Island Banker Educationist In New York

The New York Herald Tribune of Monday contains the following news item. The Mr. Macdonald referred to is the son of Mrs. J. B. Macdonald 171 Dorchester St. and a frequent visitor to the Province.

Control of the Board of Higher Education passed into the hands of the Fusion regime yesterday, when Mayor F. H. LaGuardia announced the appointment to the board of Ernest S. Macdonald, Kew Hall, Kew Gardens, Queens, and Dr. Carmyn J. Lombard, of 7410 Ridge Boulevard, Brooklyn. Eleven of the twenty-one board members are now Fusion appointees.

Two vacancies, including that of Mark Essner, chairman, whose term expired July 1, and Lewis Mumford, who resigned on July 30 to devote his attention to literary work, are yet to be filled.

The new board members replace two Democratic appointees—Mrs. William H. Good, of Brooklyn, and Laurence L. Cassidy, of Queens, whose terms expired July 1. Mr. Macdonald is forty-nine, married and has two children. He is vice-president of the Bank of the Manhattan Company, in charge of the Queens Borough offices; treasurer and director of the Queens Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Queens Valley Golf Club, the Jamaica Club, the Kew Gardens Club, the American Legion, the Elks and the 40 Wall Street Luncheon Club. He has lived in Queens for twenty-three years.

HEPBURN LAUDS PREMIER KING

Regards Differences As "Comparatively Small Matter."

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire) COLLINGWOOD, Ont., Oct. 4.—Premier Mitchell Hepburn regards his differences with Prime Minister Mackenzie King as a "comparatively small matter." He told an audience here today that he agreed with Mr. King's trade policies and believed the Federal Liberal Leader had done a tremendous amount of good for Canada. The differences Mr. Hepburn referred to were over the Ontario Government's attitude to activities of the Committee for Industrial Organization in this province, particularly during the strike of General Motors employees at Oshawa last April.

"I have much in common with Mr. King," the Premier told an interrupter. "I believe in his trade policies. He has given this country good government and done a tremendous amount of good for Canada. I differed with him over Lewis (John L. Lewis, C.I.O. head) and Martin (Homer Martin, head of a C.I.O. controlled labor union) but after all that was only a comparatively small matter." The remark which led to Mr. Hepburn's comment, his first direct reference to Mr. King and the differences of last spring during the campaign, followed a reference to the benefits of Liberal trade and tariff policies. "Liberal now," shouted a man in the gallery. The Premier retorted, "I'm afraid I have nothing in common with you," and went on to state his attitude toward Mr. King.

EAGLES—MOLLINS.—A wedding of more than usual interest was celebrated at 1.30 Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, 187 Dominion street, when Miss Frances Murray Mollins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mollins was united in marriage to Norman Borden Eagles, son of Alderman Titus B. Eagles and Mrs. Eagles by Rev. A. K. Herman, pastor of the Highfield Baptist Church. The ceremony took place in the living room, which was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers, while the bride and groom stood under an arch of autumn leaves. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in a dress of antique mahogany velvet, with small urban and accessories. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, Mrs. Borden's bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of blue lace with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of red roses. Arthur Mollins, the bride, was groomsmen. Those attending the ceremony from outside points were, Arthur Mollins, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., brother of the bride, who arrived by plane Saturday afternoon, and Mrs. A. A. Mollins, of Liverpool, N. S., aunt of the bride.—Moncton Transcript.

SAYS BILL NOT DESIGNED TO MUZZLE PRESS

Alberta House In Committee Debates Press Bill—Amendments Advanced.

(By The Canadian Press) EDMONTON, Oct. 4.—Debating the bill in principle, the Alberta Legislature in committee today approved one amendment to the bill "to ensure the publication of accurate news and information" and had three other amendments before it as the sitting resumed tonight.

Hon. Solon Low, provincial treasurer, declared there was no intention to muzzle the press or restrict its rights while Gerald O'Connor (Lib. Edmonton) suggested the bill was beyond the powers of the legislature. Several members participated in the debate.

