RELIGIOUS SERVICES

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The blue-print of a happy life was the theme of Dr. A. C. Vincent's morning sermon. The plan to which the speaker referred is found in 2 Peter, 1: 5-7: "Add to your faith virtues; and to virtue knowledge; and to knowledge self-control; and to self-control patience; and to patience godliness; and to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness love." Perhaps nobility among men is the desire to be a worthy life, so that a structure comes not by haphazard means. St. Peter in his epistle, from the enduring foundation of faith, builds up course by course in beauty, symmetry and power. He finishes gloriously and tenderly with love.

The evening sermon was one of a series on the Ten Commandments discussing on this occasion the Fourth Commandment.

The music of the day was directed by Mrs. G. Elliott Full and included Maunders' "Thou O God art Praised," Novello's "Like as the Hart," Roberts' "Lord, we pray Thee," Turner's "Sun of my soul."

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The evening sermon was based on the first Psalm and was entitled "The Blessed Life." It was an expository nature and was developed along the following lines: Blessing is invariably associated with godliness, godliness is on the ascending scale and includes more than negative goodness, embodying the positive as well, and its results are security, permanency, and marked distinction for the child of God.

At the morning service Mr. James Calder gave a very impressive rendition of the sacred song, "I Come to Thee."

There was a slight increase in the Sunday School attendance and a very marked interest.

The subject of the evening sermon was "Faith A Vital Force" in which the speaker declared that faith is more than a body of doctrine to be learned by rote. Faith grows only in the realm of action and has to do with more than mental assent. It is a living, active, and public acknowledgement of His name. Faith embraces more than belief in the Trinity, the atonement, and multitudinous other doctrines of accepted theology; it is to be vital, faith in Christ must change many of the circumstances with which we are surrounded; it must affect one's attitudes toward the relationships of life; it must be concerned with the common duties of life as we live in this world.

The sermon is the first in a series of four Sunday evening sermons on "Steps Into the Church."

During the service the choir sang the anthem, "Like As the Hart."

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

At the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer yesterday morning, Masses were at the usual hours. At the 8 o'clock Mass the Archconfraternity of the Holy Family received Holy Communion in a body. High Mass was celebrated at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. Father Cloran, C.S.S.R. Rev. Father Cloran, C.S.S.R., preached at all the Masses.

Sunday School was held for all the children in the afternoon.

In the evening at 7 o'clock, services consisted of the Rosary, Vespers, an eloquent and inspiring sermon by Rev. Father Cloran, after which Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Father Cloran.

NEW CABINET

Mr. Stirling is a quiet, studious type. A civil engineer by profession he also operates a fruit farm at Kelowna, B. C. In the House he has been conspicuous mainly for his quiet, restrained manner and his practical reasoning on the rare occasions when he speaks. He has been frequently in demand as acting deputy speaker and chairman of the committee of the whole House.

Dr. MacLaren has been a member of the House of Commons since 1921. He gave his professional services throughout the Great War going overseas and has since been given distinguished service to the medical profession. For some time he has been seeking release from his ministerial duties because of advancing years and declining health. His resignation as member for St. John-Albert, which he has represented throughout his Parliamentary career, is expected shortly, to be followed by his appointment as Lieutenant Governor of his native province.

Dr. D. M. Sutherland takes to the Department of Pensions and National Health the skill and wisdom of a physician coupled with the viewpoint of the practical soldier in the field. He commanded the 10th Battalion overseas and the Distinguished Service Order in France. He first entered the House of Commons in 1925, representing Oxford North.

In placing a non-ministerial minister at the head of the Department of National Defence the government is reverting to the practice followed generally before the advent of Sir Sam Hughes, the wartime minister.

SACRED SONG SERVICE

The Y. M. C. A. service for all young people was held in St. James' church at 8 o'clock last night and was fairly well attended.

Mr. Jack MacKenzie, President of Trinity Young Peoples Society was the chairman for the meeting and the Scripture Lesson was presented by Mr. Donald Bell.

Mr. A. Lawson sang a solo, "The Ships are Sailing to the Harbour," which was pleasingly rendered.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Fred Large, lay student, who chose as his subject, "The Futility of Crime," and gave a detailed description of a major crime from origin to complete preparation. "Large criminals," said Mr. Large, "start with small beginnings."

