Detroit Scores Shutout In Third Game

Grosso Does Three-Goal 'Hat Trick' As Red Wings Hang 4-0 Defeat On Bruins

BOSTON, April 7—(CP)—Don Grosso performed the three-goal "hat trick" tonight while personnally conducting his Detroit Red Wings to a 4-0 shutout over the Boston Bruins in their third game of the Stanley Cup final before an overflow crowd of 14,880 at the Boston Garden.

That one-sided triumph practically clinched hockey's most prized trophy for the Red Wings, who won the first two games in the best-of-seven series on their home ice. The Wings can gain possession with another triumph here tomorrow night and if they are successful, they will subject the Bruins to the same humiliation the Wings suffered two seasons ago, when Detroit was put out in four straight games by Boston.

Grosso lost little time getting his first tally, for, during the fourth minute of play, he succeeded in planting himself firmly on the edge of the Boston crease before Eddie Wares of Detroit made a shot at Percy Howes, when that goalie kicked out that shot, Grosso flipped it back into his net with the greatest of ease.

A couple minutes later, while Jack Crawford, the Bruins' most dependable defenceman, was in the penalty box, the Red Wings put on a terrific rush against Bronsek. Franks kicked out three steaming close-ups in rapid-fire order before Grosso caught him out of position and fired into the opening.

The other two Detroit goals were during the final period, and the third one, made by Les Douglas, broke the Bruins' hearts. With less than 12 minutes to go, the Bruins desperately staged a five-man rush. Douglas broke it up on his own blue line by poke-checking Flash Hollett. Then he regained the loose puck and sped down to beat the defenseless Brimsek from less than 15 feet.

The Bruins were a hopelessly beaten outfit when Grosso completed his "hat trick" with a bit more than a minute to go. As was the case all night, he had little trouble filtering through the Boston defence to the crease and launched his third scoring shot from close range after taking Wares' accurate pass out.

By assisting on Grosso's second goal, Liscombe gained his 13th playoff point, which put him in a tie with teammate Syd Abel, who did not figure in any of this third game scoring. They now are running only one point behind the National Hockey League's playoff scoring record, set by Boston's Bill Cowley two seasons ago and equalled by Grosso last year.

S'Side Royals And Borden Meet Friday Night

The Summerside Royals still smarting from their defeat on Tuesday night, handed to them by the Borden Nationals, will again cross sticks in Borden rink Friday night. The Nationals strengthened by the appearance of "Plumb" McDonald, former Junior Royal star, were just a bit too good for the Summerside crew Tuesday, but, the Royals with a hard fighting and fast skating aggregation are out to even it up on Friday. Several new faces will be seen on the Summerside lineup when they take the ice, including Pilot Officer Walker who played most of his hockey with Kirkland Lake and other stars who are at present stationed at the local airport. The Nationals in all likelihood will be strengthened by some outsiders including the pick of Middleton, Freetown, New Annan and other teams.—S.

Ottawa Varsity To Meet Maritime Basketball Champ

OTTAWA, April 7 —(CP)—University of Ottawa won the Ottawa Junior City Basketball championship tonight, defeating Coonmerce Grads 38-30 in the second game of a best-of-three final series.

Varsity, who won the first game 52-41 last week, now will meet the Maritime champions in the first round of the Canadian Junior playoffs.

Pep Lacasse paced the champions to victory with a 16-point effort. Jack Edge provided the main scoring punch for Grads with 12.

Buckey Harris Gets "Kick" Out Of New Job

HERSHEY, Pa., April 7 —(AP)— This probably sounds like a guy is getting "a terrific kick" out of managing the Phillies.

It could be that Buckey's thrill comes from the knowledge that he definitely has escaped from Bob Newsom, because at his request, Bill Cox, the Phils' new owner, turned thumbs down when Branch Rickey wanted to trade him the bit wind from Hartsville, S.C. Bucky admits that when Bobo could pitch, there was at least reason to put up with him, "but now that he can't pitch much any more, well——."

Or it could be that the bang Bucky gets comes from getting away from the Washington Senators, which could hardly be called a manager's Garden of Eden, with or without apple trees. Yet, jumping from the Nats to the Phillies would appear to be something like making a choice between wearing tight shoes or just having your toes pinched with a pair of pliers.

"Don't kid yourself," Bucky replies to this. "Nothing much has changed down at Washington this spring. It's still the same old thing—which is no situation to start waving the flags about.

"That's the reason I'm getting such a bang out of this new job here. This is strictly a 'new faces' show. I have a chance to build a ball club from the ground up under Mr. Cox, who is a hustling young executive. I'm having pretty much my way in how to put the team together and in tabbing players I'd like to have in trade."

