MILTON AND RUSTICO HEAR STEVENS PARTY

The Reconstruction Party speakers addressed meetings in Rustico and Milton last night. The hall in Milton was about three-quarters full with an audience of about 100.

Mr. Bernard Hughes, the Reconstruction candidate, and Messrs. Harry Richardson, Wellington Dixon, and R. E. Connolly addressed the Rustico audience. In addition to the above named speakers Mr. Robert Duvar spoke at Milton.

Mr. Harry Richardson who was the first speaker referred among other things to criticism of Mr. Stevens claiming he was sincere in the establishment of his party. He told how the Stevens party came to be formed and then went on to say that Stevens was the only one who made any promise to the youth of Canada.

So far as the laborers are concerned Canada has never enjoyed a real era of prosperity, he claimed.

Mr. Wellington Dixon spoke at previous meetings on the theory of economics. The theory and practice of banking were also discussed by the speaker.

Mr. H. H. Stevens is not tied to financial interest he said. He dealt also with what he claimed were the causes leading up to the depression. Machinery, when it was introduced in 1800 in England caused a depression and a rebellion, but England came out of it all right because there was a great market at that time in other countries of the world.

Mr. R. E. Connolly in his address asked how many had hope for the future, hope for prosperity, and if they were idle for profitable employment. The things are the birthright of the people of this country, he declared, but governments for the past 68 years have been fooling the people.

Mr. MacPhee, the last speaker, explained that the $10.00 received by the members for the special session was to be deducted from the sessional indemnity they will receive next March.

Mr. Bernard Hughes in his address first explained the Reconstruction Party platform. The platform of Canada depends upon the ability to absorb into useful and gainful employment the youth, and the employment of those at present without work.

Selassie To Mobilize Today; As Solemn Hour Nears

(By James A. Mills Associated Press Foreign Staff) ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 2.—Nearly 250,000 Ethiopian fighters were reported on the march tonight, some toward the Italian colonial frontier, in anticipation of a general mobilization tomorrow.

Native drums will call 10,000,000 men, women and boys into service in the face of a threatened war with Italy.

Emperor Haile Selassie decided upon the mobilization, which he will proclaim from the balcony of the Imperial Palace, after dispatching a protest to Geneva charging Italy has already invaded his kingdom with 50,000 troops.

One hundred thousand Ethiopians were reported marching from Gondar toward the Eritrean frontier, where Italy is expected to strike. This army was expected to be 60,000 warriors from four provinces led by Ras Mulatu, Minister of War.

Another 80,000 troops from Jima and Walaga provinces were said to be on their way to Addis Ababa to protect the capital.

(The Addis Ababa correspondent of the Paris Solr reported fighting between Italian and Ethiopian troops had already started in the Mussa All-Eastern section of Ethiopia and that there have been casualties).

Although previous Ethiopian reports said none of the country's troops was in that vicinity, the newspaper asserted three columns of advancing Italian troops, totaling 25,000 men, fought with irregular Dankil tribesmen. The Italians have not yet met Ethiopian regulars, the report said.

In the traditional Ethiopian fashion, drums will call the warriors to arms. Mobilization orders are already in the hands of provincial governors.

Before making the decision, the King conferred at length today with his advisers. Some officials here expressed belief war may break out even before the arrival of Italian consular agents from the interior. They have been called in for safety.

The consul at Adawa was arrested by Ethiopian officials when he attempted to cross the border into Eritrea, but was later released and is travelling here under armed Ethiopian guard.

Ethiopia's protest to the League charged Italians had entered Aussa Province, in a triangular portion of Ethiopia in the region of Mount Mussa Ali.

The text of the protest as received by the League reads: "We inform you for communication to the Council and the state members that Italian troops have violated the Ethiopian frontier in the region south of Mount Mussa Ali, in the Province of Aussa, between that mountain and the frontier of Ethiopia and French Somaliland and have established themselves in Ethiopian territory preparing a base for extensive attack."

"The proximity of the sea to this region and its easy access through the territory of French Somaliland make it possible with the Council either to send observers or to obtain confirmation of this violation of Ethiopian territory through the Government of French Somaliland."

Italians were reported here to have sent in some 50,000 native Eritrean troops and motor trucks, tanks and airplanes. The reported invasion was denied.

The Ethiopian Government said the reported invasion came to its attention through French sources in French Somaliland.

