

THE GUARDIAN LOCAL NEWS

Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

A MAIL started for Summerside from Cape Traverse last evening.

A. A. McLeod, New York has The Guardian's thanks for recent New York papers.

REV. Mr. Fullerton's lecture to have been given last night has been postponed till Monday night.

It is reported that in sections of the country inhabitants have to get out of their up stairs windows.

The civic voting on the Electric Light question next Saturday will be open to women having the necessary civic qualification.

The Seed Fair advertised to take place on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 21st and 22nd inst is postponed on account of storm till Friday and Saturday, 24th and 25th inst.

MILES McInnis, who formerly resided in Valleyfield East and is a son of Mrs. Mary McInnis, is now conducting the Queen Cigar Store Ymir, in B. C. Mr. McInnis removed to British Columbia in 1897.

The friends of the Commercial Travelers who are now in the city will give a Return At Home at the Victoria Hotel this evening. The chaperones are Mrs. George Stanley, Mrs. W. K. Rogers and Mrs. L. G. Wheat.

AMONG Islanders at present in Quebec are Sergeant Instructor Hessian and Sergeant Smith, Georgetown, Corporal Cheverie, Souris and George and Sydney Oland, formerly of Charlottetown who are taking qualifying course.

The mails close at two o'clock this afternoon for the Capes by courier service. Mr. McNevin will leave about half past two and will meet the mail from Cape Traverse at Bonshaw, returning tomorrow morning. This arrangement is of course subject to weather conditions.

HENRY CROCKET, Cape Traverse, who alternately with Silvan Clark is at present employed by J. H. P. Irving in taking the foreign and other mail between Bonshaw and Cape Traverse left Bonshaw about eleven Wednesday night and reached Cape Traverse about eight yesterday morning in the midst of the storm.

The skate to be given at St. Dunstan's rink by the Ladies of St. Joseph's Sodality which has been postponed from time to time on account of storms, will be held this evening. The ice is in excellent condition. A path will be made from the railway to college. Hot coffee and cake will be served. Special will leave Charlottetown at 7:30, returning after the skate.

LEONARD HAD Bethune of No 2 Co C.A. and Harold and Frank Sterns of Souris, Co are still at Cape Traverse awaiting transportation to the city. They were informed before leaving Quebec that they were successful in their examinations and are now duly qualified lieutenants. Their trip across at the Capes was one of the hardest of the season.

MRS. PAUL, wife of A. R. Paul, of H. M. Customs, died at her residence, 12 William Street early this morning. She was forty years of age and had been ill only four days. Besides her husband six children are left to mourn their loss. The bereaved family will have the sympathy of many friends.—Halifax paper. Mr. Paul formerly belonged to Charlottetown and was a son of the late Capt. Paul.

The Guardian has received from Rev. J. W. Wadman, formerly of Victoria, Canada, and is now of Hawaii, Honolulu, a handsome illustrated folder issued by the Hawaii Promotion Committee. The views consist of the Nuuanu Pali and Koolau Mountains; the Crater of Kilauea, Hawaii; Waikiki Beach, Honolulu, in midwinter, Thanksgiving day parade of automobiles; Picking Coconuts for Christmas; Hainbow Falls, Hilo; and a number of the prominent buildings of the capital city.

MUCH to the surprise and pleasure of citizens the mail courier, Neil McNevin with 19 bags letters appeared at the Post Office shortly after five o'clock last evening, having braved the storm from Bonshaw. Mr. McNevin who is deserving of great praise for his excellent work left Bonshaw about eleven on Wednesday night. Despite the storm he managed to reach Mr. White's, opposite Brighton about six o'clock in the morning but owing to the tired condition of his horses and the heavy road he laid up there for the forenoon. About three o'clock he left for the city and with the assistance of four men from North River he got to town after a very heavy haul in crossing the ice.

The storm which began about ten o'clock on Wednesday night and did not subside till yesterday afternoon played havoc with the railway line and undid much of the work of the previous days. Conductors Stanley and Davey got together east of St. Peter's about four yesterday morning and the former proceeded towards Charlottetown and the latter to Souris, which he reached at seven yesterday morning. Conductor Stanley had gone as far as a mile east of Royalty Junction by eight yesterday morning but was stalled there for the day. Conductor Hibbett is yet at Lot 18 Road and Conductors McKenna, Tanton and Kelly where they were Wednesday night. There was no movement in any of the trains yesterday except that of Conductor McDonald who had passed Bloomfield going east.

GEORGE MUNROE, 19 years old, who claims Prince Edward Island as his birth place, and New York as his home; sought protection from the wintry weather at central police station last night and was given a cell in the station basement. Munroe says that about a month ago he was engaged as one of the crew on a vessel lying at St. Andrews, and fell between the vessel and the wharf, badly dislocating a shoulder. The attending physician sent him to the hospital in this city for treatment. A few days ago he was discharged from the hospital and having a scant allowance of money, obtained lodgings in the Metropole on Prince William street, conducted by the Salvation Army. He told the police that his money gave out yesterday morning and being without the price of his lodging he was forced to walk the street. He says he wishes to get to his home in New York.—St. John Telegraph, Feb. 13.

Afraid of Strong Medicines.
Many people suffer for years from the matic pains, and prefer to do so rather than to take the strong medicines usually given for Rheumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. Rev. Amos Parker of Magnolia, North Carolina, suffered for eight years with a lame hip, due to severe rheumatic pains. He has been permanently cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by all druggists.
