—WEDDING BELLS—A beautiful ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Pate, O'Leary the occasion being the wedding of their daughter Annie M., to Mr. Charles Dennis, son of Mr. Thos. Dennis, Union Vale. Miss Irene McPhee of Coleman attended the bride, while Mr. Peter Pate did the duties of best man. After a sumptuous repast the guests enjoyed music and dancing. The bride was the recipient of many and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dennis will reside at Union Vale. Congratulations.

—CONCERT.—A delightful concert was held in the O'Leary Hall on Sept 1st and although the weather was anything but pleasant a large number of people were in attendance. On account of the heavy rain some of the performers did not arrive but the play was well carried out. The scenes and setting of the stage were done by Mrs. John J. MacCoubrey and are deserving of much credit. It is hardly believable that such wonderful work could be accomplished by one of our island artists, Mrs. MacCoubrey, shows great talent and her work was much appreciated. The program was as follows Monologue, "The Holy City," Miss Helen Howatt, Reading, "A Starless Crown," Miss Grace Wells, Vocal Solo, Mrs. Lorn Howatt, Part II.—Dialogue, "The First Quarrel," Misses Clark and Gallant, encored, Reading, selected, Mrs. W. Curtis, Dolly Sullivan, humorous, Mrs. A. B. Martin, encored, Reading, selected, Mrs. W. Curtis, encored, Fairy Fire Dance, Mrs. A. B. Martin, encored, Part III.—An Indian Dialogue, "The Last of the Tribe of Norridgewocks," Mrs. Curtis and Mr. A. J. Matheson, Solo, selected, Part IV.—"Shadow Time" Miss Helen Howatt, Tableau, "Peace" Miss Grace Wells, encored, Solo, "Wonderful Peace," Marion Ingles, God Save the King.

PRESENTATION AT CARDIGAN

Mr. L. H. Douglas, formerly station agent at Cardigan, is now in charge of the station at George town, his family having removed to that town this week.

Last week Mr. Douglas was presented by a number of the residents of Cardigan, with a farewell address and a purse of money. The presentation took place at the Presbyterian Manse.

The following address was read to Mr. Douglas. To Mr. L. H. Douglas and family. Dear Sir.—We came together here this evening to express our regret that events have led up to your departure from our midst. We will greatly miss you, and Mrs. Douglas from our social activities, but hope that you can often visit us, and perhaps keep a warm spot in your hearts for Cardigan, and its associations.

We are aware, that you always had a great liking for Georgetown, and for the good things of that quaint old town, and as you must leave us, we are glad that our loss will be Georgetown's gain.

We regret your departure, but hope the change will be pleasant for yourself and family. In conclusion, we ask you to accept this purse, as an expression of good will, and to you, Mrs. Douglas, and family we can but say good-bye.

Mr. Douglas, made a fitting reply warmly thanking the kind people of Cardigan for their gift, and their expressions of regard and good will.

Three-year-old Ralph had fallen and hurt his knee, and as he sat in his little chair rubbing the injured part he suddenly looked up and said: "Mamma, did God make me?"

"Yes, dear," replied his mother. "Well, then," continued the youthful philosopher, "if he's got any pieces left I wish he'd mend my knee."

Every Surface Improves Under the O-Cedar Treatment

From hall to attic—everywhere there is a cleaning and polishing demand which O-Cedar Polish alone can fulfill.

For O-Cedar cleans as it polishes—cleans thoroughly and polishes brilliantly.

A polish that has the endorsement of thousands of satisfied users; who, with its help, keep their motor cars and homes clean and shining.

The O-Cedar way of polishing is as easy as it is effective. Just a simple matter of wetting a cloth, putting a few drops of O-Cedar on it, and lightly rubbing over the surface. All grime is removed by the soft lather thus formed; you then polish briskly with a dry cloth.

You are rewarded by a brilliant lustre, with all the beauty of the surface revealed. This bright reflecting finish will not readily collect dust—any dust may be easily removed with an O-Cedar duster, or a cloth treated with O-Cedar Polish.

O-Cedar Polish 25c. and 50c. a bottle; $1.25, $2.00 and $3.00 a can.

O-Cedar Polish Mop, without handle, $1.50. The handle, 54 inches long, is 25c. extra.

Both Polish and Mop at your Hardware or Grocery Shop.
