THE FUN IN LIFE.

A sense of humor is more valuable for a busy woman than all the latest inuentions for making housekeeping easy. The patent dish-washer, the self-feeding and self-shaking range, the washing-machine, the bread-mixer and the egg-beater all put together will not help "mother" through Saturday morning so well as the ability to laugh long and heartily.

Unfortunately, there is no school where this accomplishment can be learned. The giggling girl is not so sure to grow up a laughing woman. She may regard herself and her own affairs with a portentous seriousness Egotism is fatal to a true sense of humor. So is a lack of imagination So is that morbid conscientiousness which is our least desirable inheritance from Puritanism.

The family is fortunate indeed where the mother is first to see a joke and to lead the mirth. In too many homes her sole share in merriment is her dismal "I'm sure I don't see what you are laughing about!" The mother, an invalid for years, who could answer an inquiry about her health with a quizzical smile and a quick "Sick abed, and worse up!" was not a burden but a joy to the children who found her room "the jolliest place in the house."

A nonsense rhyme, a doll conundrum, a lively repartee, a story of misadventure may all serve as sauce for a dull day. The appetite of fun may be coaxed to grow by what it feeds on, until the mature woman, laden with responsibilities, can smile at her own small trials and help others to follow her example. She will learn first not to cry over spilt milk, and later will master an even more useful accomplishment and will laugh over it.

NOT THE FINAL — FORM OF GOVERNMENT

LONDON, September 6—Right Hon. Herbert Samuel, Postmaster-general, in a paper read before the meeting of the British association at Dundee yesterday afternoon, in which he dealt with the question of the centralization of government, declared that the constitution at present regarded the great over-seas dominions as adjuncts and not an integral part of the British Empire. It was impossible that this should remain the final form of the government of the empire.

The postmaster-general added that there were reasons for holding that the constitution of the United Kingdom was over-centralized and should properly develop in a federal direction. The constitution of the British empire on the other hand, was clearly under-centralized.

The organs which served equally well all parts of the empire are the monarchy, the judicial committee of the privy council, and the imperial conference. The committee on imperial defense may develop into another, but the population of the outlying of the empire have no formal share in its sovereignty. It was a mistake to suppose that federalism transferred a man's allegiance. It could not be said that the allegiance of Canadians was transferred from the British crown when a parliament was set up in Canada. The Canadian remained a subject of the British crown, his allegiance being in no way impaired.

What federalism was to do was to add a new and subordinate allegiance to the old allegiance.

TO PRESERVE LEVEL OF THE LAKES.

OTTAWA, Sept. 6—An important public hearing of the international joint commission on waterways is to be held at International Falls, opposite Fort Frances, Ont., on September 17, and at Kenora on September 19 in connection with the question of the levels of the Lake of the Woods and tributary waters, which has been referred to the commission by the Canadian and United States governments for investigation and report.

The hearings arise out of a reference to the joint commission of a general question whether it is desirable to fix the levels of the Lake of the Woods. If this course is taken a considerable area will be concerned, as these levels are liable to be affected by works alike on the Rainy river, which empties into the lake, and on the Winnipeg river, which drains it.

The present proceedings have their origin in certain complaints from the American side regarding the dam at Kenora at the foot of the lake. The town of Warroad, Minnesota, is alleging that too much water is being allowed to escape through the dam, so that the level of the lake is reduced to a point which interferes with navigation in the harbor of the town, while sundry farmers on the American side assert that the dam maintains the level so high that their lands are impaired in value by flooding.

The duty of the international commission will be to take a wide survey of the situation so that local situations can be viewed in their proper relation to each other and the future interests on both sides of the boundary will be amply protected. It is expected that Canadian interests affected will communicate with the secretary of the Canadian section, L. J. Burpee.

DOUBLE MURDER PLOT HAS BEEN CONFESSED.

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 6—Execution of a double murder plot by which Mrs. C. C. Bailey conspired to rid herself of her husband, a wealthy lumber mill owner, and A.L. Watson aimed to do away with his wife, was revealed today by Sheriff Flourney, who says he has the written confession of both Watson and Mrs. Bailey who are confined in jail here.

According to the confessions narrated by Sheriff Flourney three months ago at Flannigan, Texas, Mrs. Bailey and Watson entered into a compact by which Watson was to poison his wife and Mrs. Bailey her husband. Watson did away with his wife without arising suspicion, but repeated efforts by Mrs. Bailey failed, because, she says, she did not know how to administer the dose.

Watson came to Louisiana and obtained work off Bailey. He urged Mrs. Bailey to hurry her part of the conspiracy and she tried but again failed. In the meantime Bailey became suspicious and quarrelled with his wife. Monday she left their home. Watson crept into the house during the night, carrying a heavy axe with which he says he murdered Bailey. "When I raised that axe," Watson is quoted as saying, "to strike that sleeping man, I said to myself: 'This will send your soul to hell.' That's where I belong and the sooner I'm hanged the better I will be satisfied.' Watson is 45 years old and has three daughters.
