HALLOWEEN PARTY—The Young People's Society of Trinity United Church held a most enjoyable Halloween party on Wednesday in Epworth hall. Miss Margaret Pillman led the games. A varied program of Halloween songs and readings were much appreciated. A sumptuous lunch was served by the young ladies at the close.—S.

ISLANDER WEDDED IN SASKATCHEWAN—A quiet wedding took place in the United Church Manse, Moosemin, on Thursday, Oct. 20, 1938, at 1 p. m., when Mrs. Phemia Belle Laird, of New Glasgow, Prince Edward Island, was united in holy matrimony to Arthur Bruce Moffatt of Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. W. E. Houston and Miss Ruth Houston were witnesses and Rev. C. H. Whitmore officiated.

FULL SILVERS SELL AT $112 TOP—Full silvers met fairly active buying interest on Wednesday at the sale conducted by the New York Auction Company. The top price on these pellets was $112.50, which was regarded as a good price in view of the slowness in the industry at this time. Three-quarter silvers sold up to $46, or about in line with open market prices. At the morning session raccoons were offered, but these skins were neglected.

LAD TO REST—Funeral of Mrs. Charles A. Stevenson was held from her late residence at New Glasgow Wed. Oct. 26, Mrs. Stevenson died Oct. 23, aged 66, following a short illness. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. MacLeod of New Glasgow. Rev. Mr. MacLeod was assisted by Rev. George Tilley of Cavendish and Rev. Mr. MacQuarry of Hunter River. Service at the grave in New Glasgow cemetery was conducted by Rev. Mr. MacLeod and Rev. Mr. Tilley. Pall-bearers were Lawrence Stevenson, Harold Stevenson, Herbert Stevenson, Milton Vessey, James Wares and Wm. Simpson. James Stevenson of Saint John N. B., son of the deceased, was among those who attended the funeral.

CHOIR CONCERT—The Albany Choir assisted by Mrs. E. V. MacLeod and Mrs. E. Lewis, presented the "Beautiful City" to a very large and interested audience in the Westmorland Church Sunday evening. The soloists for the evening were Mrs. E. V. MacLeod, Mrs. Gordon Harvey, Mrs. W. A. MacKay and Messrs J. B. Lewis and Maxwell LeFurgey. A male quartette consisting of Messrs W. A. MacKay, J. B. Lewis and Wyman Large also rendered a selection very favorably. The chief characters portraying the story were, Pilegrim, Mrs. Adelaide Wood, teacher, Mrs. Lila Gamble, tempter, Mrs. M. Walker and six messengers, Misses K. Boulter, Mildred LeFurgey, Evelyn Harvey, Mrs. MacKay and Mildred and Eileen Walker. Following the program the members of the choir and other visitors were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. V. MacLeod where a pleasant hour was spent in music with Mrs. E. V. MacLeod at the piano and Mrs. J. B. Lewis as chief soloist. A delightful lunch was served and a vote of thanks extended to those who assisted the choir and also to Mr. and Mrs. Gamble for their hospitality.

NO REPORT OF BURGLARY—No report had been made at the Police Station of theft of three carcasses of lamb. City Police said that a report was current about the City yesterday that a warehouse at the rear of T. Mills Meat Market on Hillsboro Street has been entered Thursday night and three carcasses of lamb taken. The property of J. Locke, butcher, the goods were said to be valued between $18 to $20. Mr. Locke was called last night to verify the story.

DAIRY RECORD—Among the R. O. P. members recently in that of the Jersey cow, "Souris Queen, M. G." owned by Ernest Underhay of Bay Fortune which, as a result of the highest testing, was 6.117 pounds of milk and 408 pounds of fat, with an average test of 6.67 per cent, which makes this the highest single testing record in the Province, since completion of this record, she has freshened with her third successive heifer calf and is to be sold at auction on another record. This cow is owned by Lily Standard, formerly owned by Harold Stead, Charlottetown, and Clark Brothers, North Wiltshire.

P. E. I. HEIFER PRODUCES WELL—According to a recent report received from the Federal Department of Agriculture, the outstanding twice daily milking record has just been completed in the 2 yr. old class of the Canadian Record of Performance by the Jersey cow, Patsy cow, Patsy cow, Silverlocks, producing 10,077 lbs. milk, 524 lbs. fat. Silverlocks is owned by J. Eric Hurry, Winsloe, P. E. I. She proved to be a most consistent producer throughout the year, her high month being 47 lbs. of fat, and in no month did she go lower than 40 lbs. of fat.

BRIDE-TO-BE ENTERTAINED—Mrs. Ernest H. Anderson, Euston St., entertained recently a number of girl friends at a magnificent luncheon in honor of Miss Mary Hughes, one of this season's popular young brides to be. Upon arrival Mary was escorted to the living room where a jolly crowd had gathered to wish her much happiness. A heavily laden decorated cart was wheeled into the living room by Miss Joyce MacLeod and Miss Hennessey, dressed as bride and groom. The packages were opened by Miss Gladys Hughes and accompanying verses read by Miss Marion Holman with much comment. Mary thanked her many friends for their lovely gifts and best wishes. The arrival of Mrs. Ray St. John, Mrs. Jack Kane dressed as bride and groom of the gay nineties caused much excitement and laughter. The rooms were richly decorated for the occasion in Halloween colors. The evening was spent in games and singing was a feature. A delightful lunch was served and a vote of thanks extended to those who assisted the choir and also to Mr. and Mrs. Gamble for their hospitality.

TRUCKMEN TO JOIN NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Mr. L. O. Kelly, Southport Elected President of Truck and Transfer Association.

