PAY NO TAXES IS THE DECISION.

BELFAST, November 4.—A resolution to pay no taxes under an Irish home rule parliament and to make government under its rule impossible by unfinching and continuous obstruction of the law was passed here to-day at a demonstration of 6,000 business men of Ulster, including representatives of leading firms with an aggregation capital of upwards of $658,000,000.

High Grade Coal

is the only kind we carry. It does not matter, when you order you can be sure of getting satisfactory coal if you come to us.

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

...IT PAYS to buy in this Province ...THE MORNING Guardian can be obtained in Souris at H. J. Mahons.

...MR. ED. D. FEEHAN Guardian representative in Souris will gladly receive subscriptions and advertising matter at the office of undertaker W. L. Dingwell. His phone number is 5.

...SUBSCRIBERS should renew a week or two before the time they have paid for has expired and thus not miss an issue, as all papers are discontinued promptly on expired date.

...LAMBS SOLD.—A correspondent from St. Peters says that Mr. James D. McInnis has secured or contracted for the majority of Lambs in this section.—U

...FAT CATTLE.—Fat cattle are in good demand around St. Peters and quite a number are moving, although in general stall feeding is only beginning.—U

...HOME IMPROVEMENTS.—The enterprising blacksmith Mr. A. Mayne, St. Peters, has his new residence nearly ready for occupation. This building has been constructed in the most modern style with solid cement foundation and cellar and is a distinct improvement on the appearance of the town.—U

...WINTER SPORTS.—The members of St. Peters Sporting Club are having their skating rink renovated and put in order for the coming winter. They are having a new pump and flooding system installed which when completed will be a vast improvement on the method. This enterprising young club is wide awake and the members are continually looking out for anything that will add to the utility and attractiveness of their rink.—U

...FINE PORK.—Mr. V. H. Dockendorf of Mount Hope recently sold to Mr. C. E. Pratt of St. Peters the two smallest of a litter of nine spring pigs and they tipped the scales at 215 pounds each. What would the larger ones weigh? There was sold to this firm on the same day nearly two tons of pork all from Mount Hope and all of first quality. Who says that the Eastern farmers cannot raise hogs when one small section can raise that quantity at once?—U

...THE DRAMATIC recital given in the Town Hall at Georgetown on Tuesday night was fairly well attended. The entertainment, which lasted about two hours, consisted of many noted recitations, including selections from Dickens and Byron, and was given in the style which has made Miss Gorman such a familiar figure in that line of entertainment. An entertainment of this sort is something of a novelty and the attention paid to the performance speaks for itself. Miss Gorman's ability to hold an audience. Excellent music was furnished by Miss Hilda Barnes of Georgetown.G.
