FRIENDS in this city will be sorry to hear that Rufus Whittle, late of the P. E. Island Telephone Company's employ is now seriously ill at Calgary and little hope is entertained for his recovery. An islander writing from that town says: I went up to see him and found him nearly dead. He has just returned from a trip to California and consumption has such a hold upon him that his demise is not unexpected at any time. This morning when I visited him he could hardly speak. During the day he was removed to the hospital where he lies at the point of death. The islanders are doing everything possible for him.

BLAUD'S PILLS are the best form of iron for internal use. They are readily assimilated and give quick results in toning up the blood. His many friends will learn with great pleasure that William McMillan, formerly of The Guardian staff has been successful in the recent matriculation examinations at McGill in winning a $300 exhibition tenable for one year at that institution. Mr. McMillan, while Vice Principal of Montague School, in Prince of Wales College and associated with this journal has proved himself to be a more than ordinarily brilliant young man and in his latest success is deserving of the highest credit.

Last evening a delegation from the choir of the Central Methodist Church, called at the residence of Paul Lee, Union Street, and presented him with an address, and a beautiful cut-glass water pitcher, the occasion being the thirtieth anniversary of Mr. Lee's marriage. The presentation was made by Mr. Geo. Ackman, on behalf of the choir, about twenty-five of the members of which were present. Mr. Lee was taken completely by surprise. He responded briefly in a few suitable words.—Moncton Transcript. (Mr. Lee is well known in this province. He is a brother to Jacob Lee, Victoria.)

The annual convention of the Christian Associations of P. E. I. commenced Friday morning at New Glasgow. Rev. William Murray, East Point, preached an eloquent sermon to a large audience. Saturday morning Rev. A. N. Simpson heartily welcomed the delegates. The Sunday services were conducted by Elder D. Crawford, Revs. W. R. Motley, Montague, O. B. Emery, W. H. Stevenson, New Glasgow, and R. W. Stevenson, Charlottetown in the morning and afternoon and Rev. A. N. Simpson and Rev. R. Gebbie, Deer Island, N. E., in the evening. Monday morning the social meeting was held by George Cannon, Summerside and the regular business meeting presided over by Rev. R. W. Stevenson followed. Rev. R. W. Stevenson was re-elected Moderator. Rev. A. N. Simpson was elected Vice Moderator, and J. H. Williams was re-elected Secretary. In the afternoon a young people's meeting presided over by Rev. R. W. Stevenson was held. The program included a paper on Sunday School work by Miss E. B. Connors, Summerside, solo by Mrs. Herbert Toombs, a paper on Woman's Work in the Church by Mrs. George Cannon and a duet by Miss Gertrude Stevenson and Leonard McKay, Charlottetown. At the evening meeting Rev. W. R. Motley, preached to a crowded house after which the Association closed. Next year's meeting will be in Montague.

Mrs. Everett MacKendrick, of Campbellton, P. E. I., is visiting friends in the city. Some fine stall fed cattle passed through Moncton on Saturday night from P. E. Island for the St. John market. Hon. J. W. Richards, M. P. P. for West Prince, P. E. I., was in the city yesterday. He returned home via the C. P. R. and S. S. Northumberland in the afternoon. Mr. Buchanan, of Miramichi, crossed from P. E. I. on Saturday with some fine horses for the lumber woods. One big bay horse four years old cost $300 on the Island.—Moncton Transcript.

Another old citizen of North River has passed within the veil. On Friday July 3rd Robert Sanderson was gathered to his fathers, at the ripe age of eighty three years. Mr. Sanderson was born at St. Peter's Bay, his father the late Captain Sanderson, being a native of Scotland. He leaves a widow some twelve years younger than himself and six children. Two sons and four daughters all are married, and all have families. He has resided at North River for about 45 years. He had a large farm finely equipped, including one of the best apple orchards on the Island. His death was caused by cancer, which gradually developed for eighteen months. For the past few months he has suffered intense pain. But all his sufferings were endured uncomplainingly, and with perfect resignation by the Divine will. During his illness he was frequently visited by Rev. A. F. Browne and also by other clergymen. His faith in his Redeemer never wavered but grew stronger and brighter until the very last. His departure being the Christian's final victory over the last enemy. In the absence of Mr. Browne, his very largely attended funeral was conducted by Rev. D. B. McLeod.
