clause inserted regarding the moving of pups from ranches that have not complied with the regulation set down by the constitution passed. Article 23 to be renumbered 24 and article 29 renumbered 25. This dealt with suspensions, definitions and standard of registrations and was passed. Article 24, rules of eligibility, first three clauses passed without contention. Fourth clause dealing with the retrospective of a suspended puppy the following year and which does not then conform to the standard for registration for adults, must be arrowed and killed before January 15th, except if a female which may be retained but must not be leased or sold. This was passed after much discussion.
Clause 7 dealing with contagious diseases or an epidemic in a ranch that the directors may, notwithstanding any rule in the constitution to the contrary, provide for the tattoo marking and inspection of puppies in the year subsequent to the year in which they were born, providing that the identity of the unmarked foxes has been maintained in a manner satisfactory to the association. Clauses from 1-10 in article 24 were passed, the last clause No. 11 to be deleted. Article 28, dealing with inspection and marking and registracussion and was finally passed. Article 20 on disqualifications was also passed. Article 30 on transfers, etc., was passed without discussion.

Article 31 on fees was fully discussed pro and con, alterations

SUMMERING AT NEW LONDON
-Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Mace, of Boston, Mass., accompanied by their friend, Mr. John M. Fletcher, have arrived at French River to spend the summer. They have a charming summer home, one of the finest in the Province at the entrance of the river, near New London Harbour. The view from the veranda of the Mace home is very beautiful, the winding river, with its red banks fringed with overhanging trees, stretching away to the village at its head and rising above it, the green hills and meadows, make a scene not soon forgotten. From the right, only a short distance away, comes the deep sound of the surf as the waters of the gulf break across New London Bay. Mr. Mace is treasurer of the Albert E. Mace Co., Inc., of Boston, Mass. With his wife and other members of their family they have spent several summers at New London. Two years ago they decided to build a home of their own, which is now complete, quite naturally, they are charmed with the Island, with its wonderful summer climate and scenery, but think there is no part of it that can excel New London.

good things provided by the genial that of the board of having the honor of a visit from Mr. Clark, who represented that great orga-

Mr. Clark is an interesting speak-pleasure to again visit the Island.

He made reference to Summerside as a delightful summer resort. Mr.
McL. Clark said he was delighted

DEATH DUE TO ACCIDENT

Body of Aged Lady, Missing Since Tuesday, Discovered At Crapaud.

Yesterday the Provincial Police reported that the body of Mrs. Benjamin McLeod, an elderly lady of Crapaud, was found floating in the river near her home.

She had been living alone since the death of her husband, and had been missing since Tuesday last.

Coroner Dr. Houston, after viewing the remains and investigating the circumstances, decided that the death was accidental and that an inquest was unnecessary.

RAILWAY
TEAM TRIMS
STARS 12-5

Fred McCabe's sensational one hand catch of Harold Gross' drive over second base in the fourth inning, the stellar batting of the C.
N. R. C's throughout the game and the fine mounding of Ayers of the Railway team, were some of the features of last evening's City League ball tilt, which by the way was won by the Recreation Club by a score of 12 to 5.

Big Gus MacDonald, hurling for the Stars, was no match for the railway batters, who were on last evening and easily deserved their win. Both teams scored three runs in the opening frame. Then Ayers settled down to business, holding the Star batters until the sixth, when they added two more. The C.
N. R. C's counted for five runs in the third and put the game on ice in the fifth by getting four added counters.

Record Entry in Eastern Canada
Tennis Play continues this afternoon in the Eastern Canada Tennis Tournament being played on the courts of the Rideau Lawn Tennis Club.
The entry list is the largest that has yet been received for this event and representative players from all parts of Eastern Canada and the United States are contesting for the various honors. Some 70 outsiders are taking part in the matches and among them are some of the game's finest exponents.

Two of the Canadian Davis Cup alternates are present in the persons of Gilbert Nunn and Walter Martin. Unfortunately these other stars, Willard Crocker, Dr. Jack Wright and Marcel Rainville, were unable to appear. Nunn and Martin won yesterday's matches from Shirley Woods and R. T. Griffith, of Ottawa, with ease. The more outstanding members of Ottawa tennis circles still remain in the running.

Leroy Rennie, veteran net player, who won the Canadian singles title in 1923, is one of the distinguished visitors. Another is F.
Roll, captain of the University of South Carolina team.

N. B. Tennis Champ
Riverside players won the 1932 women's golf championship of New Brunswick at the two-day tournament concluded this week at the Westfield Golf and Country Club links. Miss Audrey McLeod, Riverside, veteran of many title matches, retained the provincial championship she won at Moncton in 1930 and her clubmates carried off most of the prizes.

Babe Ruth now has 20 homers to his credit, and when he knocks his 22nd home run it will be his 600th in 17 years in the Major Leagues.

Pleks Walker
Benny Leonard is working out with Mickey Walker and he is confident that the latter will defeat Sharkey. Walker expects to weigh 168 pounds.

Schmeling in Good Again
It appears that Max Schmeling did something more than defend his world's championship at Cleveland on Friday night. He gained prestige in his own country. Previous to the Stribling bout he did not receive his just dues in Germany.

After the fiasco at New York last year when Schmeling won by a foul from Jack Sharkey, most of the sports editors frankly stated their countryman was no world's champion, thus starting a feud, which continued until the night of July 3. Now his most hostile critics admit that he is a worthy champion.

The victories of Schmeling at Cleveland and Fraulein Cilli Aussem in the Wimbledon tennis championships, has put Germany in the festive mood.

Miss England Fastest of Them All At Garone, Italy, on Saturday, Kay Don, British sportsman, drove his speedboat, the Nova Scotia, at a rate of 109.65 miles an hour over a measured course, but mis-ting a possible new world's record when motor trouble prevented him from making the run in the other direction, as demanded by official requirements.

Don set the present world's speed boat record at 103.49 miles an hour in Argentina in April. Gar Wood of Detroit has tried repeatedly to establish a new mark only to meet with failure. The late Major Segrave was killed while driving Miss England, the speedboat overturning while in full flight.

Twenty Grand
Only two horses started against Twenty Grand for the Dwyer stakes at $10,000 at New York Saturday. They were not regarded as having any chance of winning, and Twenty Grand was a 1 to 50 favorite. He was under triple wrap all the way, but ran the 1 1-4 miles in 2:34 2-5. Blenheim, who was second, won $2,500, and $1,500 went to the third horse, Barometer.

Tunney Speaks
Gene Tunney says: "Stribling lost his fight because of nervousness. He looked to me as though he hadn't slept for three days before he went into the ring. His nervousness, evidently caused the Insomnia. Stribling knew in the early rounds, I think, that he was going to be beaten. Max should have won in the early part of the fight."

Little Pup Ready
The Pup, 2:18 1-4, loved by all and admired by thousands, and aptly nicknamed the "Half Pint" troter of P. E. Island, is ready for the "word" at Northam next Wednesday. This game little troter, now under the wings of the "Two Maces" is going true to form these days, and only last Tuesday caught the quarter in 32 1-2 seconds. Much it is expected from the Pup when he stars on the Milligan and Morrison new oval.
