WIRELESS DEVICE TO DESTROY "IRENE"
 LONDON, June 7.—The suggestion has been made in The Evening Standard by Fred T. Jane, the naval author, that the steamer Princess Irene was blown up by a German wireless device. The Princess Irene, an auxiliary in the British Navy, was blown up last week in Sheerness harbor with a loss of over 200 lives.
 "The sudden and complete destruction of the Princess Irene in the Medway," Mr. Jane writes, "at no great distance from where the battleship Bulwark also was suddenly blown to atoms may be a curious coincidence. Italian experiments have proved it possible to explode a properly attuned charge by wireless from a short distance. If that charge be surreptitiously placed in the magazine, everything in the magazine will go the same way."
 "One spontaneous explosion is thinkable enough, but two in the same district demand too much from the imagination."

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. MARK MAYHEW.
 Died at North Tryon, May 30, 1915, Melinda Mayhew, at the age of 51 years, wife of Mark Mayhew. She leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband five sons and one daughter and her mother, Mrs. Geo. Mitchell, N. S. W., Australia. Also a large circle of friends. The service was conducted at the house and grave by the Rev. Mr. Young. Her remains were laid to rest in the Methodist Cemetery, Tryon.

WELL KNOWN HERE.—The Very Rev. (now Sir) Daniel Minner Gordon, Principal of Queen's University, Kingston, upon whom the King, on his recent birthday, conferred the order of St. Michael and St. George, is well and favorably known in Charlottetown, his wife being sister of Mr. D. R. MacLennan, of this city. Sir Daniel was born in Pictou, N. S., and was educated in Pictou Academy, Glasgow University, Berlin University, and in Dalhousie, Knox College, Toronto and St. Andrew's Universities. He has been Principal and Vice-Chancellor of Queen's University since 1907. In 1869 he married Miss Eliza Simons MacLennan, daughter of Rev. John MacLennan, Argyleshire, Scotland.

WEDDING BELLS.—The St. John Star of June 4th, says:—On Thursday morning at eleven o'clock the Ex-mouth Street Methodist parsonage was the scene of an interesting event when Miss Anna Orr was united in marriage to Harold C. Robertson. The bride was given in marriage by her brother. She was dressed in a pretty costume of grey with black picture hat. Following the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, and later Mr and Mrs Robertson left on a honeymoon trip through P.E. Island. Many handsome presents were received, as both the bride and bridegroom esteem it a privilege to have a wide circle of friends, whose best wishes accompany them for happiness and prosperity. On their return they will reside at 56 Adelaide Street.

HOSPITAL IMPROVEMENTS.—Through the kindness and courtesy of Miss Graham, Superintendent of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, a Guardian reporter yesterday had the interesting privilege of going through the institution and seeing some of the improvements which have recently been carried out there. The surgical rooms have been re-constructed, a new operating-room having been built. The old operating-room will be utilised in future for obstetrical purposes. The floors, walls and ceilings of the rooms have been cemented, the object being to allow the hose at any time to be turned on so that they may readily be cleaned. The rooms are situated on either side of the passage in the following order: on the right, doctors', nurses', washing and strilising; on the left, specimen room, anaesthetising, operating. A remarkable feature of the washing room is an arrangement whereby a doctor or nurse, after an operation, need not touch any part of the sink to wash his hands. He presses a button with his knee and by moving it from side to side he may have hot or cold water as he pleases. The operating-room, in charge of which is Miss Turner, is splendidly equipped and well lit. There has been also established at the Hospital a first-class diet kitchen, in which the nurses will do all the cooking required for private patients. In this kitchen there are an electric stove and two electric toasters, and among the other excellent equipment is a handsome table covered with cement and provided with drawers for various purposes. This table was given to the institution by Messrs Lowe Bros. and is of their own make. The trays on which the patients' meals are served are provided with folding legs, so that they form a kind table, which is a decided improvement on the old tray and is a great convenience. The first meal, dinner, was cooked in this kitchen yesterday, and the nurses are taking a three-month's course in sick-room cookery, etc. The P.E.I. Hospital is so equipped now that it is the equal, if not the superior, of any hospital on this side of Montreal; and so far as equipment and skill are concerned, on a level with even the best institutions in that city.