The songs were led in prayer by Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate and the singing was directed by Mr. Calder.

Mr. Norville E. Luck, General Secretary of the Charlottetown Y. M. C. A. who presided at the Sacred Song Services, intimated that the young people were invited to hold their meeting in St. Peter's Cathedral at the same hour on Sunday next.

Rev. Dr. Moorhead Legate closed the service with the Benediction.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Taking an apple as his object lesson to the boys and girls on Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Raymond explained God's purpose in making the apple attractive in appearance. On seeing a nice red apple one's first impulse is to eat it and in this way make it possible for the little seeds to be scattered here and there. The purpose of life, but as the Rector pointed out there are other purposes for which God intended them.

Speaking on the subject "The Christian's Attitude," Mr. Raymond took as his text the Eleventh verse of the Third Chapter of St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians—"For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." He pointed to the people within the church at Corinth to warn them against the growing spirit of denominationalism which was fast creeping into the church.

Mr. Raymond dealt with other foundations on which people were inclined to base their Christianity, such as wealth, social prestige, human personality. Such foundations as these are unstable and will not stand to stand day by day in the stress of life; they will not enable us to withstand the temptations of life; they will not enable us to stand in the days of prosperity and in the closing days of life the only foundation which stands sure is Jesus Christ in his death and resurrection.

The offertory solo was very acceptably sung by Mrs. Frederick Calder.

The text of the sermon at the evening service was taken from St. Luke's Gospel, Chapter 6, and deals with St. Peter's denial of Christ. The "bottom rung" of the ladder is significance of two things, namely the lowest level we can go, and a new starting place. St. Peter in his denial of Christ dropped to the lowest rung but he nevertheless used it as a starting place back to Christ. It was only when he had reached the lowest rung that he was able to see what depth he had reached.

In conclusion, Mr. Raymond intimated any who had reached the lowest rung in the ladder to seek

Trinity United Church Observes 70th Anniversary

Three score and ten years ago the Wesleyan Methodist people of Charlottetown completed the erection of the large brick edifice in Prince Street, now known as Trinity United Church. The history of this church is clearly outlined in an article by Mr. Henry Smith in last Saturday's issue of The Guardian. To complete the account there given, Mr. Smith wishes to add the following paragraphs:

After the Union in 1825, the Rev. E. H. Ramsay was appointed as Associate Pastor with the Rev. W. M. Ryan, and in 1827 Mr. Ryan resigned and the Rev. Hammond Johnson and Dr. Ramsay were made Co-Pastors. In 1829 Mr. Johnson resigned and the Rev. C. N. Brown was appointed Assistant to Dr. Ramsay. In June last, Dr. Ramsay and Mr. Brown resigned and they were followed by the Rev. Hugh Miller and the Rev. J. W. Barbour, the present Pastors of the church.

The name of Rev. Jacob Heaney was omitted from the list of former ministers of Trinity Church. He was the pastor from July 1841 to 1851. Each year in November the anniversary of the opening is celebrated by special exercises. Yesterday, the anniversary services were conducted by the Minister, Rev. Hugh Miller, M.A., D.D., who preached the sermon on the occasion of the anniversary of the opening is celebrated by special exercises. were counted by a staff under the chairmanship of Mr. J. J. Morris, Manager of the Provincial Bank. The total expenses are approximately $225 for apples, advertising, etc. Everywhere the Boy Scouts went they were met by a smile and from some places where they did not go soon enough, telephone calls were received at headquarters asking to send them round. It is evident that Apple Day has caught the popular fancy, and will be a welcome November feature in years to come.

The organization was under the direction of Provincial Commissioner Warren and Provincial Secretary Parent, with President J. O. Hyndman and Past President William Bell in close contact. In Charlottetown there were four depots: Headquarters at the Tourist Bureau, kindly lent by Mr. and Mrs. McAdven, with Commissioner Warren in charge; Brighton district, at Mr. Fisher's store with Scoutmaster Brady in charge; Lennoxville Avenue district at Mr. Dillon's store with Scoutmaster MacMillan in charge; and Central district at Mr. Coffin's store, Grafton St., with District Commissioner Parent in charge. The provisions of the plan were declared to be an "indivisible whole." Each of the belligerent nations was called upon to accept them as soon as possible, with one reservation only—that they also be accepted by the other party.

