you take 1600 miles of road at $500 per mile, which, if the Patriot newspaper has quoted him right, is the cost, it will have come to nearly one million dollars. The minister, too, need not pretend that the people had to pay no more for their gasoline. It came out of the pockets of the people just the same. Then they have forced the people from working out their road tax. And the people were honest enough to do better work on their roads than their own doors than any paid supervisors. Mr. Stewart next dealt with the fiscal policy of the Government, particularly condemning them for their very evident desire to raise the farmers' taxes. "Why is it," he asked, "if we were going behind in our four years of office that he, with a much larger revenue, is budgetting for a deficit?" The speaker then quoted some figures in support of his contention in regard to the relative expenditures of the two Governments on highway improvements. According to the audit of Poole and Scarth, they had made a total increase of $221,000, according to their own figures, during the time they were in power.

It has been said here tonight: "What is the use of opposing the Government?" This is a very poor system of political ethics to jingle in this way, and I'm sure you won't do it. The whole record of the Government is as plain as day, not only in Mr. Larabee then spoke in praise prohibition, which I haven't time to

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. MacLean's Speech

Mr. MacLean, the Conservative candidate, then spoke, and after alluding briefly to the circumstances which led up to the by-election referred to—the appointment of Judge Inman to his present post. As the Saunders Government, there never was a Government in the history of the Province so open to criticism. First, the Saunders Government had broken every single promise they had made in respect of taxation, prohibition, and no accounting went on to criticize the road policy of the present Government. On the whole the roads were never so bad as now in the Belfast District. There were some good roads, he was prepared to admit, but many of the roads at present they had bought a lot of expensive road machinery, and spent $465,000—an unprecedented sum, which the taxpayers must fund.

Mr. W. E. Bentley, the Prohibitionist candidate, announced the beginning of his speech that he proposed to confine himself to the liquor question. In the last election this had been the most effective he felt it should be today. The speaker then went on to give a resume of the last election, pointing out that, in his opinion, the prohibition question was what had caused the overturn at the last election. The Liberal speakers had made a promise that prohibition would be strictly enforced in the two years intervening between the election and the promised plebiscite. These speakers, he said, had claimed that it had never been properly enforced previously by any Government. So it was a real test to give a stringent enforcement for these two years. As a result of this, the Liberal Government was placed in power. Prohibition meant that there should be no sale of liquor for beverage purposes. Government Control meant there should be such sale. As a result of this choice of policies, prohibitionists of both parties united to vote for the Liberal Government so that a real test could be made. Those who believed in prohibition were glad, therefore, when the Liberal Government was sustained. But that rejoicing has now disappeared. He had visited many homes in the Belfast District, and had failed to find that unanimity in regard to prohibition which had obtained a year ago. And this was because it had been enforced by the Liberal Government.

He went on to point out that liquor was continuing to be sold for beverage purposes by the Government through the vendors by means of "doctors' certificates." It was said that when the Conservatives were in power, 90 per cent. of the certificates issued were for beverage use. The Saunders Government said it would put an end to this, and if, since it came into power, it has its promise, he violated the Act. Mr. Bentley stated that under the Saunders Government large numbers of certificates have been issued for beverage use, and the parties had not been prosecuted. "I have not a single doctor who has been prosecuted for this improper use."

In the month of December last over 3,200 certificates had been issued. If even 1,200 were required for medicine that would still leave 2,000 for illegal use—for beverage purposes. The Government, he said, would point out to prohibitionists that this was a violation of the law. And this, he said, caused disrespect for law. It would encourage bootleggers, and the order was given by telephone. "My friend," he said, "took a course in ordering the machinery in which there was no written record—over the telephone. And we are left in ignorance as to whether or not there was any local agent, and whether there was a commission. It is true there may be some work on the roads just now in the Belfast district. But the reason was evident—there was a by-election in prospect.

The speaker then went on to criticize the high-grown, heavy roads which the Saunders Government had produced. If you take 1600 miles of road at $500 per mile, which, if the Patriot newspaper has quoted him right, is the cost, it will have come to nearly one million dollars. The minister, too, need not pretend that the people had to pay no more for their gasoline. It came out of the pockets of the people just the same. Then they have forced the people from working out their road tax. And the people were honest enough to do better work on their roads than their own doors than any paid supervisors. Mr. Stewart next dealt with the fiscal policy of the Government, particularly condemning them for their very evident desire to raise the farmers' taxes. "Why is it," he asked, "if we were going behind in our four years of office that he, with a much larger revenue, is budgetting for a deficit?" The speaker then quoted some figures in support of his contention in regard to the relative expenditures of the two Governments on highway improvements. According to the audit of Poole and Scarth, they had made a total increase of $221,000, according to their own figures, during the time they were in power.

