

Interested Visitor At Swine Judging

An interested looker-on at Tuesday's judging of the York-shire swine was Miss Amelia Peabody of Dover, Mass., who is attending the exhibition for the express purpose of securing swine breeding stock for her farm.

In Memoriam

FELIX PINEAU

At North Rustico the angel of death summoned to its eternal rest the soul of Felix Pineau. The late Mr. Pineau had been suffering for some time. He had twice entered the Charlottetown Hospital, but despite all efforts to prolong his life, God called him on July 17th, 1948, at the age of 72 years.

The deceased was of a quiet disposition, industrious and greatly devoted to his family. He was also a faithful member of his church and his greatest consolation was to have given to it one of his sons. He was consoled during his illness by frequent visits from his beloved pastor, his son and other members of the clergy. He received the last rites of the Catholic Church and in his dying moments a minister of God was standing by his bedside.

He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing widow (by second marriage) two sons and one daughter: Cornelius of North Rustico, Rev. Wilfred Pineau of St. Dunstan's University and Mrs. Benoit Pineau (Florence) of North Rustico. Also the following brothers and sisters: James, George Joseph and Isidore in the United States; Peter and Lemuel in Charlottetown. Mrs. Mary Jane Doucette and Mrs. George Shephard (Sarah) also in Charlottetown and Mrs. Fiedre Arsenault (Eugenie) in Egmont Bay.

The funeral was held on July 19th in Stella Maris Church. Rev. Eric Roblin officiated, assisted by Rev. Clarence Pille as deacon and Rev. John Beale as sub-deacon. Rev. William Simpson acted as master of ceremonies. The following clerics were present: His Excellency Bishop Boyle, Rt. Rev. J. V. McKenna, Rev. P. McMahon, Rev. N. Frazier, Rev. D. Eaton, Rev. B. MacDonald, Rev. R. Ellsworth, Rev. J. W. McCordie, Rev. W. Pineau, Rev. Charles Gallant and Rev. Emmanuel Richard.

The bereaved family wish to express gratitude to all who have contributed in any way to alleviate the sorrow caused by the death of a beloved father and brother. It is the hope that all who know him will pray for the repose of his soul.

LIGHT SCREENS PROTECT

For greater privacy - light screens. It has been found that screening on porch or window is more difficult to see through from without if it is painted white or aluminum on the outside, while a usual black color is left on the inside.

The color trick works well in daylight conditions. It cannot be effective at night, when the room behind the screen is brightly lighted and the night outside is dark.

PREDICT MARGARINE

Council recalls that there were no butter shortages until war put controls on milk supply. If those pre-war conditions returned, there would be plenty of butter. If they didn't, the shortage would have to be reconsidered.

The Council said official statistics today showed record butter sales of 28,300,000 pounds in July, more than 2,250,000 higher than in July, 1947, and indicated the possibility that part of this was caused by hoarding.

At the same time, its estimate to the Cabinet of stocks available Aug. 1 was high by 1,300,000 pounds. It had estimated that stocks were down 13,000,000 pounds from this time last year; actually they were down by 14,300,000.

If margarine was legalized, qualified sources estimated, shortening manufacturers could and would swing into production swiftly, even though it might mean a shortage of shortening.

The prospect that New Zealand butter might solve the problem was nipped by an official who said surplus New Zealand stocks are under contract to Britain.

budget and is about 11 times the Federal deficit for the Northwest Territories this fiscal year.

Radar stations at strategic intervals across the vast Arctic wastelands would, in the opinion of experts, greatly cut down the danger of any enemy aircraft breaking through to the metropolitan areas of North America. Without them, the enemy chances would be bound upwards correspondingly.

From a defence standpoint, a radar network would be the most important northern development since the war. Mr. Claxton, recently listing the top activities up there, mentioned weather stations, the northwest and Alaska Highway systems, an army telecommunication system through the Northwest Territories, R. C. A. F. aerial photography for maps, loran stations used as navigational aids, and the joint services winter experimental base at Churchill.

Joint U. S.-Canadian co-operation in the north already has its origin in the Churchill base, the weather stations and other activities.

Cattle Judges Commend Entries

The Jersey cattle shown at the Provincial Exhibition yesterday were outstanding in quality and constituted one of the finest live stock exhibits that Exhibition has ever had in the ring, according to Mr. Hume Grisdale, noted Jersey breeder of Iroquois, Ont.

Mr. Grisdale, who judged yesterday's exhibit of Jersey, said the cattle were of uniformly high quality and a credit to the Province which had produced them. He was very reluctant to offer any criticism of those Island Jersey breeders who had treated him so hospitably during his brief visit to the Province. However, he thought that for their own benefit and for the benefit of the Exhibition generally all live stock exhibitors should in the future endeavour to have their classes in the ring as promptly as possible. Delays such as were experienced yesterday, owing to long intervals between the exit of one class and the entrance of another, resulted in interested farmers and other spectators leaving the show ring.

Mr. Walter Dickie of Truro, N. S., judge of the Holsteins, said the specimens of this popular cattle breed shown in the ring yesterday were of good quality but down compared to the number shown last year.

Mr. Joseph Easton of Unionville, Ont., who judged the Hereford and Angus breeds on last opening day, also judged the Shorthorns yesterday. Mr. Easton said the high quality of the Shorthorns shown had surprised him. It was evident, Mr. Easton said, that the quality of the Shorthorn cattle on the Island was rapidly improving and had now reached that point which could be called a high standard.