In connection with a cessation of hostilities a neutral advisory commission is to be set up consisting of six members designated by Argentina, Chile, Uruguay and Paraguay and Bolivia, the adjacent states and those represented on the Washington committee of neutrals, and Ecuador and Venezuela.

A.A.U. OF C. CONCLUDES MEETING

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) TORONTO, Nov. 18—The Amateur Athletic Union of Canada tonight started on a trail that may lead to loss of direct control of amateur sport and leave it merely a clearing house.

At the 47th annual meeting which concluded here yesterday, the union parted with its boisterous baby-track and field—and set up a representative committee to supervise boxing and wrestling for 1935.

Election of officers saw W. A. Fry of Dunville, Ont., gain the presidency and John Leslie of Edmonton re-elected to continue as honorary secretary for another year. C. Claude Robinson of Winnipeg again was the unanimous choice for treasurer.

A motion to form an allied body which would have control of boxing and wrestling was smashed with an 82-64 polled vote. Finally it was decided to appoint a committee representative of the sports throughout Canada and Charles Higginbottom of Toronto was named chairman.

The committee, which will try to fashion uniform rules throughout the Dominion and cure the "chaotic" condition of the sport will report to the next annual meeting of the A. A. U. on ways of improving the future control of boxing and wrestling.

Of 46 requests for reinstatement of professionals, 40 were ratified, three refused, two granted pending completion of papers and one pending receipt of the $5 fee. Nineteen hockey, 10 lacrosse, six boxing, five baseball, and one track athlete were returned to amateur status. The three refused were hockey players.

Expenditures must be cut drastically and only the cream of Canadian athletes will be sent to the 1936 Olympic Games, the Olympic committee under Chairman P. J. Mulqueen of Toronto decided. All revenue-producing bodies affiliated with the A. A. U. will be asked to contribute funds, Mr. Mulqueen said.

It was necessary to take a polled vote before giving Halifax the 1924 annual meeting. The executive favouring Regina as the western city had waived the right to have the meeting this year.

Bert Taken For Ride Hits His Stride

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Nov. 18—Bert Connelly's belief that red is his lucky color is stronger than ever tonight.

When the rookie right-winger, up from Moncton Hawks to New York Rangers this season, hit Broadway, a super display of shirts caught his eye. He plucked down his money and he picked up a shirt of the reddest red.

Bert wore the shirt to Madison Square Garden tonight and right into the Ranger dressing-room, where he was met by such jibes as "where's your bull, Matador." His face soon matched the hue of the shirt.

It seems the young winger was seeing red when he got on the ice against St. Louis, for he scored one goal and assisted in another as Rangers whisked to a 5-0 win.

The good-natured razing had given way to back-slapping and hand-shakes when Connelly plodded into the dressing-room at the end of his well-performed.

SARNIA IN RUGBY FINAL

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 18—Slightly bewildered by the ferocity of combat itself and the excitement of it all, Sarnia Imperials held the Eastern football championship tonight for the first time. An objective this little western Ontario city set up five years ago—the Dominion title—is within a single step of being achieved.

A big tremendously fast platoon that made no mistakes, struck Hamilton Tigers, Inter-provincial Union champions, one lightning blow here yesterday and the payoff was that one thrust alone. It came in the first two minutes of battle, gave the O. R. F. U. titleholders a touchdown and paved the way for an 11-4 triumph over grim and brilliant a Tiger team as a Hamilton audience has seen in years.

CARDINAL PASSES

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) ROME, Nov. 18—Pietro Cardinal Gasparri, war-time secretary of state for the Vatican and a powerful influence in the cause of universal peace, died of pneumonia tonight shortly after 10:30 p. m., at the age of 82.

Stricken last week with influenza which crept into his lungs, the aged Cardinal sank steadily during the day, and tonight his heart gave out.

At five o'clock in the afternoon Archbishop Ottaviani, under-secretary of state, had imparted the special blessing of Pope Pius. Extreme Unction was administered yesterday.

Cardinal Enrico Gasparri, the Prelate's nephew, immediately notified Pope Pius of the death. A high prelate and a Vatican judicial officer went to the Cardinal's apartment and sealed the door of his study.