24 Entered In Boston Marathon

BOSTON, April 7 —(AP)— Lou Gregory of New York, last year's runner-up to milkman Joe Smith, and Sgt. Gerard Cote of St. Hyacinthe, Que., the 1940 victor, today entered the April 19 Boston A.A. Marathon, along with 11 other experienced distance racers. The field now includes 24 entries.

Among the others on the starting list are Fred Bruhm and Walter Nichols, serving in the Canadian Army at Halifax.

Bill Cowley Named Winner Of Dr. D. A. Hart Trophy

MONTREAL, April 7 —(CP) — Bill Cowley, playmaking wizard of the Boston Bruins, was named tonight as the winner of the Dr. David A. Hart Trophy as the most valuable player to his club in the National Hockey League in the 1942-43 season.

Announcement of the award, based on selections of 12 hockey writers in the six N.H.L. cities, was made at the league offices.

Cowley won the trophy two seasons ago. He is the fourth multiple winner in its 20-year history, the others being such all-time hockey greats as Eddie Shore, who held it four times, the late Howie Morenz with three and Nels Stewart, a double winner like Cowley.

Closest rival to the veteran Boston smoothie in the balloting was Doug Bentley of Chicago Black Hawks who led the N.H.L. in scoring this season. Cowley had 94 votes of a possible 120 and Bentley had 67. Tied for fourth place with 46 points were Syl Apps of Toronto Maple Leafs, out of action for the last month and a half of the scheduled season with a broken leg, and Syd Howe of Detroit Red Wings. All four leaders are forwards, but the next player in line was a goaltender, Frank Brimsek of Boston who had 40 points.

Each of the voting writers—two are selected by each N.H.L. club to participate in the selection — has 10 choices with 10 points for first choice, nine for second, eight for third and so on.

Cowley, who was the choice of selectors for the centre position of The Canadian Press all-star team this season, enjoyed his best year since he entered the N.H.L. with St. Louis Eagles in the middle of the 1934-35 season. He scored 27 goals and had 45 assists for 72 points to stand second in the league, one point behind [illegible] had 73 points with 33 goals and 40 assists.

When the Boston [illegible] won the Hart trophy two seasons ago he was the league's top scorer with 17 goals and 45 assists for 62 points. Except for 19[illegible] when he was out of action most of the season with a broken jaw, Cowley has always ranked high among the scorers.

A native of Bristol, Que., near Hull, Cowley first won general hockey prominence as a member of the Ottawa Primrose team which lost to Winnipeg Elmwoods in the Memorial Cup final in 1931.

The next season he made a trip to Europe with Ottawa Shamrocks and then went to Halifax to play with the senior Wolverines leading the Maritime senior league in scoring in 1939-34.

After making his jump to pro ranks with St. Louis, he became the property of the Boston Bruins in 1935.

Cowley and Hector (Toe) Blake of Montreal Canadiens are the only Hart Trophy winners still in active competition in the N.H.L. Tommy Anderson, the 1941-42 winner, is a Lieutenant in the Canadian (active) army.

Here is the complete list of trophy winners: 1942-43, Cowley; 1941-42: T. Anderson, Brooklyn Americans; 1940-41, Cowley; 1939-40; E. Goodfellow, Detroit; 1938-39, Blake; 19-37-38, F. Shore, Boston, 1936-37, A. C. Sierbert, Montreal Canadiens, 1935-36 and 1934-35, Shore; 1933-34, A. Joliet, Canadiens, 1932-33, Shore; 1931-32 and 1930-31, H. Morenz, Canadiens, 1929-30, N. Stewart, Montreal Maroons; 1928-29, Roy Worters, Americans; 1927-28, Morenz; 1926-27, H. Gardiner, Canadiens, 1925-26 Stewart; 1924-25, W. Burch Hamilton; 1923-24, F. Nighbor, Ottawa.

Change Lineup Of Commandos For Opening Game

OTTAWA, April 7 — (C P) — Coach Alex Smith announced tonight that Lieut. Gordie Bruce will replace Pte. Sid Fenn as right winger on Commandos' second line when Commandos and Ottawa R.C.A.F. meet here tomorrow in the first game of their best-of-five series for Eastern Canada senior hockey honors and the right to contest the Allan Cup finals.

Ptes. Mac and Neil Colville and Spr. Alex Shibicky will work on Commandos' first attacking unit, and Bruce with L.-Cpl. Kenny Kilrea and Lieut. Gordon Poirier on the other line. Spr. Joe Cooper, Pte. Ken Reardon and Pte. Bingo Kampman will share defence chores in front of Pte. Sugar Jim Henry.

