Cardigan and Vicinity

Miss Jean McGrath, Lorne Valley, has returned to her home after a short visit to Montreal.

Mr. Samuel Nicholson, Cardigan Head, is at present very busy threshing in this vicinity as the farmers are all anxious to get this work done before the very cold weather.

Officers elected are as follows: President, Mrs. P. Corcoran, re-elected. Secretary, Miss Rita Corcoran, re-elected. Auditors Mrs. Peter Carter and Mrs. Patrick McQuaid. School Committee, Mrs. Hugh McAree, Mrs. Joseph Cullen, Mrs. Peter McKenna, Directors, Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, Mrs. Hannah Goodwin, Mrs. Harry Trainor. Entertainment Committee, Miss Rita Corcoran, Miss Lily Carter, Miss Blanche Mark.

Meeting then closed by song. A grab bag containing numerous articles was then brought forward and all in turn tried their luck by paying ten cents and grabbing in the mysterious bag. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by her daughter's Rita and Lucille. The remainder of the evening was spent in songs and music. Next meeting to be held in the school room during the month of December.

A masquerade dance was held in St. Teresa's Hall on Monday night with a large attendance. The dance was sponsored by the Society of the Children's of Mary. The floor being in perfect condition and the excellent music furnished by Webers' Orchestra certainly made the dance a most enjoyable one. The judges of the costumes were: Miss Bernadette Lewis, Mr. Jack Webster, Mr. Winch Birt and Mrs. Leslie. Judging was not an easy matter as there were many very beautiful and attractive costumes. Ladies first was won by Miss Manie McDonald, Peakes Station, dressed as the Queen of Hearts. Second Miss Dorothy Leard, Lorne Valley, representing a Witch, sent first went to Mr. Bill Leslie, St. Peters, and second was taken by his brother who was dressed as a soldier a very suitable costume in remembrance of Armistice which was so near at hand. The costumes then unmasked and the prizes were distributed to the winners.

Mr. Martin Corcoran, Baldwin's Road, motored to Hunter River, on Tuesday accompanied by Mr. William Goodwin, who is an employee of the C. N. R. of that district. Mr. Reuben McConnell, Lorne Valley, motored to Montague on Wednesday.

Among those attending the short course at Cardigan during the past week were: Miss Jean McConnell and Miss Dorothy McLeod, Lorne Valley and Miss Patricia Kelly, Ellettsville.

Miss Betty McQuaid, Baldwin's Road, spent the past week end visiting at the home of Miss Margaret Curtis, Cardigan Head. Mr. Percy McQuaid, Baldwin's Road, left Saturday morning for Halifax, accompanied by Mr. Frank Cronin, New Perth.

Mr. Lawrence McInnis, Lorne Valley, attended the Masquerade dance at Forest Hill on Wednesday last.

Mr. Norman McKenzie, Cardigan was a visitor to Baldwin's Road, on Thursday.
