Lady Love Gives Boxer a Beating

LONDON, Eng., April 5.—All Paris has been waiting for months past for the ins de story of how a plucky woman gave a well-known boxer a severer thrashing than he has ever experienced in the ring. It was disclosed before the Tenth Correctional Court in Paris, when cross-examination between the boxer Schapira and Mme. Violette Morris were heard.

Schapira, as a professional pugilist, needs no introduction. Mme. Violette Morris, on the other hand, is the athletic lady who prides herself upon her capacity to do a man's job, and for that purpose she wears men's clothes.

She is a first class motor mechanic and champion quilt thrower. Schapira's claim was for 1,000 francs damages for having been severely beaten up. Mme. Morris asked for a like sum for injuries to her wounded feelings.

Through his lawyer, Schapira told the story of how he had had a sweetheart, Mme. Charlotte Lefevre. This lady, however, one day fell under the irresistible influence of Mme. Morris, Charlotte, admired the strongly masculine manner in which the lady champion wore her short hair and her mannish clothes.

Accordingly she deserted Schapira. Whereupon the pugilist insisted that his love epistles and photographs should be returned to him.

Mme Lefevre raised no objection; on the contrary she agreed, so it was alleged, to hand them over at her own flat, one evening.

When the boxer arrived at the beautifully furnished apartment, he encountered a surprise. Mme. Morris and two other friends were also present, and no sooner had he stepped into the room than he received a vigorous uppercut from the athletic lady.

This onslaught was followed by a concerted attack in which the four ladies took part. They bounced and hammered him, while his late sweet heart clung to his feet. When they were all exhausted with this playful exercise they called in the police.

But the additional surprise arose when Schapira's counsel announced that his client had decided to reduce his claim of 1,000 francs damages to a solitary franc.

The Court was so magnanimous that it awarded the boxer the noble sum, calling upon the four women to make it up by contributing 25 centimes each.

Today General Motors makes a definite contribution to business recovery by announcing sharply-lowered prices on Pontiac and Chevrolet Passenger Cars. The price reductions apply only to these two General Motors low-price volume lines. The reductions are not justified by existing conditions, but are made possible only because General Motors is turning over to the public in advance the savings that should result from anticipated increased volume.

Naturally, no change has been made in Pontiac or Chevrolet quality. This quality has been proved by the experience of hundreds of thousands of satisfied owners. Actually, 1932 cars are even better today than when first announced a few months ago. With the new low prices each is more than ever a value leader in its price class.

The reductions range up to $50.00 in the case of Pontiac and $45.00 in the case of Chevrolet. They take effect immediately. In fact, retail purchasers since Monday morning April 4th, will enjoy these price reductions.

CAMPBELL CO. TO BUY TOMATOES AT 25-30 C.

TORONTO. April 5.—Twenty-five to thirty cents a bushel will be paid by the Campbell Soup Co., New Toronto, for tomatoes this year. R. D. Nieuirkirk informed the Star today.

A large group of tomato growers of Islington and Port Credit districts at a meeting in New Toronto yesterday, issued the ultimatum, "forty-five cents a bushel or nothing."

"To the best of our knowledge 30 to 35 cents is the highest price offered in Canada this year," said Mr. Nieuirkirk. "Twenty-five cents a bushel has been offered to growers in Western Ontario."

"Our inspection is very rigid as to quality and we have set our price higher than other companies we know of. The amount of acreage which will be contracted for locally is being signed up. Last year thousands of bushels were offered us at 25 cents."

"The American Campbell Soup Co. have nothing to do with Canadian prices," pointed out Mr. Nieuirkirk.

"Why, you've got a notice up saying, Under New Management" said the villager.

"Oh, that!" exclaimed Smith. "Why, didn't you know? I've been married."

Elderly gentleman: "Is this the cheapest umbrella you keep?" Assistant: "Yes s', the very cheapest."

Elderly gentleman: "I'll take it. I only want it for leaving behind in the train."