GENERAL HUGHES NAILS GERMAN LIE.
 OTTAWA, June 6.—Quick work was accomplished by General Sam Hughes on Saturday in running down the unfounded report from Berlin that Brigadier-General Turner, V.C., was a prisoner and that damaging papers had been found in his possession. General Hughes was in New York on Saturday and at breakfast read the despatch regarding General Turner. He immediately wired his secretary at Ottawa to get into touch with Canadian headquarters at the front and secure the facts. This was done expeditiously. A cable was sent Colonel Cartier, M.P., who investigated and promptly replied: "Turner went and with his brigade."
 The cable was sent on to General Hughes at New York, but he had left. It reached him, however, at Poughkeepsie on the way back. The whole thing was accomplished inside of twelve hours, and the first to be notified that the report was a pure German fabrication was Mrs Turner, wife of the general.

THE EXPRESS.—The express train from Summerside arrived in Charlottetown last night at 10.50.
GOODS FROM NEW YORK.—Parties having goods coming from New York are requested to order same by the s.s. Florizel, of the Red Cross Line, sailing June 15th for Charlottetown direct. Buntain Bell & Co., agents.

THE PRINCE EDWARD
 The three-part feature, "Two Women," which made such a big hit on Broadway, was the leading number on the Prince Edward programme yesterday. It was featured by beautiful scenery extraordinarily photographed. The story, which follows, was interpreted in a superb manner by an excellent cast.
 John Emerson, a clean-cut manly man, worships his beautiful but weak and misguided wife, Cleo, and is blind to her disloyalty, although she gives him every evidence of her aversion. She is carrying on a flirtation with John's employer, Robert Lawler, and Lawler, wishing to make his conquest complete, sends her husband out of town on a business deal, and invites her to take an automobile ride. She accepts, and, fascinated by each other's ill-fated companionship and with their sense dulled by the fumes of too much wine, take no notice of the time. John arrives home early, and not finding his wife, sits down to wait for her. At the sound of an automobile stopping in front of the house he looks out and sees her and Lawler as they return from their ride. When his wife comes in John upbraids her for her disloyalty, and on the arrival of Lawler, who comes to return Cleo's purse, which she had left in the automobile, the two men come to blows, Emerson knocking his employer to the floor.
 Six months later, John Emerson, now divorced, reads Cleo's marriage to Lawler, and their departure for Europe on their honeymoon. Broken in health and spirits, Emerson leaves for the North Woods, where he finds rest and recreation in hunting and fishing. On one of his many rambles he meets Anita, known as Anita of the Woodland, and is completely captivated by her exceptional beauty and simplicity. Friendship ripens into love, but before he asks for her hand he tells the story of his former wife.
 In the meantime Cleo and her husband quarrel, and Lawler, who has tired of her, becomes enamoured of another woman, a married woman, whose husband finds them in a compromising situation and kills both. Cleo, now a wealthy widow, returns to New York, and getting John's address from one of his friends, arrives at his cabin in the woods while he is away. Returning, and for the moment blinded by her own grief, she takes her arm Anita, coming in at the moment when he is about to take Cleo back, he realises that Anita is the one he really loves, and offers her a home and his protection, while Cleo returns to New York a sadder and wiser woman.
 If the eleventh episode of "The Master Key" was the most interesting of the series so far.
 An instalment of "The Hazards of Helen" was even better than its predecessors.
 The comedy, "Sweedie Goes" to College, made everyone laugh.
 Mr. Edwards sang excellently "My Heart is Thine."

LEMBURG MAY FALL INTO AUSTRIAN HANDS
 (Special to The Guardian)
 LONDON, June 7.—Telegrams from Vienna say Lemburg, the capital of the Austrian Crownlands of Galicia, now in the hands of the Russians, may be taken at any moment by Austro-German forces. One message from the Austrian capital says the Austrians are 23 miles from there. Other advices estimate the distance at only ten miles.
 (Special to The Guardian.)
 BARI, Italy, June 7.—Certain details in the recent arrest here of five Dominican monks, whose pastoral windows looked out over the Adriatic, has been made public. It seems that an army lieutenant noticing flashing rays of strong light traced them to the monastery. He called two carabinieri and made his way to the monastery door and insisted upon entering. The monk in charge in reply to questions declared there were only three monks in the building. A second monk appeared, but the lieutenant could not locate the third, finally he broke down the door of the cellar and found within a monk, who had in his possession a war map, upon which were notations of military value. The three monks joined in saying that the upper storey of the monastery was empty and not in use, but the lieutenant was not satisfied. He started to investigate, which showed that on the upper floor there had been set up near the window a large reflector for signalling purposes. Here also two more monks were found, and all were at once taken into custody.
 Search revealed a large number of documents and notes prepared by the monks, together with letters from colleagues in Vienna. Under the laws of the land it was impossible for the Italians to search the premises of religious institutions unless they have direct evidence of acts believed to be against the interest of the state.
REPORTED VILLA AND CARRANZA WILL REPLY FAVOURABLY.
 WASHINGTON, June 7.—Unofficial advices received here from Vera Cruz, saying that General Carranza would reply favourably to President Wilson's statement calling upon the heads of the warring factions in Mexico to restore the peace of the Southern Republic, gave renewed hope to administration officials to-day of the ultimate solution of problems.
 General Carranza is the first one of the heads of the contending factions to be heard from directly concerning the President's warning. Officials have heard indirectly from General Villa through his representatives that he was favourable to the President's proposal. General Carranza's reply, it was said, was being prepared by Jesus Urusta, the Constitutional Foreign Minister, and will be delivered to John P. Silliman, President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, probably by Monday.