Mount Mussa Ali, where the Italians are said to have moved, is 6,000 feet high and commands a great section of the Ethiopian desert. The Government here said the Italians had completed six roads from Eritrea to these bases.

monstration which the history of the human race recalls. His voice carried to 7,329 communities. Slowly but forcefully, Premier Mussolini almost shouted each word with long pauses between them. Throughout there was the silence of an army on review, punctuated with the wildest cheering.

Not only our army marches towards its goal but 44,000,000 Italians are marching with the army," he said.

The first indication that greater London will cooperate with the government came when Herbert Morrison, leader of the Socialist majority on the London County Council, called the government's air defence scheme a "clumsy document" but added: "I can save one London child I will do it. I cannot find it in my heart to say we will make no preparation."

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Key members of the cabinet met tonight to consider measures in case of possible emergencies arising out of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict. A cabinet session today gave full power to them to "take all necessary steps that the situation demands."

After hearing the report of Anthony Eden, Minister for League of Nations Affairs, on the League sessions in Geneva, the cabinet approved his actions there and confirmed its support of the League.

Eden's forthcoming talks with Premier Laval in Paris on his way back to Geneva are regarded here as of great importance. It is hoped by then the French cabinet will have prepared an answer to British request for information on its attitude if an isolated attack was made on Britain.

Several members of the Italian colony met at the Italian Co-operative Association's rooms, with Ambassador Dino Grandi presiding. Although many of them were Fascist uniforms they denied they were taking part in the world wide mobilization of Italian youth.

Some of those present admitted, however, they had been called there for instructions on their possible departure for East Africa.

Among those attending tonight's meeting were Lord Halifax, Secretary for War; Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, Air Minister; Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Sir Bolton Eyres-Monsell, First Lord of the Admiralty; Sir Edward Ellington, Chief Air Marshal; Sir Samuel Hoar, Foreign Secretary; Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade and Malcolm MacDonald, Secretary for Colonies.

Lord Halifax and Sir Samuel called on the King today.

Attitude Unaltered LONDON, Oct. 2.—No official comment upon Premier Mussolini's speech was forthcoming tonight but usually well-informed quarters took the view that Il Duce's quarrel, if any, was with Geneva and not with London, and that nothing he said today materially altered the situation.

The British have already admitted there is little possibility of averting the Italo-Ethiopian conflict and think it is the League's duty now to find the quickest and most effective way to halt war.

Would Reconnoitre GENEVA, Oct. 2.—An authoritative source disclosed tonight that League of Nations officials were considering asking the French government to dispatch an airplane from Djibouti to Mussa Ali to determine whether Italian troops had actually crossed the Ethiopian frontier.

Secretary of State Hull, in whose department the new nautions control board functions, made available figures to show that only about $340,000 in arms, cartridges, airplanes and airplane engines were shipped up to Sept. 23 this year, of which $350,000 was in airplanes and engines.

Commerce department foreign trade figures for August, however, showed new record shipments of cotton lint, useful for explosives; scrap iron and steel; trucks which could carry troops, and tractors convertible into tanks. Most of the trucks went direct to Italian Africa.

Commerce figures for the period to Sept. 23 were not available, but experts estimated a growing trend of such exports to Italy, and pointed out that total trade with Italy has been increasing in the past few months.

Hull's figures showed no exports of war materials to Ethiopia.

hurried off to London. "We are out and out pacifists and are not discouraged and will go on," he asserted.

The convention tonight rejected resolutions opposing the government's scheme for civilian air drills and instructing labor municipal governments to refuse to carry them out.

PLUCKY ACT OF CH'TOWN BOY

HALIFAX, Oct. 2.—Speculators at the Nova Scotia Exhibition got their greatest thrill unexpectedly last night when a terrified horse ran away with 10-year-old Tommy Rogers, son of Mrs. George J. Rogers, Charlottetown, at the Horse Show in the Forum.

The judges were looking over the ponies when a thoughtless spectator burst a paper bag. Startled by the loud report a high strung hackney thoroughbred pony, drawing a two-wheeled cart in which the Rogers boy sat, started, snapping a trace.

As the pony's rear hoofs crashed through the front of the cart, young Tommy wound his hands around the reins and held on grimly as the animal dashed into the midst of some other ponies and carts nearby, then started to race madly around the ring, hoofs flying high, and the cart careening crazily.

Horried fans expected to see the little driver thrown from the cart which leaned at dangerous angle as the pony circled the Forum four times.

But the driver, whom M. B. Zwicker, his mentor, regards as one of the best horsemen for his age in eastern Canada, clung to the reins and eventually brought the panting steed to a halt.

