MATTHEW and McLEAN LTD.
THRIVING BUSINESS FIRM

One of Souris' oldest and most flourishing business establishments is that of MATTHEW & McLEAN LTD.

The firm's name is a household word in the eastern community and it has served the public continuously since 1869—four years previous to the Province joining Confederation.

This well-known, respected and enterprising firm is as progressive today as it was in its early years and has kept pace with the expansion of the sea-port fishing centre, striving, and successfully so, to meet the requirements of a hustling, growing and thriving community.

General merchants, the firm caters to all the needs of the householder and there is little the purchaser may require that MATTHEW & McLEAN Ltd. cannot supply.

Building materials, paint-up, clean-up products including the well known Sherwin-Williams paints are all procurable on a visit to this store.

Spraying materials, insecticides are kept in stock. A visit to Souris is not considered complete unless a call has been made at MATTHEW & McLEAN's Ltd.

Some years ago Mr. Walker had the misfortune of losing several fingers of his left hand, while working in a local woodworking establishment.

Mr. Nelson Victor and young son of Dartmouth, N. S., spent the weekend in Georgetown, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Victor. Nelson has been employed since his discharge from the Army last fall, as fireman on the Dartmouth-Halifax ferries.

CARDIGAN NOTES

Miss Ethel Shephard spent a few days this week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shephard.

Rev. Father Leo Sullivan is spending a month visiting his many friends and relatives in this vicinity. Father Sullivan, who has not been home for a number of years, is parish priest at Coleman, Alta. Two of his brothers are also parish priests in the Canadian West.

Mr. Caleb Nicholson, formerly of Cardigan, motored from Boston recently and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Rueben McCannell of Lorne Valley for about ten days.

A number of families from Cardigan took part in an informal picnic at Morrison's Beach last week. The swimming from the ferry wharf and beach was enjoyed by most of those present while the too young and too old played in the sand. In the late afternoon a pleasant meal was served by the ladies following which several gentlemen present voiced their thanks profusely for the excellence of the repast served.

Misses Joan McCarey and Madge Dougan accompanied by Mrs. Frank Hennessey paid a brief visit to Cardigan last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacIntyre and young daughter spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wallie MacIntyre. Lloyd leaves over the weekend to resume duties with the Royal Canadian Air Force having been accepted for the permanent force

Swimming and Life Saving classes are being conducted daily at the Cardigan wharf. This community is fortunate in having three well-qualified instructors in Mr. Ernie Macdonald and Misses Phyllis Agnew and Grace Lewis. The work done here last year was declared exceptionally good by the Red Cross authorities and it is expected that this year's classes will maintain that high standing.
