DRISCOLL—HICKEY NUPTIALS One of the season's prettiest weddings was solemnized in St. Mary's Church, Indian River, on Wednesday morning, Sept. 12th, when Miss Mary Ann Kathleen, eldest daughter of Mr. T. A. Driscoll, Clermont, became the bride of Clarence Edgar Hickey of Indian River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Basil Croken, cousin of the bride, who also celebrated the nuptial Mass. Pleasing hymns were rendered during the Mass by the Misses Frances and Geraldine Shea, cousins of the bride, and the wedding March was played by Mrs. H. L. Gillis. The church which was beautifully decorated for the occasion was filled with guests and after the ceremony the bride and groom, received the good wishes of many friends. She carried a handsome bouquet of white sweet peas and wore as her only ornament a beautiful pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Mary MacIntyre, who wore a suit of lawn silk crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The groomsmen were Mr. Brendan Driscoll, brother of the bride. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a beautiful gold and amethyst bar pin and to the bridesman gold cuff links. The bride's gift to the groom was a signet ring. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where a dainty wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives of bride and groom. Appropriate speeches were delivered by Rev. Monsignor Gillis, their beloved pastor, also by Rev. Father Croken and several others. After a few hours pleasantly spent with music and dancing, Mr. and
