

Leafs Lose; Bruins Win 3-2 In Overtime

Detroit Takes Edge In Series, Whipping Toronto 4-2 In Third Encounter

TORONTO, March 25 (CP)—Detroit Red Wings rolled off the heavy artillery tonight to defeat Toronto Maple Leafs 4-2 and take a 2-1 lead in their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semifinal series.

A crowd of 13,382 watched the National Hockey League champions steal a 3-0 lead in the first period, add a fourth goal midway through the third period and then stall off the challenging Leafs through the final 10 minutes of action, featured by two major penalties and a 10-minute misconduct to defenseman Jack Stewart of Detroit.

There was little to enthuse over in the first two periods. Red Wings who won the first game of the series at Detroit Sunday 4-2 only to lose the second in their own rink, 1-2, and 181 seconds of overtime, held sway throughout the early chapters.

Calley Simon opened the scoring at 1:03 of the first period on a play set up by veteran Syd Howe and Carl Liscombe made it 2-0 eight minutes later by driving a 30-foot shot past Walter (Turk) Broda in the Toronto net. Liscombe also participated in the next Detroit goal, feeding a pass-out to Sid Abel.

The 3-0 lead stood up through a dull second period and into the early minutes of the third, when Liscombe picked up his first scoring point, passing to Eddie Wares for the fourth Detroit goal.

Up to this time Leafs had few scoring opportunities, but a flare-up between Jack Stewart and Reg Hamilton seemed to give them the extra lift they needed. Stewart and Hamilton came to blows in the Toronto zone and battled away for almost a minute.

When the pair moved to the penalty box to serve major sentences, Leafs came to life. Norman (Bud) Poole, slapped a loose puck behind Johnny Mowers on a play with linemates Gaye Stewart and Jack McLean to reduce the deficit to 1-2. Taylor counted 1-1. Taylor counted 1-1. Taylor counted 1-1.

SUMMARY

- First Period
1. Detroit, Simon (Howe, Bruneteau) 11:04.
 2. Detroit, Liscombe 9:21.
 3. Detroit, Abel (Liscombe) 17:30.
- Second Period
- Scoring: None.
Penalties—None.
- Third Period
4. Detroit, Wares (Liscombe) 9:56.
 5. Toronto, Poole (G. Stewart, McLean) 14:41.

The following is the final team standing:—

The 'Famous Names' Quilt Raising Money For Seamen

During the months of April and May, the tickets for the "Famous Names" Quilt will be on sale in Charlottetown.

Mrs. Bishop, wife of Air Marshal W. A. Bishop, of the "Famous Names" Quilt, has the idea of this autographed quilt on which appear the names of many famous people such as Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Mackenzie King, Carole Lombard, etc. The background of the quilt is white and these names are embroidered in red and blue.

The proceeds from the sale of these tickets will be used for comforts to airmen at home and abroad in the form of the Good Shepherd with a percentage remaining in each province. The percentage in Charlottetown will be fully donated to Merchant Seamen.

In addition to the money raised

Monthly Meeting Canadian Legion

The regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion was held last evening and was largely attended.

The President, Mr. J. F. Leighton, M.M., called the meeting to order and the usual one minute silence was observed. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and adopted.

The President brought up the matter of the Aircraft Detection Corps and asked for volunteers, as there was need for some additional men. The Secretary, Mr. Brown, was requested to write for more copies of the Observer.

Dr. J. A. Clark gave an interesting report on the depth charges dropped from the plane over Charlottetown some time ago.

The meeting voted the sum of one hundred dollars to the Red Cross.

The next order of business dealt with the advance in the price of the Legionary magazine and it was decided that the yearly dues be increased fifty cents. Some of the comrades present suggested that the officials of this magazine might be able to procure other advertisements.

Mr. James Harris reporting for the House Committee said that his committee had jointly with the Canteen Committee and Ladies Auxiliary and submitted an estimate on the cleaning of the Home.

It was also decided that the front of the building would receive a coat of paint.

Mr. James MacKenna reporting for the sick and visiting committee said that through the Charlottetown Detachment of the Red Cross Corp under Mrs. E. M. Baginall, 300 patients had been visited during the month.

Comrade Price of the Kentville Branch was a visitor and spoke briefly and informed the meeting that he was a member of the National Artillery Units in the last war.