As he did so the crowd acknowledged the heroic act with applause such as no other event on the program had received.

10th Anniversary Of W.M.S.

In conjunction with other auxiliaries all over the Dominion, the W. M. S. of Trinity United Church, Summerside, celebrated on Tuesday the tenth anniversary of the Union of the Women's Auxiliaries of the different churches to join the union.

The service was held in Trinity United Church and formed part of the regular monthly thanksgiving meeting.

The President, Mr. L. R. Allen presided, and conducted the devotional period. In a short address Mrs. Allen made reference to the special purpose of today's meeting and congratulated the ladies on the splendid record of the past four years among the Women's Missionary Society. Mrs. Allen extended a welcome to the visitors from Lot 16.

The meeting followed closely the order of the commemoration service, laid out for the day.

The pageant representing "The uniting of the three churches, Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational," was very cleverly portrayed by different members, under the direction of Miss Sue Meadows.

Mrs. George Sheen took the character of the Spirit of W. M. S. of 1925. Other ladies took the part of the different officers of the W. M. S. Miss Jessie Strong played softly on the organ while the ladies came up to take their places.

A group of ten young girls wearing banners, representing ten years of Union, came forward as the W. M. S. of 1935. After all had taken their places, they gathered closely round their leader and sang very sweetly, "In Christ, there is no East nor West." The whole thing was very impressive. Members from the Young Women's Auxiliary of Lot 16 under the leadership of Mrs. (Rev.) Woodside presented a very charming pageant. All the girls were in costume, each representing a flower.

At the conclusion the Dedication Prayer was said by Mrs. Major Townsend. The visitors and local members were then entertained to tea in Epworth Hall by a committee from the W. M. S. Over one hundred dollars was realized from the Thank offerings.—S.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. SAMUEL A. MURCHISON There passed away at his home in Quinny, Mass., on Aug. 21, 1935, after a lingering illness, Samuel A. Murchison. Mr. Murchison was born in Point Stour, P.E.I., sixty-three years ago, but for over forty years has resided in Quinny, where he carried on his trade of stone-cutting. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him, and many friends and relatives loved to visit him in his home, where they were always sure of cordial welcome.

He was a member of the United Presbyterian Church, Quinny. The many beautiful floral offerings were silent, but loving tributes to his memory.

The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Nichols, assisted by Rev. Roy Stewart. Interment was in Mt. Wollaston Cemetery, Quinny.

There are left to mourn, besides his wife, nee Cassie McLeod, one son, John D., and three daughters, Dorothy, Muriel and Edna (Mrs. Andrew) all of Quinny, Mass.; also two brothers, James D., P. Prim, P.E.I., and Capt. Neil, of San Rafael, Cal., and three sisters, Mrs. Hugh Gillis, Eldon, P.E.I.; Mrs. John McPherson, Quinny, Mass., and Mrs. Charles Smith, Andover, Maine.

MRS. JOSEPH WISE In the passing of Mrs. Joseph Wise, whose death occurred on Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Carson, Highfield, with whom she resided, a beloved and much respected member of the community has passed to her Eternal Home.

Just past the four score and ten span the late Mrs. Wise retained all her faculties until the last. She lived a long and useful life, taking great interest in church and community events in her younger days.

Possessed of a wonderful memory, numerous friends who at all times received cordial welcome at her home, were on occasion, entertained with stories of the long ago; thus a link between the past and present is broken by death.

She was twice married, her first husband being Donald MacKinnon, who died in 1892, and she was twice widowed. Mrs. George Carson, Highfield, and Mrs. Frank Darke, Regina.

Her second husband was Mr. Joseph Wise, for many years a member of the Local Legislature, who predeceased her some years ago.

She leaves to mourn the following step-children, Ambrose and Fred J. Winnipic; Mrs. Annie Bryerton, Amherst; Mrs. R. E. Mutch and Mr. A. R. Wise, City. A brother, James Esory, Kensington, survives.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held yesterday at Highfield.

Warns Farmers Re Speculative Prices

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A warning to farmers against speculative prices caused by talk of war came from Secretary of Agriculture Wallace as he noted a four-cent rise in the wheat market.

The Secretary, holding a list of closing market quotations, spoke thoughtfully at a press conference as he recalled disastrous farm product price speculations 20 years ago.

"It might be well," the Secretary mused, "for the farmer to think of what happens to prices in times of war and in times of peace. There are threats of war which might consider the inevitable distortion of judgment which takes place in times of excitement."