COMMUNICATION WITH AUSTRIA CLOSED
 (Special to The Guardian.)
 BERNE, June 7.—Communication by telegraph and telephone between Switzerland and Austria has been interrupted by order of the Austrian Government. The Swiss authorities state they do not understand the action.
BRITISH STEAMERS SUNK BY SUBMARINES
 (Special to The Guardian.)
 LONDON, June 7.—The British steamer Sunlight, of Liverpool, was sunk by a German submarine. The crew were taken to Queenstown.
 (Special to The Guardian.)
 LONDON, June 7.—A despatch from Aberdeen says the British steamer, Star of the West, was sunk by a German submarine. A trawler brought the crew into Aberdeen.

HUNGARY DRIFTING INTO ANARCHY
 ROME, June 5.—Reports received here from various centres go to show that Austria is threatened with domestic complications which will have a disastrous effect on her military organisation. A perfect reign of terror is said to exist at Prague and other Slav centres. The jails are full of political suspects, the newspapers have been suppressed, and the population terrorised by an army of secret police.
 A similar state of affairs prevails in Trentino, in Istria and in Dalmatia. The difficulties of utilising the army effectively is increasing hourly, as it is impossible to send Slav troops against Russians, Croatsians against Serbians, Istrians or Dalmatians, or troops from the Trentino against Italians, as they would undoubtedly desert en masse.
 If the Roumanians enter the conflict another 350,000 Austrian troops will become unreliable. Under the circumstances, Hungary and German-Austria have to do more than their share of the work, and have lost hundreds of thousands killed, wounded and prisoners, with the result that Hungary is being with discontent. Count Apponyi's brutal declaration to Emperor Franz Josef of an impending internal catastrophe has made an enormous sensation in Austria.
 Hungary is rapidly drifting into a state of anarchy. If Roumania and Bulgaria join the Allies it will be the paralysis of the military. All this, and the increase of the confidence of Italy, and animates the army, causing it to push forward all along the line with irresistible force. In spite of the fact that the Austrians hold strongly fortified and entrenched positions in the mountainous country, the Italians are driving them from one position after another.
 Austrian and German agents continue to spread reports that the Pope

Eczema Was Cured Twelve Years Ago
DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT PROVED TO BE A PERMANENT CURE.
 The old idea of eczema being a disease of the blood has been pretty well exploded by the record of cures made by Dr. Chase's Ointment.
 Some doctors still advise internal treatment, but the results are slow and uncertain, and too often a lamentable failure. With Dr. Chase's Ointment it is different. You apply the ointment to the sore parts. It cleanses the sores and soon sets up the healing process. In a few days you can see with your own eyes the wonderful change that is taking place and are encouraged to keep up the treatment until the cure is complete and the sores replaced by smooth, natural skin.
 It is wise to look after your general health, to keep the bowels regular and the blood rich, but you can depend on Dr. Chase's Ointment to cure the eczema if you will do your part and apply it regularly.
 Dr. W. H. Roberts, Charlottetown, P. E. I., writes: "I can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment to anyone suffering from itching skin disease. I had eczema on my leg and suffered terribly from the itching. I had a doctor treat me for four months without relief, and I was getting worse all the time. A second doctor gave some relief for a time, but made no cure. I tried several advertised treatments, but without relief until I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. This ointment cured me in a month. That was twelve years ago, and I have never had a sign of the old trouble since."
 "Since then we have always kept Dr. Chase's Ointment in the house, and find it invaluable for chafing, chilblains, insect stings, and burns. I would not be without it if it cost $5 a box."
 "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Mr. W. H. Roberts, and believe his statement regarding the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment to be true and correct."
 (Signed) Alex. Horne, Justice of the Peace.
