

YESTERDAY'S STOCK and BOND QUOTATIONS

MARKET GOSSIP

(By Johnston and Ward's Special Wire)
BARRING SAYS
Friday Evening

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 16—Wheat and corn went a fraction lower and then rose to both closing higher than yesterday. I feel confident that they have made their covered part of the loss. It will gradually work up to 12 cents again; I am absolutely certain that the general market has seen its low and has turned on the advance that will carry the industrial averages above the high of Feb. 18 on which they were 198.29. If you had the courage to buy stocks during the past two days, you have some profits already and these will be greatly increased before long.

Stocks are always a purchase when they look terrible and not when they look good, but so many speculative have the foolish habit of withdrawing at the very first sign of a possible recovery. The exact bottom is not known on each and every stock, because frightened selling causes the price to drop below two lower than you expect, but such frightened selling invariably forewarns of a recovery and the beginning of an extended advance.

Phillip Morris closed at 37 and has a splendid purchase for a new high. Am. Foreign Power 7 per cent pd. and it is an absolute certainty that this figure, I repeat that the properties are in foreign countries and if they should try to annoy them, they are all ready to move to Canada, which would result in quite a saving of Administrative expenses.

Buy Anson rose nearly 2 points and Nickel Plate and Southern Ry. also rose about a point. I am sure that all the Ralls have seen their low this week. Saturday a slight dip was good. Buy all leaders. Gen. Electric, Rubber, pd. Elec. Auto. Lte., Fairbanks, Morse, Wilson Pfd., anisee keep long of the gold and silver stocks.

MORNING MARKET LETTER
NEW YORK, N. Y., March 16—The market was firm to moderately higher in the morning, yesterday and followed a minor setback, rallied to close with fair-sized gains for the day. The recovery was due to the fact that the stock list and bonds and wheat also were higher. The solid condition we suggested yesterday as approaching, developed though it probably would have provided a better base for recovery if it had been delayed for a day or two.

MINING

TORONTO, March 17—The Toronto mining market made it a quiet close for the week with a shrinking of prices in only a few instances where price changes of any consequence but it was evident there were more potential sellers than buyers.
