OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

FIRE ALARM—The firemen responded to a still alarm shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning for a grass fire at Hillsboro Bridge. The crew of the hose and chemical wagon "beat" out the blaze.

LOBSTERMEN FACE DIFFICULTIES—Prospects for lobstermen, in some sections of the Province at least, were not bright, it was learned over the week end. Drift ice still hovered on the fishing grounds, lobsters few and small and shortage of herring for bait were principal difficulties confronting the fishermen as they sought to get under way in gathering the richest portion of the annual harvest taken from the sea surrounding this Island.

MANY PAY LAST RESPECTS—Funeral of Mr. J. S. MacDonald, 37-year-old Charlottetown man who died in the Prince Edward Island Hospital Friday after a short illness was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 5 North River Road to the People's Cemetery. Services were conducted by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster and the Rev. Harvey L. Denton. Many hundreds of citizens attended to pay last tribute of respect to the popular young man who died unexpectedly after being stricken with meningitis on Monday last. Pallbearers were; Messrs. Hibbert Howatt, P. S. Cobb, H. L. Sear, L. E. Wellner, W. A. Smith and Dr. Notting. Services at the grave-side were conducted by the Rev. G. C. Webster.

SOFT TRACK CAUSES DERAILMENTS—Difficulty from soft road bed because of frost leaving the ground had been especially prevalent this spring, it was learned from Canadian National Railway men last night. They had two derailments from that cause to contend with Saturday. Both were slight and damage to rolling stock not extensive. About midnight Friday a locomotive attached to a freight train left the rails at a siding at St. Charles on the Souris line. The heavy engine settled deeply in the soft roadbed between the rails and it was necessary to send an auxiliary train and crew from Charlottetown at 3 P. M. The engine was placed on the rails without much difficulty. Regular morning passenger traffic was not disrupted. Saturday afternoon an empty freight car left the rails at Winsloe. The car was replaced shortly after and no delay in traffic caused.

POSTAL CLERKS MEET—Mr. J. J. Duffy was re-elected president of the Charlottetown Branch of the Postal Clerks' Association at the annual session of the organization here Saturday night. Other officers include: Vice-president, J. Alban McDonald; secretary, G. W. H. Bears (re-elected); treasurer, H. A. Murphy (re-elected). Reports of the year's activities were submitted by Secretary Bears and Treasurer Murphy. The president in an address stressed the desirability of having all employees join the Association, a branch of the Dominion organization and through that medium improvements were made in the administration of the service. The meeting decided an association dinner would be held in the near future. A resolution was unanimously adopted expressing congratulations to Mr. H. L. Pickard on his promotion to the position of assistant postmaster.

Charlottetown lost a well known and highly respected citizen Friday night when J. S. Macdonald passed away in the Prince Edward Island Hospital at the early age of 37 years.

Mr. Macdonald who was a son of Mr. J. J. Macdonald, and the late Mrs. Macdonald, of Pinette had been enjoying his usual good health till stricken suddenly with meningitis on Monday, but this dread disease quickly took its toll of human strength and endurance and he died Friday evening in the hospital about 6.30.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted husband and father, his wife who was formerly Miss Ina MacMillan of Charlottetown, and three daughters, Joanna, Jean Elizabeth and Catherine Campbell. Also three sisters, Mrs. Pipon, a medical doctor, who Saturday arrived by plane from her home in Montreal. Mrs. Hazen Baker, Dartmouth, N. S., and Mrs. Roddie MacKenzie, Pinette.

—DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT OF CH'TOWN—Mrs. George A. Callbeck of Summerside has received word of the sudden death of her step mother, Mrs. N. N. Perry, which occurred at her home in Burnaby, near Vancouver, B. C., on Monday, May 1st. Mrs. Perry was formerly Annie Smith of Charlottetown and will be kindly remembered by the older residents, as cashier of the old firm of Beer and Goff. She later worked with the firm of G. F. Hutchinson. She was 76 years of age and was first married to the late James Farquharson of Clifton, Lot 48, where she resided for some time and was most highly esteemed. She later married Mr. Perry a native of Yarmouth, N. S., who survives her. Mrs. Perry had no children, but leaves to mourn besides her husband the following stepchildren. Mrs. James Wood, Hazelbrook, P. E. I; Mrs. George A. Callbeck, Summerside and Mr. Russell Farquharson of Clifton. The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 2nd. Interment was in the United Church Cemetery at Burnaby, B. C. S.