Egg And Poultry Market Report

The following Egg & Poultry Market Report is supplied by Mr. F. G. Ward, Senior Poultry Products Inspector with the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Charlottetown.

Egg prices are being reduced to export contract levels. Production being heavy, surplus over Maritime and Newfoundland requirements are accumulating. Prices show quite a variation depending upon where the eggs are to be shipped. Country grading stations are reducing their prices although it will be probably weeks or so before all stations show a uniform set of prices.

Ungraded eggs delivered Charlottetown:—

Grade A Large	26-33
Grade A Medium	26-30
Grade A Pullet & B	23-25
Grade C	18-22

Graded shipments delivered Charlottetown:—

Grade A Large	33 1-2-5
Grade A Medium	31-3
Grade A Pullet & B	28-5
Grade C	23-5

Retailers are still paying specialized producers for cartoned eggs:—

Grade A Large	37
Grade A Medium	35
Grade A Pullet	32

with the possibility of a reduction later this week.

On the sale of tickets, the owner of each signature appearing on the quilt contributed sums up to $100.00 for this privilege.

Photographs of the quilt will be on view in local stores.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd pieced together the quilt, mounting the squares on fine blue cotton broadcloth and stitching a border in a quilted design of the crowned wings of a pilot's badge.

Notes From Big League Training Camps

TONIGHT at the Forum one of the outstanding attractions takes the form of the 3rd annual Ice Follies will be staged under the direction of Wallace Scantlebury.

This year's show promises to be even better than the ones that preceded it. All season long the "group under" Wallace's direction have been practicing faithfully and regularly and Scantlebury feels that tonight's performance will top anything of its kind ever to be presented here by local talent.

In the list of point getters during the ice racing season published last Monday the name of Peter Reeper was inadvertently omitted and we hasten to make the correction. Peter garnered 91 points during the meets he took part in and was always a strong factor in every race.

The Reeper horse is owned by Harold Oudmore of Brackley. At the start of the season he was racing on the trot at which gait he won several races. Then he was shifted to the pace and proved a consistent good performer. Peter Reeper is getting well up in years but still retains a lot of the speed that marked him as a great performer in his prime.

Skeptical boxing experts were gathered at Convention Hall, Philadelphia recently to write regretful comparisons between the Henry Armstrong of today and the Armstrong that was. But the experts had to toss aside their projected fear-jerking themes and marvel in droppings at the depth charges dropped from the plane over Charlottetown some time ago.

The meeting voted the sum of one hundred dollars to the Red Cross.

The next order of business dealt with the advance in the price of the Legionary magazine and it was decided that the yearly dues be increased fifty cents. Some of the comrades present suggested that the officials of this magazine might be able to procure other advertisements.

Mr. Fred McWade inquired from the President if there had been a meeting of the Sea Cadets. The members present could not throw any light on the subject and the Secretary was asked to look up the minutes of other meetings and report his findings.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned with the National Anthem.

Boston Team Again Comes From Behind To Take 3-0 Series Lead Over Canucks

MONTREAL, March 25 (CP)—Harvey Jackson shot Boston Bruins into a 3-2 victory over Montreal Canadiens in the third game of a best-of-seven National League hockey play-off series tonight when he picked up his own rebound and sent a smashing shot into the Montreal goal after three minutes and 20 seconds of overtime. The result gave the Bruins a 3-0 lead in the best-of-seven semi-final series for the Stanley Cup.

Jackson's goal came as a surprise to the Canucks, as Flash Hollet was in the penalty box at the time and Canadiens were keeping up a heavy pressure around the Bruins' goal. Jackson seized a loose puck at centre ice and worked in on Paul Bibeault for his shot. Bibeault cleared the puck right back to Jackson who slammed the puck into an open corner of the cage.

The Canadiens had held a 2-1 lead until 52 seconds were left in regular time. A hard shot by Dit Clapper from a scramble settled the Canucks hope for Bibeault missed the shot and overtime was forced.

Before that, Elmer Lach had given Montreal a 1-0 lead in the first period when he clipped a pass from Toe Blake into the Boston cage.

In the second frame Gordie Drillon drove a hard shot from 20 feet out to whip the puck past Brinkley for the second goal, with Buddy O'Connor earning an assist. Three minutes later Herb Cain scored an easy one on Bibeault when he raced around the Montreal goal to pick up a pass fed by Hollet and Cowley. Attendance was 12,346, the largest crowd in the Forum this year.

