JOHN W. HOWATT, Cape Traverse, owner of the celebrated trotting stallion Tom Medlum, 2.64, was out to the other evening, exercising Tom. In his route he unfortunately, for the good reputation of this genuine trotter, fell in with H. E. Dawson, owner of Black Prince. They reined up, Tom went away waxy gaited besides being too closely geared for his tremendous stride and ho k action and his driver became slightly intimidated. However Mr. Dawson claims to have won the race, but it must be remembered that Prince's driver, whose home is by the babbling brook, is no mean jockey. Lots of folk think it would be serious for Ada Mac to tackle what Black Prince did.—Com.

ALEXANDRA Division, No 242, S. O. T. of Stanley bridge is making for itself a splendid reputation. Although one of the youngest of our Divisions it is already one of the best. Its meetings are well attended and very orderly, as all the members take a deep interest in the work. It held its first public meeting in Stanley hall on Friday evening last. 14th, inst. The hall was beautifully trimmed for the occasion by the lady members of the Division. Seldom indeed are the decorations in our country halls so tasteful and artistically done and those who had charge of the matter deserve great credit for the manner in which they performed their work. The building was crowded, many being unable to obtain seats. The best of order prevailed throughout and the speeches and other selections were listened to very attentively. The speakers were Capt Anderson; Rev Mr McDonald and Rev Mr Helyea. Capt Anderson added to the high opinion already entertained of him by members of our order in P. E. I. He showed that liquor traffic as a great wrong should be suppressed and that Prohibition was the effective way to suppress it. He proved that the oft repeated and somewhat plaintive cry of the moderate drinker his personal liberty was interfered with in an improper manner by a Prohibition law was also without foundation. Rev Mr McDonald emphasized the necessity of training the young people. This matter well done in our Division and Loyal Crusaders so leties Rev. Mr. Belyea spoke of the great good done by our Prohibitionary law and contrasted Charlottetown with other Prohibitionary towns in the Province. He also spoke very kind and encouraging words about the good work done by the Divisions and lodges. The other selections were fine and finely rendered. Especially good were the parts taken by the little girls many of whom give great promise of future usefulness in every good work. A large collection was received for the funds of the Division. Altogether the meeting was an unequalled success and those in charge are to be congratulated upon the manner in which every important detail was looked after.