COMPTON—Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Stanley Compton in the death of her son, Hensley at 21 years of age, who passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Tuesday last. Hensley had been ill for about six weeks and had three operations, but in spite of the best of medical skill he did not recover. Hensley was a young man of sterling character and was a great help to his widowed mother taking charge of the farm and he will be sorely missed. He was a member of St. John's Church and a regular attendant. Besides his widowed mother, there are left to mourn the following brothers and sisters, Nelson and Lawrence at St. Eleanors; Marion and Eileen at home; Arthur and Ambrose in Farmington, Mass., Mrs. W. E. Cotton, Charlottetown and Mrs. George Small, Summerside East. Ambrose arrived home on Thursday evening. The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon from his late home to St. John's Church, St. Eleanors. Rev. G. R. Harrison conducted the service at church and grave. The pall bearers were all chums of the young lad: Herman Maynard, Fred Tanton, Clifton Compton, Arthur Andrews, Frank McCormick and F. Mills. S.

A sad gloom was cast over Darnley and surrounding districts March 18th, 1939, when the Angel of Death visited the home of Michael Brennan and called from there his dearly beloved brother at the early age of 47 years. Mr. Brennan was the son of the late John Brennan and lived all his life on the homestead at Darnley. He was most highly esteemed for his kindly disposition and thrifty habits. A week previous to his death he was stricken with "La Grippe" which gradually developed into pneumonia and everything that medical skill and nursing could do was done that he might live, but God willed otherwise and he peacefully passed away after receiving the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church by his pastor Rev. R.F. McDonald of which he was a devoted member.

—EVENING AUXILIARY MEET—The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Lorne Campbell. There was a very good attendance. Mrs. Davies the president was in the chair, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Borden Connell had charge of the program. A very excellent exercise on Christian Stewardship was presented by seven young ladies under the direction of Mrs. George Meikle, Christian Stewardship secretary. A pleasing feature of the program was a duet by Mrs. Hazen Phillips and Mrs. Fred Watton. Miss Mabel Linkletter gave a very interesting paper on Temperance. A paper on Mothers Day was also most interesting. Included in the special prayers was one for Miss Louise Callbeck of Japan who was recently bereaved by the death of her mother, the late Mrs. William Callbeck, Bedeque. The quilt for the Missionary Box was commenced at this meeting.—S.

On February 27th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Stewart, Kingboro, P. E. I. Deacon John Alexander Scott passed on to his eternal rest, at the ripe age of 89 years.

—VISITING IN FLORENCEVILLE—Mr. and Mrs Edwin Estey, Summerside are visiting in Florenceville, N. B., and attended the wedding of Mr. Estey's sister, Miss Jean Estey which took place on Saturday last. Miss Estey is well known in Summerside and her many friends here will wish her well.—S.

KING'S BIRTHDAY SCOUT BONFIRES—The District Commissioners of the Boy Scouts have been instructed to arrange for Boy Scout King's birthday bonfires for Saturday, May 20, to connect up with the series of bonfires which are to reach from the Atlantic to the Pacific. As Their Majesties will celebrate the birthday officially in Ottawa that day, the bonfires will have an added significance.

"ACCIDENTAL DEATH"—At the inquest held at Souris yesterday into the death of Mrs Bert Mullally, the jury emerged with a verdict of "accidental death". Coroner Dr. Dan McEachern presided. According to Royal Canadian Mounted Police records, Bert Mullally was cleaning his shotgun in the kitchen of his home here April 28 and the weapon was discharged accidentally. Shot in the stomach, his 2-year-old wife died before a physician arrived.

—IMPROVING—Friends in Summerside will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Gordon Schurman who had the misfortune to fall and break her hip some time ago, is now able to leave the hospital and is convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Steves at MacDonald College, Quebec. Mrs. Schurman is a native of Freetown and was for many years resident in Summerside. She is the only sister of Mr. M. F. Schurman.

The death occurred in Riverton on February 27, 1939 of Owen Hughes at the comparatively early age of 55 years. For several months previous to his death Mr. Hughes was in ill health but he gradually grew weaker and was tenderly cared for by his wife and family. Medical aid was summoned but all to no avail. On Monday evening his soul passed peacefully to its eternal reward fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. He was visited frequently during his illness by his pastor, Rev. Basil Croken.

At the regular monthly meeting of the City Council last night His Worship Mayor Foster stated that Thaddeus Knockwood, Lennox Island Indian would be presented with the Royal Humane Society's bronze medal for his work in rescuing Harold D. Moore from a train wreck last Dec. 6th. Mr. Moore, an engineer on the Island railway suffered severe injuries from scalding when the train in which he was driving jumped the rails near Bloomfield. His Worship has already received the medal and members of the Council viewed it last evening. Presentation will be made at a date to be decided upon later.

A resolution brought up at the meeting declaring that June 14th, the date of the King and Queen's visit to Charlottetown be declared a public holiday was passed unanimously.

