Woolen cloths or flat irons do in part what a hot water bottle does perfectly. Heat helps pain, any kind but the application of it is always clumsy and largely ineffective unless you have the modern appliance.

The soft yielding hot water bags maintain an even temperature for hours. We have some beauties imported from Maws Fan & Sons England. They are the best hot water bags made. Last for years.

REASONS FOR BEING A KNIGHT OF PYTHIAS

The following reasons for becoming a member of the Order of Knights of Pythias have been given to The Guardian by a member of the order of this city:

Because it teaches me to love God, love and care for my home, and to love my Country.

Because it teaches me to practise that Friendship which bound Pythias to Damon, and to help bring mankind into one grand Brotherhood.

Because it teaches me Charity, not only to the household of my faith, but to all humanity.

Because it teaches me to exemplify Benevolence to my Brothers, in a way which exhibits true kindness and love.

Because it teaches me to preserve the sanctity of home, the protection of its members, the elevation of the standard of citizenship, and the uplifting of mankind.

Because it teaches me to respect the laws of my Country, to be brave in defending right, to keep my honor untarnished, and to prevent, to the best of my ability, a personal act or word injurious to any one.

Because it teaches me to try "So to live that when I reach the river that marks the unknown shore, my hands may be filled with deeds of charity—the golden key that opens the palace of eternity."

IN MEMORIAM

VIOLET MAY POOLE.

On Tuesday, Jan. 19th the sad death occurred of Violet May the little two-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole of Souris. The child had not been well for a week or two but nothing serious was anticipated—"only a cold" it was thought. But later on more alarming symptoms developed and pneumonia set in. She grew worse rapidly and passed away in a few days. The funeral took place on Jan. 20th at Souris West conducted by Rev. A. D. McIntosh. Mr. and Mrs. Poole are well known and highly respected in the community and in addition to the consoling thought that "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven," they have the genuine sympathy of a very wide circle of friends.

THE LATE ADMIRAL NARES.

The death of Vice Admiral Sir George Nares is reported from London on 15th January 1915. He was born on April 24, 1833, and entered the Navy in 1845. Sir George had during his life several important commands. He was Captain of H. M. S. "Newport" on surveying duties in the Mediterranean for several years, during which time he attended the formal opening of the Suez Canal and afterwards made a complete Hydrographic Survey of that Canal. In 1875 Sir George was appointed to the command of the Arctic expedition in the "Discovery" and "Alert" and reached 83 degrees North Latitude. He subsequently commanded the Challenger or deep sea explorations making a voyage round the world. He was professional officer of the British Board of Trade 1879 to 1896, and since then conservator of the River Mersey. Mr. F. W. Hyndman of this city served with Admiral Nares three years in the Mediterranean Survey 1865 to 1870—whilst in command of H. M. S. "Newport."

MRS. IRA HARDY.

On Tuesday evening, Jan. 19th at five o'clock death again visited this community and this time claimed Maggie Dignan, wife of Ira Hardy in the twenty-eight year of her age, outside her own family it was scarcely known, Maggie was an invalid from childhood up. Of a quite unassuming disposition. She bore her sufferings with such cheerfulness and fortitude that even those nearest did not realize she was suffering as she was. Taken to the hospital on Wednesday, operated on Tuesday, despite all medical care and treatment she gradually sank until the following Tuesday evening when the frail threads of life snapped and the soul took its flight to be forever with its Maker. Those left to mourn are not left comfortless for in her weakness and with falling strength she reassured those around her that Jesus had given her strength, that Jesus would carry her over. She leaves to mourn a husband, a father and mother, a brother Lester in Silvertown, B. C., two sisters, Mrs. Geo. Stinson, O'Leary, and Miss Minnie at home. The funeral service was held at her father's residence, Lot 6 on Friday to the Bloomfield Presbyterian Cemetery by Rev. R. Murray, assisted by Rev. H. S. B. Strothard and Mr. John Hardy. The pall-bearers were her six cousins:—Alport Gard, Heber Gard, Houston Dignan, Arthur Dignan, Wesley Dignan and Hugh Bryan. The beautiful floral tributes together with the very large funeral procession of some one hundred and ten carriages endeavored to show as a last rite the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

MR. JOHN R. McDONALD.

The news of the sudden death of John R. McDonald, Brookfield, which took place while waiting for the train at Colville station on the morning of January 5th, came as a great shock to his family and friends. Although not a strong man, Mr. McDonald was in his usual health and having decided to go to Charlottetown was driven to the rear of his farm by his son. From there he walked the short distance to the station. Several persons were waiting for the train when Mr. McDonald entered the station. He sat down by a young man, Daniel McInnis, and leaned his head against him. Mr. McInnis noticed that something was wrong and with the assistance of those present carried Mr. McDonald into the open air. Efforts were made to revive him but were of no avail as his heart was already stilled by the hand of death. With the assistance of neighbors, his body was removed to his home. Mr. McDonald will be greatly missed in Brookfield and vicinity where his kind heart, genial disposition and obliging ways had won him many friends. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and his seat in the sanctuary was never vacant on the Sabbath. He will be much missed in the Church, as he was always ready to lend a helping hand in whatever pertained to its welfare. But, most of all, he will be missed in his home by his sadly bereaved widow and family. He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father, a sorrowing widow and nine children, Mrs. Earnest Heal, Mrs. Wm. McDuff, Daniel and May, in Providence; George, with the volunteers in Halifax; Annie, John and Harry at home. He is also survived by four brothers, Alexander in Nevada, A. D. in Southport, Wm. in the United States, and Ronald in Brookfield, and two sisters, Mrs. A. Beaton, Brookfield and Mrs. Rose, Oklahoma. The funeral took place on the 7th inst. and was very largely attended. The service at the home was conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. H. Macdonald. Interment was in Brookfield Cemetery, the service at the grave being conducted by members of Tanton Orange Lodge. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family and friends in their sudden and sad bereavement.
