DESABLE SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—A very successful examination was held at DeSable on June 29th, a fair number of ratepayers and visitors being present. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Miss Murchison assisted by Miss Dunsford, teacher at South Melville and showed by their intelligent answers that the teachers' work was not in vain. After the examining was over a programme consisting of songs, readings, recitations etc., was carried out, which certainly was a credit to the pupils and teachers. At the close a very helpful and interesting address was given by the Rev. James MacDougall, speeches were also made by Mr. Neil Shaw and Hector MacKay. The examination was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

TEACHER REMEMBERED.—Miss Lucy Blanchard, Rustico, who for the past year taught school at New Acadia, has returned to her home, where she will spend her vacation. Before leaving school her pupils took her by surprise and read her an address, and presented her with a Rattan Chair as a souvenir and token of the high esteem in which she is held by them. Following is the address:—Dear teacher,—It was with deep regret that we learned you were about to sever the ties of friendship which we your scholars of New Acadia hold so dear. During the past year while teaching and daily guiding our feet through the dark and dreary paths of education and virtue you have endeavored yourself to us all; so much so that we could not let this occasion pass without expressing the very great sorrow in our hearts at the thought of losing so kind and dear a teacher and friend. But our loss will be the gain of others. Therefore, rest assured that although called away to other fields of labor those fond recollections of childhood days passed in our school, those pious and virtuous words and kind expressions so often uttered will always be dearly prized by us all. Therefore we all join in wishing you good-by and success in your endeavors. Accept this token, not for its intrinsic value, but as a mark of respect and love from your dear scholars.

COMRADES' TRIBUTE TO FALLEN SOLDIER

Mrs. E. Chisholm, of Uigg, has received the following letters with respect to her son, Sergt. M. Chisholm, who was killed in action: France, May 9, 1917

Dear Mrs. Chisholm,— I am writing to extend to you the sympathy of myself, officers, N. C. O's and men of "B" Coy, 29th Canadians, in the great blow you have received by the death of Sgt. Chisholm, your son.

"Mike" as the boys called him was one of the finest men I have ever seen and as a soldier and a N. C. O. he was excellent. Nothing was ever too much trouble, his men was his one aim.

When he was killed he was getting his men fixed up to go ahead for work, and he was hit with a shell and was killed at once—poor Mike never knew what hit him. We buried him on the field of battle and erected a nice little cross to mark his grave.

The night he was killed—we were a sorry bunch for we had been together so long. His platoon took it very badly, for at the same time—Mike's pal—was seriously wounded and died a short time after Mike—but was conscious and he only spoke of Mike. That your son was so loved, admired and respected by all of us and that he did such excellent work will I am sure help you to bear the sad loss.

If there is anything I can do for you out here or if you need any more information I shall be only too pleased to do it for you.

Once more extending our heartfelt sympathy and hoping this will find you in the best of health we are.

The officers, N. C. O's and men of B. Coy 29th Canadians per T. ALDWORTH, Lieut.

P. S. Your son won a medal and I have just received it, 'twas won at Bayonet fighting. This will be registered and forwarded to you.

Active Service, May 10, 1917

Madam.—May we, on behalf of the N. C. O's of B. Coy offer you our most sincere condolences on the loss of your son, Sergt. M. Chisholm. We were in the trenches, in rather a bad place and just as dusk was falling, an enemy shell struck Mike and another Sergeant who was with him.

Death was instantaneous and he would have no time to feel pain. We buried him near the place he fell and put up a cross to mark the spot. The other Sergeant died on the way to the dressing station.

I can't express to you what a great blow it was to us all and the deep and sincere grief we feel at the loss of your son. To all of us he was a good comrade and friend. The men in his platoon looked up to him with respect and admiration and his officers regarded him as the best Sergeant in the company.

You can well be proud of him and honor his memory. He died doing his duty in a cause he considered just, fighting against a ruthless tyranny and oppression that would set back the civilization of the world. He died here for the cause of freedom, and we carry with us the memory of a man and a gentleman who will never be forgotten as long as this battalion has any of its present members left. May he rest in peace.

Again assuring you that in this great bereavement, that has come, we grieve with you and that you have our deepest sympathy, we remain, Yours very truly,