The bill originally gave the chairman of the Social Credit Board authority to order publication of signed statements furnished by him relating to the objects of any policies of the Government of the province; the means being taken or intended to be taken by the Government for the purpose of attaining such objects; and the circumstances, matters and things which hinder or make difficult the achievement of any such objects.

The section was changed to give the chairman authority to order publication of any signed statement "which has for its object the correction or amplification of any statements relating to any policy or activity of the Government of the province published by that newspaper within the next preceding 31 days."

Other amendment still before the committee would reduce the amount of space the chairman can demand for corrections or clarifications from one page to half a page and provides the corrections must be printed in the language used by the publication. Another amendment pending consideration clarifies protection under the Libel and Slander Act.

Scout News and Notices

Official denial of a rumor circulated in London following the close of the International Scout Jamboree in Holland, that Lord Baden-Powell was contemplating retirement as World Chief Scout, was made by Mr. J. F. M. Stewart of Toronto, upon his return from the Jamboree, where he acted as official head of the Canadian Scout contingent. Mr. Stewart is chairman of the Executive Board of the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts Association.

"It was officially announced by Imperial Scout Headquarters in London," Mr. Stewart stated, "that there was absolutely no foundation to the rumor."

"My wife and I had the pleasure of spending a week-end at Pax Hill with Lord and Lady Baden-Powell, and the World Chief Scout was in excellent health, full of energy, and discussing a long list of Scout engagements. Some of these were two years ahead. This winter he will visit South Africa and Rhodesia. In 1939 he expects to attend a Scout Jamboree in the West Indies, and another in New South Wales, on the other side of the world. He also plans to attend the next World Rover Moot, to be held in Scotland in 1942."

"No, the old Chief is still the irreplaceable, ever-youthful B-P, and he's not for a moment thinking of going on the shelf."

The international gathering of Scouts in Holland Mr. Stewart reported as a splendid, happy gathering that offered an unforgettable example of international youth friendship, in contrast to the strain and turmoil that characterize so much of the adult world today. Some 28,000 boys were present from 32 different countries and only the happiest fraternalizing characterized their two weeks of camping together.

BRITISH LABOR URGES ACTION AGAINST JAPAN

BY GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
BOURNE MOUTH, Hampshire, Oct. 4.—(CP Cable)—The British Labor Party today re-formed itself. The 37th annual conference opened with an emergency resolution unanimously demanding swift action against Japan. Then, for the rest of the day, delegates squabbled over the structure of their National Executive.

It was an issue which revealed a snappy conflict between the industrial wing of the party, represented by the Trades Unions, and the political wing, represented by constituency Labor Parties. In the end the Trades Union was split. Delegates representing the constituency parties voted together. The political wing won easily.

The National Executive submitted two main proposals to the conference. One was that C.L.P. representation on the National Executive should be increased from five to seven while Trades Union representation remained at 12. The second proposal was that instead of the conference as a whole electing members of the National Executive, both the Trades Union and C.L.P. delegates should elect their candidates direct.

The first change increases representation of the political wing on the National Executive. The second would prevent the mass Trades Union vote from wing out the C.L.P. candidate they consider undesirable.

As its first act of the day the conference adopted a resolution calling on the Government to cooperate with members of the League of Nations and with the United States "in imposing measures of economic and financial pressure designed to bring Japanese aggression to an end."

The motion, adopted unanimously and without debate, demanded that British subjects be prohibited from selling war materials or lending money to Japan and urged medical and other humanitarian aid for China.

Moving the resolution, Clement Attlee, parliamentary Labor leader, termed it a protest against the "barbarous massacre" of women and children and the "continued aggression" of Japan in China.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Sentences up to six months were imposed today on 106 persons arrested in Sunday's rioting between Fascists and anti-Fascists when Sir Oswald Mosley's blackshirts paraded through southeast London.
Patrick Hicks was sentenced to six months in prison for assaulting police with a dangerous weapon—a piece of pavement.
Demonstrators said to number close to 100,000 battled police to prevent 7,000 Fascists from parading four miles from Westminster to Bermondsey.