SUMMARY

First Period

1. Montreal, Lach (Blake, Benoit) 13:44.
- Penalties—McMahon, Gallinger, Crawford.

Second Period

2. Montreal, Drillon (O'Connor) 5:14.
3. Boston, Cain (Hollet, Cowley) 8:44.

Penalties—Hiller, Guidolin, Diere, Portland.

Third Period

4. Boston, Clapper (Cowley, Holl) 19:08.
- Penalties—H. Jackson, Lach, Gettiffe.

Overtime

5. Boston, H. Jackson 3:20.
- Penalty—Hollet.

New Baseball Feud May Be Alive

FRENCH LICK, Ind., March 25 (AP)—A new baseball feud may have been born. Word reached the Chicago National League training camp here yesterday that Leo Durocher, manager of Brooklyn Dodgers, had inquired at his Bear Mountain, N.Y., retreat:—

"What are the Cubs going to do that brought a prompt retort from Jimmy Wilson, Cubs manager.

"So Durocher says we haven't got any pitchers, huh?" Jimmy Wilson retorted. "Well, it seems to me that Leo has got enough to worry about with the Dodgers without fretting about our pitchers. I'm satisfied with 'em."

Bobby Cruickshank Winner Of Golf Open

CAIRO, Ill.—Outfielder Harry Walker and manager Billy Southworth of St. Louis Cardinals came to terms over the telephone yesterday, splitting the difference in salary demands. Stan Musial also apparently came to terms, as when he left Pittsburgh for the Cardinals last night he said he was "about ready to sign."

FRENCH LICK, Ind.—Chicago White Sox have had only one batting drill, but manager Jimmy Dykes almost today enthused he named the first three men in the batting order—Rockie outfielder Thurman Tucker, who batted 345 for Fort Worth, followed by outfielder Wally Moses and second baseman Don Dolloway.

HERSHBY, Pa.—After watching Babe Dahlgren in his first work-out around first base, manager Bucky Harris of the Phils said: "I've seen Babe do enough to know he was pretty good, but after today I really begin to appreciate him."

U.S. Senate Lifts Ceiling On Debt

WASHINGTON, March 25 (AP)—The senate passed and sent to the White House legislation lifting the ceiling on the national debt to $210,000,000,000 and repealing President Roosevelt's order limiting salaries to $25,000 after taxes.

Final legislative action came on adoption of a conference report accepting the senate's own version of the repealer. The measure was overwhelmingly passed by the House of Representatives.

Big Hurler Working Out With Indians

LAFAYETTE, Ind., March 25 (AP)—Coach Burt Shotton, known affectionately among the Cleveland Indians as "Burt the Squirt," called out to the pitcher's mound: "Okay, big Mike, that's enough for today."

Manager Lou Boudreau, struggling for a looping fly ball, made the catch and shouted: "Twice around the field, Mike, and then you can go in."

Big Mike Naymick, all 6 feet 8 inches of him, steamed around the Purdue University baseball park in his 14-inch, size 17 shoes and then headed for the field house.

"I'm really in a spot," Naymick said. "I ordered three pairs of specially-built baseball shoes. They don't know whether they can fill the bill. I've only got this pair and another torn-up pair down at Baltimore, and I may have to make them last."

The biggest man in baseball—until the Washington Senators came up with seven-foot Dick Arena, also a pitcher—Naymick thinks that a bad wrist which impeded his speed ball delivery the last two years at Indianapolis, Wilkes-Barre and Baltimore, is all right now. Manager Boudreau lists him as one of the rookies who may land a regular job with Jim Bagby, Al Milnar, Mel Harder, Vern Kennedy, Al Smith and Hubby Dean, the Cleveland Indians ace.

Armstrong Preparing For Beau Jack

NEW YORK, March 25 (AP)—Henry Armstrong hit town today and immediately set at rest any talk that he hit the comeback trail because he was broke.

"I came back because I was prepared to start training for his April 2 bout with Beau (the jumping) Jack—a party, incidentally, which figures to draw a mere $10,000 to Madison Square Garden.

"I was burned up when all the so-called wise guys said I was all washed up and that if I ever got into the ring again it would be at the risk of life and limb," he said. "Now, it's my life and my limb, and I haven't done bad, either, have I?"
