

Your food doesn't do you any good if you're tired

Tired, strained nerves interfere with digestion. At the end of the day's work, it is a good rule to relieve nervous tension before eating...

Wrigley's also helps digestion after meals, by stimulating the flow of natural juices. In addition, it cleanses the teeth, removes all traces of eating or smoking—and sweetens the breath.

What other sweet cost so little and does so much!

WRIGLEY'S

MALPEQUE

Miss Margaret Ramsay is spending some time with Mrs. Heber Myers, Charlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsay and son Russel of Summerside, Mr. and Mrs. Percy McMurdo, Kelvin; Mr. John Lockhart and two daughters of Charlottetown; Misses McKenzie and Mountain of Kensington joined a picnic party in Malpeque on July 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey, Master Lloyd Harvey of Craupud, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacDonald of Tryon, Mr. Lawson Harvey of Boston, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon MacGougan on Sunday.

Mr. Frank MacNutt spent the week end with friends in Charlottetown.

About twenty-seven of the young people of Malpeque and vicinity had their annual outing to Lennox Island on Monday, July 1st. The day was ideal and the boats glided along under the management of Messrs. Fred Champion and Maynard Bryenton—two of our experienced seamen. The party enjoyed a complete tour of the Island taking in all a few days the guest of Mrs. Sinclair MacGougan.

Holstein Prices Soar

The recent Brentwood National sale, one of the star attractions in Holstein circles, brought Canadian consignors satisfactory prices for cattle sold through the ring, Messrs. Houck Bros., Limerock Farms, Chip-pawa, Ont., for three heads of heifers realizing $2650.00, an average of $883.00 each, while the six months old son of De Cream Co. Calamity Poeh, the bull they sold in 1928 to the Detroit Creamery Farms, brought $10,100.00 and his dam $6,300.00 both top prices for male and female. The Raymond cow, Wisconsin Fobes 7th, also consigned to this sale, brought $4800.00. The general average for the 141 head offered amounted to $670.70, with the twenty-six bulls averaging $1127.00.

During the first six months of 1929, Canada has exported to the United States, more than twenty hundred head of purebred Holstein cattle, making the grand total approximately four thousand head since July 1st, 1928. In addition, several hundred head of Holstein grades have crossed the border, with most of the sales, both grades and purebreds, made at prices rather profitable to Canadian breeders.

The classes were examined in all the grades by Prof. Lloyd Shaw in his usually kindly, happy and efficient manner, paying a splendid compliment to teacher and pupils. Miss Villiet presented school leaving certificates to the following pupils: Lloyd George Dewar, Flora Martin, and Ade Kennedy. After a short address by Messrs. Oliver MacNeill and J. A. Dewar, ice cream was served by the ladies of the district.

Paul's hospital, Saskatoon on June 26th and died two days later. His death came as a great shock to his relatives as no news had been received of his illness prior to his death. Fairways by the Pacific

THERE'S keener pleasure from golf in British Columbia. Summer days are cool and balmy. Zestful breezes from the Pacific put pep in your stride. You play your very best game. You tee-off atop a rolling hill fringed with giant firs and forest maples. You look across blue waters where peaks of snow-capped mountains consort with the clouds. And in this land of all-year golf, fairways are luxuriously green even in August. And there are courses everywhere.

Pack your luggage... bring your golf clubs and all your sporting gear and come West this summer. Swim in warm salt water at the Crystal Gardens' pool and laze on clean sun-drenched beaches... motor on alpine and marine drives... voyage by palatial steamer on mountain-guarded inland passages. Or... wade up mountain trout streams... capture fighting Tyee Salmon with rod and line.

In the Evergreen Playground are comfortable hotels and apartments at prices which won't strain your pocketbook... there's health and a new outlook on life... and a chance to look over business opportunities in prosperous British Columbia while having the vacation of your life.

St. Peters Church Alberton Consecrated

Consecration of the new St. Peters Church at Alberton. The parishioners of St. Peters parish at Alberton might well be proud of their wonderful achievement in having built the beautiful new church which stands on the site of the old one and in having it free from all legal encumbrances in so short a time. It will be remembered that the old St. Peter's church was burned in a devastating fire which destroyed a number of other buildings in the town on August 4th, 1927. Not a thing was saved from the interior of the church. The building of the new church was started at the beginning of May 1928 on the foundation of the old one. It was designed by Mr. Harris, architect for Charlottetown. The contractors were Mr. W. Aubrey and Mr. Henry Leard of Alberton and it was ready for public worship in January last. The service of consecration took place on Sunday at 10.30 A. M. conducted by His Lordship Hackenley assisted by Ven Arch Deacon White and Mr. Phillips, rector of the parish.