It has been said here tonight: "What is the use of opposing the Government?" This is a very poor system of political ethics to jingle in this way, and I'm sure you won't do it. The whole record of the Government is as plain as day, not only in Mr. Larabee then spoke in praise prohibition, which I haven't time to

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. MacLean's Speech

Mr. MacLean, the Conservative candidate, then spoke, and after alluding briefly to the circumstances which led up to the by-election referred to—the appointment of Judge Inman to his present post. As the Saunders Government, there never was a Government in the history of the Province so open to criticism. First, the Saunders Government had broken every single promise they had made in respect of taxation, prohibition, and no accounting went on to criticize the road policy of the present Government. On the whole the roads were never so bad as now in the Belfast District. There were some good roads, he was prepared to admit, but many of the roads at present they had bought a lot of expensive road machinery, and spent $465,000—an unprecedented sum, which the taxpayers must fund.

Mr. W. E. Bentley, the Prohibitionist candidate, announced the beginning of his speech that he proposed to confine himself to the liquor question. In the last election this had been the most effective he felt it should be today. The speaker then went on to give a resume of the last election, pointing out that, in his opinion, the prohibition question was what had caused the overturn at the last election. The Liberal speakers had made a promise that prohibition would be strictly enforced in the two years intervening between the election and the promised plebiscite. These speakers, he said, had claimed that it had never been properly enforced previously by any Government. So it was a real test to give a stringent enforcement for these two years. As a result of this, the Liberal Government was placed in power. Prohibition meant that there should be no sale of liquor for beverage purposes. Government Control meant there should be such sale. As a result of this choice of policies, prohibitionists of both parties united to vote for the Liberal Government so that a real test could be made. Those who believed in prohibition were glad, therefore, when the Liberal Government was sustained. But that rejoicing has now disappeared. He had visited many homes in the Belfast District, and had failed to find that unanimity in regard to prohibition which had obtained a year ago. And this was because it had been enforced by the Liberal Government.

He went on to point out that liquor was continuing to be sold for beverage purposes by the Government through the vendors by means of "doctors' certificates." It was said that when the Conservatives were in power, 90 per cent. of the certificates issued were for beverage use. The Saunders Government said it would put an end to this, and if, since it came into power, it has its promise, he violated the Act. Mr. Bentley stated that under the Saunders Government large numbers of certificates have been issued for beverage use, and the parties had not been prosecuted. "I have not a single doctor who has been prosecuted for this improper use."

In the month of December last over 3,200 certificates had been issued. If even 1,200 were required for medicine that would still leave 2,000 for illegal use—for beverage purposes. The Government, he said, would point out to prohibitionists that this was a violation of the law. And this, he said, caused disrespect for law. It would encourage bootleggers, and the order was given by telephone. "My friend," he said, "took a course in ordering the machinery in which there was no written record—over the telephone. And we are left in ignorance as to whether or not there was any local agent, and whether there was a commission. It is true there may be some work on the roads just now in the Belfast district. But the reason was evident—there was a by-election in prospect.

The speaker then went on to criticize the high-grown, heavy roads which the Saunders Government had produced. If you take 1600 miles of road at $500 per mile, which, if the Patriot newspaper has quoted him right, is the cost, it will have come to nearly one million dollars. The minister, too, need not pretend that the people had to pay no more for their gasoline. It came out of the pockets of the people just the same. Then they have forced the people from working out their road tax. And the people were honest enough to do better work on their roads than their own doors than any paid supervisors. Mr. Stewart next dealt with the fiscal policy of the Government, particularly condemning them for their very evident desire to raise the farmers' taxes. "Why is it," he asked, "if we were going behind in our four years of office that he, with a much larger revenue, is budgetting for a deficit?" The speaker then quoted some figures in support of his contention in regard to the relative expenditures of the two Governments on highway improvements. According to the audit of Poole and Scarth, they had made a total increase of $221,000, according to their own figures, during the time they were in power.

It has been said here tonight: "What is the use of opposing the Government?" This is a very poor system of political ethics to jingle in this way, and I'm sure you won't do it. The whole record of the Government is as plain as day, not only in Mr. Larabee then spoke in praise prohibition, which I haven't time to

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform, but on many. And Rev. Mr. Lindsay had supported him in this matter in the press. Further, he had laid information as to a banquet which had been held in one of the large hotels of the city of Charlottetown, at which liquor had been served. But no action had been taken so far as he knew. Mr. Saunders made a very brief reply to Mr. Bentley's statements—at least to the first of them. He said: "Yes, Mr. Lindsay had said that he had heard Mr. Bentley and Mr. McLeod on several occasions state that doctors' certificates were to be reduced to twenty-five per month but Mr. Lindsay did not say in his letter that he had heard Mr. McLeod and Mr. Bentley make these statements at any public meeting from any public platform." Mr. Saunders then said to Mr. Bentley "name one single place, stop hedging about it." Mr. Bentley made no reply. After a vote of thanks had been extended to the Chairman, the meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Bentley, then, in reply to two questions put him by the premier, asserted that he had made the statement that the reduction of scripts to twenty-five was made not on any platform,