Sgt. Len Pinke, last year's Allan Cup goalie, will be the flyers last line of defence. In front of him will be Cpl. Jack Cain and AC. Bill Maki, who will alternate with AC. Thain Simon. Lac. Frank Boucher, who sparked flyers' attacks in their two final games with Halifax, will centre AC. Tony Licari and Lac. Hank Blade on one line.

Cpl. Conny Tudin, Lac. Vic Hanebberry and AC. Don Robbins will work on the other front-line formation.

Sammy Fuller Comes Roaring From Retirement

By BILL KING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON, April 7 —(AP)— After taking a long and quizzical look at the youngsters responsible for the current boxing boom, little Sammy Fuller of Boston, the old-time lightweight who slugged like a heavyweight, has come roaring out of five years of retirement to pound out another pot of gold with his iron fists.

Little Sammy, who started out as a flyweight away back in 1925, when Jack Dempsey ruled the heavies, Harry Greb the middleweights, and Mickey Walker the welters, had more than 100 professional engagements as he progressed through the ring's golden days into one of its worst depressions.

"Yes I did make a pile, one big enough to set me up in the restaurant business," Sammy explained. "But finally I found it more profitable to quit my own business to become a defence worker. I have kept in close contact with boxing since I retired in 1937 and now I have decided that the time has come for me to make a comeback. I still can slug and I'll take on everybody the promoters will give me to get a crack at Henry Armstrong or Beau Jack or both."

Sammy, born Sabino Ferrullo in 1907 in Boston's north end, where he painfully gained his rudiments of boxing as a bootblack, appears to have both of his stocky legs planted on the comeback trail. About two months ago, he tested himself by chasing the fleet Joe Torres of New York, for a 10-round decision. "I just boxed him because I wanted to convince myself I could last the full distance without tiring," he explained after disposing of Torres.

"Then," Sammy continued, "I was eager to prove that I still had my Sunday punch and I did it, at least to my satisfaction."

Samuel Colt, inventor of the revolver, made a wooden model in 1829.

U.N.B. Defeats Acadia 36-18

WOLFVILLE, N.S., April 7 —(C P)—A smart basketball team from the University of New Brunswick tonight defeated Acadia University's Cagers 36-18 in the opener of a two-game, total-goal series for the Maritime Intermediate title. The second game will be played here tomorrow night.

Until midway through the second half, Acadia had an edge on control of the ball and kept up a continued offensive, but the axemen failed time and again to sink their shots.

Halifax Defeats Scoudouc 45-32

HALIFAX, April 7 —(CP)—Halifax Royal Canadian Navy Basketball team tonight defeated the Scoudouc, N.B., air force team 45-32 in the first game of a two-game, total-point series for the Maritime Senior championship.

The second game will be played tomorrow night on the same floor with the winners proceeding to Ottawa next week to play for the eastern Canada title.

The Tars and Air Force players played the most rugged and exciting game held here this season, before a large crowd of cheering fans.

Half-way through the first period with the score 11-6 against them, Scoudouc put on a fine exhibition of power plays. Al Brown, Jack Redhead and Hume all tallied a field goal apiece. Berry of Navy dropped a foul before Redhead scored again.

Brown, former university of Toronto player, in the pivot position for Scoudouc, and Redhead as defenceman were the pick of the visiting team.

Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)

Lester Patrick, then as now big chief of the New York Rangers, 15 years ago tonight, went into goal in place of Lorne Chabot for more than half a Stanley Cup game, and he d Montreal Maroons to only one goal. Manager Patrick was 44 years old then. Rangers won the game 2-1, the Cup and the League championship that year.

Quebec Sea Gulls Hang 22-1 Defeat On Glace Bay

QUEBEC, April 7-CP)—Glace Bay Miners of Nova Scotia Intermediate Maritime Hockey Champions suffered a severe defeat at the hands of Quebec Sea Gulls here tonight when the holders of the Provincial Title outscored them 22-1 in the first of a best-of-five semi-final series, the winner of which is to meet Petawawa Grenades for the Intermediate Title of Eastern Canada.

Some 3,000 fans packed the City Northeast Coliseum to watch the Sea Gulls take a 9-0 lead in the first period. Unable to baffle Quebec Goaler Jean Paul Nadeau, the Miners played on the defensive.

In the third period the Miners attacked with Robert Anderson, R. Hyne and Larry Molyneaux to score their sole goal of the game. But a 17-1 lead was not enough for Quebec and after 12 more minutes of playing, the Sea Gulls left the ice with a 22-1 victory in their pockets.

The scoring, which seems to be a record in the Intermediate League, gave Marcel Fillion, Jean Paul Gladu and Jacques Lavoie nine points each, closely followed by Jerry Bellemarre with four goals and four assists.

Bourdon, Bouchard and Roberge shared the remainder of the goals, while Lessard and Bergeron were in for the assists.