A decision to join the American Federation of Labor and the Trade Union Congress of Canada was reached at a meeting of the Truck and Transfer Association of Prince Edward Island at a meeting here last night.

Final organization of the Association was completed at the meeting which elected Mr. L. O. Kelly, Southport, president. Other officers included: Carl Delaney, Summerside secretary; Charles Corrigan, Tracadie, recording secretary; and Roy Hermans, Pownal, Gleason Williams, MacNeil's Mills Road trustees.

An organizer from the American Federation of Labor would probably visit the Province within the next week or so and outline fully the relationship which would exist between the local and national and international organizations.

Mr. Frank Creamer, Charlottetown, explained what he considered benefits which would result from the Provincial Association being linked up with the larger units.

The meeting was largely attended and was presided over by Mr. Kelly, elected president pro tem at a preliminary meeting in the Laborers Protective Union Hall here a short time ago. Since then other meetings, leading up to completion of the Association had been held in Prince and King's Counties.

Last night's session was held in the Board Room at the City Hall.

"ROBIN HOOD FLOUR is economical. More loaves of better bread from each bag.

"CARD PARTY—The weekly card party held at St. James parish hall during the winter months is a very popular and successful one. On Wednesday night, Ladies prize was won by Mrs. Wm. Burke and the gentleman's prize by Mr. George McCormack.—G.

"MOTOR TRIP TO BOSTON—A motor party consisting of Paul Fitzgerald, his mother, Mrs. (Capt.) John Fitzgerald, Miss Alice Campbell, and Mrs. J. Kennedy left Georgetown on Tuesday morning en route to Boston and other American cities.—G.

"CHURCH TEA AND BAZAAR—The Ladies of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church held their annual supper and bazaar on Wednesday evening, although the weather was not all that could be desired, the event was quite successful, with a good crowd in attendance.—L.

"FOX PELTING PLANT of the Charlottetown Fur Sales 85 Queen Street, Charlottetown will be in operation daily throughout the season. This is the most up-to-date pelting and cleaning plant in Canada. All curing and drying is done by electricity. It costs no more and is more right. Now open for business. L-1162-11-2-5-Wed-Sat-if.

"DANGEROUS SPOT—For many months past complaints have been heard regarding the very dangerous condition of the Gordon building on main street, Georgetown. Surely those in authority can in some way remove this very dangerous trap. There seems no real need for some one to be severely hurt or even killed before action is taken.—G.

"DANCE ENJOYED—A large crowd enjoyed the Halloween Dance at the Highlands on Monday night, excellent music being furnished by George Chappell and his Merry Makers. Prizes for best costumes were won by Mrs. J. J. MacLeod, Miss Helen MacLeod, Miss Frieda Solomon, Miss Geraldine Scully and Mrs. P. J. Henry dressed as the Dionne Quintuplets and by Mr. Charles Jenkins as a Spanish Cavalier.—G.

"PARTY ENJOYED—A most enjoyable Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart on Monday night when their daughter Irene invited ten of her school girl pals to come and enjoy the "fun-night" of the year. After several hours of games a most enjoyable lunch was served by Mrs. Stewart. The girls then wended their way homeward having had as they all expressed it the time of their lives.—G.

"HALLOWEEN PARTY—The Young People of the Christian Church, Montague, held a very enjoyable Halloween party in the basement of the Church, indulging in games and contests and other stunts suitable to the occasion after a buffet luncheon was served. The ladies sent a bale of warm clothing.—L.

"THE GRENPELL MISSION BOAT—The George B. Cluett, Capt. Iverson cleared on Monday sailing from Montague for St. Anthony's, Newfoundland with cargo of produce for the mission station. A few of the United Church people had the privilege of sending a few bags of vegetables and the ladies sent a bale of warm clothing.—L.

"COMING SPORT—Hockey is the talk of the town these days, and all because of a news note appearing in the Guardian relative to a hockey meeting held in Dr. Johnson's office at Montague at a session of six or eight league members was talked about. Well why not but don't forget boys that this is time while the roads are still good get the organization completed. How about a meeting with representatives of all teams present. Why not call the next and larger meeting and Georgetown will gladly co-operate in a really worthwhile league.—G.

"THE C. G. I. T. girls of the United Church, Montague, under the leadership of Miss Enid Coffin held a very beautiful and impressive ceremony on Sunday last after the evening service when six girls were initiated into the Groups and five others re-dedicated their lives afresh to the service of their Master. The theme for the service was a poem read by Miss Coffin. To each girl there opened a way was and way. The high soul climbs the high way and the low soul gropes the low. In the centre of the platform stood a large silver cross with twelve candles on the cross beam. Each girl lit one of the candles as she pledged her self anew to the service of her Lord. The hymns, O Master Let Me Walk With Thee and Breath On Me Great God were sung by the group during the ceremony.—L.

"Mr. Louis Victor who has spent the last few months in Boston, returned recently to his home in Georgetown.—G.

"Mr. Keir Clark and Mr. Wilfred Waterworth, Montague, left on Monday morning on a hunting trip to New Brunswick, where they are hoping to bag some big game.—L.

The executive of the S. C. M. of Prince of Wales College held a meeting with Mr. Nelson MacEwan, National Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and Mr. Norville Luck, at the "Y" on Sunday afternoon. The meeting took the form of an informal talk in which some of the problems of the S. C. M. were discussed and helpful suggestions were given by Mr. MacEwan.

The P. W. C. second team defeated the Queen Square School team in a hard fought game of football on Thursday afternoon. The score was 3-0, the only touchdown being scored by George Bonnell. During the game temper flared rather frequently and several "free-for-all" took place. The P. W. C. second team are also undefeated to date.