Before the consecration began, the following furnishings were dedicated by the Bishop in sacred memory. The beautiful altar donated by Mrs. George Harris of Halifax as a sacred memorial to her son Mr. George David Harris who was drowned at Alberton last summer whilst in charge of the Anglican Parish in a gallant but unsuccessful attempt to rescue his friend who was in charge of the Presbyterian congregation when they were in swimming together; one of the pews was given in his memory by the parishioners of St. Luke's church, O'Leary. The beautiful stained glass window over the altar donated by Mrs. Leard of Alberton and Mrs. Henry of Kensington in affectionate memory of their parents the late Mr. and Mrs. John Champion. The organ donated by Mrs. W. H. Champion and daughter in loving memory of an affectionate husband and father. The beautiful electric fittings the gift of Mrs. Willard Waugh in memory of her parents the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dwyer.

Another pew was in memory of Maurice Cody, only son of Canon Cody of Toronto, who was drowned in a canoeing accident in Ontario. This was donated by his mother. Other outstanding donations to the new church are the bell by Mr. Havelock Ellis, the standard lamp for the pulpit and the flag which were the gift of Messrs. Buntain & Bell and Co., Charlottetown.

After the dedications the impressive services of consecration was proceeded with. The Bishop, attended by Ven Arch Deacon White was met at the church door by the rector and church wardens the petition for consecration was read. After the prayers ordained to be offered up on such occasions Ven Arch Deacon White read the sentence of consecration and presented the same to His Lordship for signature. Prefacing his very powerful and eloquent/dedicated sermon Bishop Hackenley made fitting and loyal reference to the King's recent illness and recovery for which thanks is being offered up in all the churches of the world today. He congratulated the parishioners on their wonderful achievement in freeing the church from all encumbrances in so short a time. His sermon which deeply impressed the large congregation was taken from the beautiful text The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the Lord of Hosts, and in this place will I give peace. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was afterwards administered by the Bishop, assisted by Ven Arch Deacon White.

The new church is very beautifully designed in Norman style, the exterior finish being in stained oak. The interior wood work is Douglas fir with pews of ash. It is one of the finest Anglican Churches on the Island of which Alberton may be justly proud. -S.

RINGWOOD INSTITUTE

Ringwood Women's Institute met for their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Augustus McMahon. The president Mrs. Nelson Currie, presided. Meeting opened by repeating Creed in unison. Nine members answered roll call by paying ten cents. Minutes of last meeting approved as read. Questionnaires were read by each convener, who filled them out and gave them to the Secretary, who in turn delivered them to the Provincial convenors. It was decided to have next meeting as egg day for Hospitals. Sewing and fancy-work were dealt with.

Miss Norma Currie gave a recitation and Miss Austina Mutch a reading. Both were heartily applauded. Gramophone selections whiled away the time, while a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, which was heartily partaken of. Mrs. MacMahon received many congratulations on her quiet baby of six weeks.

God Save the King brought a pleasant meeting to a close. The June meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Mahler. The president presided. Meeting opened by repeating Ode. Roll Call responded to by eleven members paying ten cents. As it was egg day fourteen dozens were collected and conveyed to Hospitals by Mrs. Joseph Dolron. For entertainment a spelling match was conducted by the teacher, Miss Connolly, which proved very successful from every point, namely, educative, interesting and pleasant. It brought forth lots of fun as well. Mrs. McMahon receiving congratulations as the winner. A dainty luncheon followed and meeting closed by singing God Save the King. Mrs. Nelson Currie kindly invited members to her home for next meeting, July 25th, in the evening.

BUMPER APPLE CROP EXPECTED IN NOVA SCOTIA

The setting of the early varieties of apples in the Annapolis Valley gives promise of a very large crop. The later varieties are also showing up well, and growers look for a 2,000,000-barrel crop. With this in view cooperage plants are buying all the available barrel stock for the manufacture of barrels.
