THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, John Dickieson Agent, and in Alberton, Herbert Clark, Agent.

—The latest news, first of all.
—Miss G. Willis, Amherst, is visiting friends in Summerside.

—Mrs. W. L. Townsend, Springfield, Mass., is visiting friends at Kensington.

—L. U. Fowler, Central Bedouque, arrived home from New Brunswick Saturday evening.

—Gordon and Mrs. Linkletter, Union Corner, were recent visitors at the parsonage, Biddeford.

—Miss Irene Schurman has resigned her position as organist of the Presbyterian church, Summerside.

—Mrs. Alexander McKinnon and family of Pittsfield, Mass., are visiting with friends at Indian River.

—Miss A. Frost, Charlottetown, has been engaged to teach in the Biddeford School, and will assume her duties on Sept. 1st.

—Dr. Monaghan, Miscouche, held a strawberry festival on the Church grounds on Thursday last, at which he realized the sum of $197.

—Mrs. Margaret McLellan, Indian River, returned from Boston Friday evening. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Gertrude McDonald.

—A new wire fence has been built around the parsonage grounds at Biddeford and adds greatly to the appearance of this splendid property.

—The Empress arrived in Summerside Saturday evening at 7.25 with one hundred and ten passengers. She had two hundred and twenty five outward.

—Wm. G. Whitehead, Whim Road, returned home Saturday evening from Moosejaw, Sask, and Josiah Howatt, French River, from a visit to North Dakota and Minnesota.

—Wm. H. and Leslie Taylor, New York, and Albert Taylor of Bangor, Maine, all formerly of Freeport, arrived in Summerside Friday evening, to visit friends at the old home.

—On the 14th inst Mrs. Albert Williams of Biddeford and Miss Maud Hayes of Ellerslie left for an extended visit to Edmonton, Calgary and other points of interest in Western Canada.

—Garrison the man who got his leg broken while at the show the other night, in Summerside, did not get the fifty dollars promised to him by the manager of the company. Before he would leave the Island.

—The following clipping is from the Claresholm Review, Alberta. The Miss Barclay referred to is a daughter of the late James Barclay, O'Leary and niece of D. C. Ramsay, Port Hill. "A quiet and interesting June-end wedding took place in St. Aidan's Church at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning when Miss Marie Mansen Barclay became the bride of John E. Ardell, jeweler, of Claresholm. The beautiful and impressive wedding vows as expressed in the Anglican ritual were pronounced by Rev. R. T. Stamer, rector of the church in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride looked charming in a natty travelling costume of white with hat to match, and was given away by her brother, W. Barclay, acting mayor of Claresholm. She was unattended. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ardell took the Calgary express on a trip to Vancouver, Victoria and other Pacific Coast points. (Pioneer and Farmer please copy.)

A FRIEND OF THE POLICEMAN.
Continually on their feet, the "Peelers" are invariably troubled with corns and bunions—but not for long, because they know of a quick cure, Putnam's Corn Extractor; it cures painlessly in 24 hours, try "Putnam's."

—J. Maynard Waite, New York, formerly of Wilnot Valley, arrived in Summerside Saturday evening to spend a few days at his old home after which he will go to Newfoundland on a business trip thence to Melton Island, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence near Brockville, Ont.

—Spavinoff, a guaranteed cure or money refunded. It is this remedy don't prove a positive cure for spavins, splints and all enlargements, it is because you don't follow directions. Absorbent Liniment made by the same people. The best 50c liniment on the market. For full directions call at The Red Cross Drug Store or Jas. A. McNeill's forge, Summerside.
7-13dtf.

—A happy event took place on July 6th, at St. Anne's Church, Hope River, when Miss Emelie Doiron of St. Anne and Joseph Doucette of Rustico, were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony. The bride, Miss Rosa Doiron, cousin of the bride, was ably supported by Dolph Doucette. A reception was held at the home of the bride's father after the wedding ceremony. The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous useful presents which show the esteem in which they are held.

—A very sad accident happened in Freeport on July 2nd when Freddie, youngest child of Weston and Mrs. Francis, met death by drowning. The little fellow who was two years and seven months old was playing with the rest of the children around the mill, and when missed search was made and to their horror they found his little body floating on the water. Doctor McMillan was on the spot but all that could be done was of no avail. Much sympathy is felt for the heart broken parents, two brothers and two sisters who are left to mourn the loss of their boy, the pet of the family.

—Rev. John Dystant M. A., Ph. D., of Michigan has been visiting his old home in Ellerslie, Lot 12. During his visit he preached in the Methodist church, Biddeford, morning and evening on July 4th and his sermons will not soon be forgotten. Mr. Dystant formerly belonged to the N. E. & P. E. I. Conference and was located for three years on the Granville Circuit, and for one year on the Margate Circuit. His many friends were delighted to see him looking so well notwithstanding the arduous duties attaching to his present charge which is among the most responsible pastorates in Michigan.

—There passed away at Cape Traverse on Monday July 5th, William G., son of James Harvey, at the early age of 20. Deceased, who had been ill for over a year bore his suffering with Christian fortitude, trusting in the merits of Christ to the end. He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing father, three brothers and three sisters. The funeral took place from his father's residence to Tryon Presbyterian Cemetery, on Wednesday 8th inst. A large number of people were in attendance, thus showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Wm. McLeod.