GOLDEN WEDDING — An unusually happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Collins, Glen William on the evening of May 1st, when a large number of friends and relatives assembled to help them celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their happy wedded life. The guests from start to finish gave themselves to the full enjoyment of the occasion, and time flew very swiftly. Pipe, violin and guitar music was furnished by Messrs. Allister McDonald and John McLeod, Glen William Miss Anna McDonald, teacher at Caledonia and Glen William's talented young piper, Donald McLeod. An address expressing the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Collins are held in the community was read by Mrs. A.J. Martin, Glen William. A gift in money was presented to Mr. Charles McLeod, Alliston. The bridegroom, on behalf of himself and his blushing bride, thanked the guests for their presence and their further expressions of good will, after which "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" was sung by the entire gathering. A delicious and bountiful lunch was now served by the ladies of Alliston and Glen William. After lunch, a program of instrumental music and singing was carried out by some of the younger members of the company, to the great enjoyment of all. A special feature was a Gaelic song sung by Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Collins. The singing of "Blest Be

WEDNESDAY

NEW BOY SCOUT SECRETARY—Mr. Ralph Johnston, the Executive Secretary of the Boy Scouts Association, has resigned, and has been replaced by Mr. Alan Hopper of Moncton, formerly Assistant to Professor Pugh of New Brunswick. Mr. Hopper assumes his duties immediately.

The Dominion Department of Public Works tug "Fredericton," stationed at Charlottetown, proceeded to Governor's Island, eight miles from here, early this morning to inspect the S.S. Hochelaga which is aground on a reef there. Mr. James Harris, who is purser of the Hochelaga, said that if conditions were favorable an attempt would be made to haul the vessel off the sand bar.

Groping her way through a dense fog into Hillsboro Bay at noon yesterday, the Hochelaga with Captain J. W. Carter of Halifax in command, ran hard aground on the western side of the Island. Efforts of the vessel which ferries between Pictou, N.S., and Charlottetown to remove herself under her own power were useless. The Hochelaga is manned by a crew of 18 men including the captain.

—DOING AS WELL AS CAN BE EXPECTED—Mrs. Howard Wade of Summerside recently underwent a serious operation in the Prince County Hospital and is doing as well as can be expected. S

LECTURES ON SHAKESPEARE—A very interesting and masterly lecture on Shakespeare was delivered Monday evening in Trinity Social Hall by Dr. Frank P. Day of Sackville, under the auspices of the Mount Allison Alumni. Dr. Day, a retired president of Union College, Schenectady, and now an active worker among the Mount Allison Alumni, was introduced by Mr. C. H. Black, who outlined briefly the career of this outstanding scholar and lecturer. At the conclusion of the address Dr. Day was heartily applauded, and a motion of thanks, moved by Dr. G. D. Steel and seconded by Prof. Howard Court, was tendered the speaker.

PORT CONDITIONS UNFAVORABLE—The S.S. Songdal, Norwegian freighter was discharging a part cargo of fertilizer from Amsterdam here yesterday. The ship had previously unloaded a portion of her load at Souris and Georgetown. The ship was moored at the Railway Wharf and it was said that owing to a mud bank beside the wharf piles the steamer could not get immediately alongside the wharf. Consequently short extension platforms had to be built to enable the cargo to be unloaded. Shippers said it was conditions such as those which made ship owners unwilling to send their vessels here and was resulting in more and more of the former trade of this port being transferred to other centres in the province.

The meeting was adjourned for the summer months.

Superintendent J. O. Scott, head of the Prince Edward Island Division of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police died in the Prince County Hospital at Summerside last night. He was 57 years old. He was stricken with a paralytic stroke at the ferry dock at Borden late yesterday afternoon.

He was awaiting the arrival there of his wife who was returning from Calgary, Alberta, where their daughter was buried last week.

Superintendent Scott had been in this Province since last September when he was transferred from Western Canada to take command of "L" Division, replacing Inspector J. Fripps who was transferred to Vancouver.

Superintendent Scott was a native of Ottawa. He was a veteran of the South African War where he saw service as a mere boy.

Returning to Canada Mr. Scott felt the "call of the west" and in 1903 left for the Prairie Provinces to become a successful contractor. In 1917 he joined the Alberta Provincial Police and remained with that organization until it was amalgamated with the R.C.M.P. then to continue with the latter force.

Superintendent Scott had not been enjoying full health since before his transfer here, it was learned last night, but his condition was not thought to be serious.

Surviving are his wife, also of Ottawa; a daughter, Marjorie Scott at home here, and another daughter, Mrs. F. J. Moir of Kelowna, B.C. Three brothers also survive, Victor Scott at Westaskiwin, Alta.; Harry Scott at Millett, Alta., and Richard Scott at Edmonton.

