(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian) WEDDING BELLS.—St. John's Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on the 6 inst. when Miss Annie Gillan and Mr. John Trainor were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride looked charming, attired in a beautiful dress of blue chiffon over blue satin, with bridal veil, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her sister Miss Jennie Gillan of Boston while the groom was ably supported by his brother Alphonus Trainor. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the groom's aunt Mrs. Sarah Brady, Solomon St. Attleboro, where a reception was held. Guests were present from Boston, Providence and Attleboro. After dinner a most enjoyable evening was spent in music and singing, after which the couple left for New York. On their return they will reside on Falmouth Street. Mr. and Mrs. Trainor were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. The above mentioned Mr. John Trainor is a son of Mr. Thomas Trainor of St. Joseph's Parish, Morell, and Mrs. Trainor a daughter of the late Mr. Bernard Gillan of St. Teresas.

PRINCESS INDIRA, NOW AT MARSEILLES, HOPES YET TO WED

MARSEILLES, May 20.—Princess Indira, the beautiful daughter of the reigning Gaekwar of Baroda, who has arrived here with her parents, made the surprising announcement that she did not jilt her fiance, Prince Jendra of Cochoh Behra, virtually on their wedding eve and fled to Europe. She declared that the marriage was stopped at the eleventh hour by her parents. The Princess said: It is supposed to be a question of caste, but there are other reasons why my parents withdrew their approval of my marriage, all of which I don't think strong enough to put a barrier between us. The Prince and I are still engaged and hope to marry some day.
