RETURN FROM ROYAL

Among the Live Stock returning this week from the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto was an exhibit from the herd of A. MacRae and Sons, Fairview Farm, Charlottetown. Although not winning any of the top awards this herd made a very creditable showing, the majority of their entries being money winners in the keenest of competition. The Avshire exhibit at this year's Royal was exceptionally good. In numbers they exceeded that of any other dairy breed having a total of 274 animals. One of the sales made at the Royal from Fairview Farm was the 2 year old Leifer Fairview Jeanie, 19254 which was one of a group of four head selected for the Department of Agriculture of Alberta to be used for demonstration purposes in connection with the school of Agriculture, J. L. Stansell are Son of Stratfordville, Ontario got a bull calf out of Fairview Rose. This cow has been the champion female at the last three fairs at Amherst, N. S. and has a three year old record of 12500 lb. milk and 550 lbs. butter fat.

The WEEK at S. D. U.

The Rector, the Very Rev. J. A. Murphy, D. D., is confined to the Charlottetown Hospital, where he is receiving treatment.

Wednesday was the Feast of St. Andrew, and a half holiday at St. Dunstan's. November 30th. is a traditional red-letter day at the institution, which commemorates not only St. Andrew, but also St. Andrew's College, the precursor of the present school. The older college was founded in 1831 by Bishop McEachern at St. Andrews, and continued its work for 14 years. In 1855 the Diocesan College was transferred to the site where it now stands, and was re-named St. Dunstan's College in honour of the Patron Saint of the Diocese. The Christmas number of "Red and White" is rapidly nearing completion under the direction of Mr. S. E. Trainor, editor-in-chief. The magazine, which is published quarterly, will be on sale December 20th.

The first hockey practice of the season was held in the Forum on Thursday afternoon. Revd. A. O. Murphy has been elected coach of the team and Plus Murrayman the captain. Several newcomers have reported for practice. Amongst them Vince Grant, who was one of the outstanding players on last year's Junior Abbots. Captain Murrayman has made no comment regarding the prospects of the team in intercollegiate circles other than that the Red and White puck-chasers will keep up the good name made by the former team. We should not be at all surprised to see them go a long way towards the Maritime championship.

Wednesday night, the basketball team played its first exhibition game with Prince of Wales. Trailing 7-12 at the end of the first half, the Saints came back strong in the second period, to finish with a 22-all tie.

Service in the Marshfield Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon, December 4th, at 3 o'clock. L-615-12-3-11.

Police Court - The taking of evidence in the prohibition cases based on the activities of the Montreal detective, "Count" Antoine Houben was completed yesterday at the city police court. The cases were all adjourned one week for argument.

Annual Tea and Sale - Despite the storm there was a good attendance at Zion Church Bazaar and Supper held Thursday evening. The ladies of the congregation worthily upheld their high reputation by providing an excellent meal. The bazaar was well stocked with useful articles, and the proceeds of the event, on the whole, were very satisfactory.

Return from Royal - Among the Live Stock returning this week from the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto was an exhibit from the herd of A. MacRae and Sons, Fairview Farm, Charlottetown. Although not winning any of the top awards this herd made a very creditable showing, the majority of their entries being money winners in the keenest of competition.