An exceptionally pretty Spring wedding took place in St. Paul's Church yesterday morning at 7.30 when Miss Margaret Louise Cox, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Cox of Souris was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon Franklin Roper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roper, in the presence of the immediate families and friends. Exquisite lilies and snapdragon artistically arranged made an ideal setting for the happy event. The ceremony was performed by Venerable Archdeacon Raymond and during the signing of the register Mrs. Arthur Roper sang with pleasing effect "Because." The popular young bride who was unattended and given in marriage by her father looked exceedingly nice in a smart suit of Poudre Blue with dusky pink blouse, chic hat and dark blue accessories. She carried with charming effect an exquisite bridal bouquet of Cliff Briar Roses. After the ceremony the bridal party had breakfast at the Queen Hotel and from there the happy young couple left by motor on a honeymoon trip to New York where they will take in the World's Fair. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Roper intend taking up their residence in Souris.

An enthusiastic meeting to organize a Young Men's Conservative Association in the third district of Kings was held on Monday evening in Cardigan Hall, and was successfully launched amid much enthusiasm. The meeting was presided over by Mr. John A. Macdonald, Jr., of Cardigan, who told of the purpose of the gathering and regretted that the inclemency of the weather and roads kept other ardent young men from attending as the roads in many places were impassible.

The officers elected were:

President: J.A. MacDonald, Jr., Cardigan.

Vice-President: J McKenzie, Montague.

Sec.-Treas.: George Fraser Montague.

Representatives from the polls were Herb. Mallett, Victoria Cross; Ed. Sharkey, Martinvale; Percy Sullivan, Roseneath; Lincoln Dewar New Perth; Albert Acorn, Glenfanning; Earl MacDonald, Lorne Valley; Ed. Cairns, Baldwin's Road, James Banks, Dundas.

Rev. Kenneth MacPherson celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The bridal party entered the Church to the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Mary MacIntyre, cousin of the bride. During the ceremony the girl's choir rendered appropriate hymns. The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of Navy blue with navy hat and matching accessories. She was attended by her sister, Agnes, who wore a coat of mustard colored frieze with rust and brown accessories. The groom was ably supported by his brother Frederick. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party and the officiating clergyman motored to Charlottetown where a delicious breakfast was partaken of at the Queen Hotel, after which the bridal party left for a short motor trip returning in the evening to the home of the groom where a reception was tendered them by immediate relatives and friends. Before her marriage the bride was one of the Island's successful school teachers. The groom is a prosperous young farmer. The bride was tendered a pre-nuptial shower at her home where she received many costly and useful gifts. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. MacCormack many years of wedded bliss.

REGRETFUL FAREWELL — On Thursday afternoon the pupils of Queen Square School gathered in their auditorium to render a regretful farewell to their dear friend, Reverend Father Fleming C. S. S. R. who is to leave in the near future for London, Ontario, where he has been transferred. The meeting was fully conducted by the boys themselves. The chairman was Arthur Arsenault, who capably acted his duties. Father Fleming made a splendid and much appreciated address. In the course of his remarks, Father Fleming stressed the value of religious education, and told the boys it was with a feeling of deep regret that he is leaving Charlottetown, but where'er he goes the memory of the Queen Square Boys would linger with him. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker by Raeburn Stewart, and seconded by Edward Carroll. Then, a presentation of a "Spiritual Bouquet" was made by Billie DeCoste, who in a few well chosen words, paid a tribute of appreciation to Father Fleming. Other speakers were Reverend Patrick McMahon, D. D. and Reverend Father Moreau, C. S. S. R. who also rendered words of appreciation for Father Fleming's services in this city, and assured him, that the good wishes of all were with him in his new field of labour. The meeting was brought to a close by a few words from the Principal, Mr. Leo F. McDonald, B. A. followed by "The King."

Y'S MEN'S MEETING—A special fund would be set aside for boys' work to insure the continuance of this phase of Y's Men's activities, Mr. Roy Cudmore, president, stated in presenting the budget for the coming year at the regular weekly meeting of the Y's Men's Club last night. The various standing committees were named and a new departure was the appointment of a "Picnic Committee" under the chairmanship of Frank Clark. Jack MacNair was appointed as delegate to the International Convention at Chicago with Messrs. Fred Holman, Reg Taylor, Ernie Bell and Jim Haslam alternate delegates. The club went on record as supporting the move to have the Maritime clubs organized into a district region. Mr. James MacFadyen was named Charlottetown representative for the regional board of directors. Plans, relative to the visit here of Jim Betts, International President, on May 23rd were discussed.

On Thursday evening April 27, the residence of Roseneath and surrounding districts were saddened by the news of the death of a much respected resident of their community, Mrs. Patrick A. Kelly. Mrs. Kelly (nee Anastasia Sinnott, Morell) came to this district 25 years ago and during her life here formed many lasting friendships by her cheerful personality and charitable disposition. Her home was always open to the stranger or the guest, and she dispensed her hospitality with a truly Christian spirit. A fervent Catholic, very devoted to her church and all its interests she will be much missed in its charitable activities.
