RETURNING TO P. E. I.—The Westville, N. S. correspondent of The New Glasgow News writes that paper: "We direct attention to the advertisement in another column of Mr. James McKenna, who offers his property on McKenna Street for sale. 'Jim' intends to return to his old home in P. E. Island and take up farming. He is a good, steady dependable man; and while we are sorry to lose a citizen of his type, yet we trust that wherever his lot may be cast he may have happiness and prosperity."—Q.

AUCTION SALE AT VERNON.—On Tuesday the 12th inst. Mr. Sydney Taylor, Vernon Bridge sold his farm stock, etc. by auction. His farm, consisting of fifty-eight acres of excellent land, was purchased by Mr. Patrick J. Murphy, Vernon Bridge, for two thousand seven hundred and fifty-five dollars. A very reasonable figure considering the kind of farm it is, its location and good buildings. All the stock and farm implements brought high prices. Mr. William J. McEachern was the auctioneer and he is certainly an expert at the business. Mr. Taylor is leaving in a few days for the West, where he and family will reside. He is one of our very best citizens; and all of a large circle of friends of this good man, and his estimable wife, greatly regret their departure from the Province.—Q.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Saturday 'eb. 2nd the home of Mr. Joseph H. Arsenault, Urbanville was invaded by a host of relatives and friends who desired to extend their congratulations and good wishes to his aged father, Mr. Hermet E. Arsenault, now at his eightieth year. Among those present were the following, Mr. Leslie E. Arsenault, Mr. Frank Arsenault, Stephen M. Arsenault, Joseph I. Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arsenault, of Summerside and Mr. J. M. C. Arsenault, Urbanville. After the sumptuous supper served in the 'kitchen' the following address accompanied with a tangible gift (an expensive armchair) was read to Mr. Arsenault by his son Mr. Joseph F. H. of Charlottetown: "Dear Beloved Father: Today our hearts beat high with joy, and in vain we attempt to express our sentiments, which prevail, for on this happy day we have the good fortune to all share in the celebration of your eightieth birthday. Eighty years seems to us a long time, but to you, as you look back and recall the numerous good deeds that adorn your career, this while of four-score years appear to be comparatively short and arduous labours and sacrifices which is the record of your well spent life. In this occasion venerable father, permit to your children the pleasure of expressing to you their joy and filial devotion. We love you most tenderly and it is with a grateful and obiding heart that we halled the arrival of this memorable occasion. Though our good wishes always did accompany you, we were longing most earnestly for this occasion to reiterate our heartfelt prayers for your happiness, prosperity and a prolongation of such a well spent life. It is certainly cause for rejoicing for your children to have you among them, full of vigor and good health. They are not numerous who can boast of such a blessing, and yet at your advanced age you must have experienced the trials and tribulations of life. The departure from this life of your dear partner, under whose tender care we had grown up, was an affliction to you, but Providence has given you the energy and courage to endure all things with calm resignation and to continue the good works, the fruits of the Christian teachings which reign supreme in your home. We therefore thank you most heartily for all the wise and Christian admonitions which you have imparted to us, and we beseech you to forgive us our many shortcomings and our unfilial conduct towards you, knowing before hand that your kind heart will grant us our entreaty, even of our lives. We would also earnestly ask you to accept this small gift which is presented to you, though insignificant in its entirety, it is offered with sentiments of sincerity. May God continue to pour on you his choicest blessings, and preserve you in our midst for many years to come, is the sincere wishes of your children." Another address was read to Mr. Arsenault by Miss Eklida Arsenault. It also was accompanied with a worthy gift. Mr. Arsenault was deeply moved, and gratefully thanked them all who were present to take part in the happy event and in his honour. Remarks were then passed by several present, all of whom paid a great eulogy to Mr. Arsenault. Mr. Thomas Arsenault diverted the meeting with comical songs and other fine tests. The singing of Ave Marie Stella and God Save The King, brought the meeting to a close.—M.

Armed Patrol Ship Sent German U-Boat To Bottom

LONDON, March 18.—Near Blacksod Bay, on the western coast of Ireland, an armed patrol steamer was victorious in a fight with a German submarine on the British coastal waters late last February. While the armed steamer was in Blacksod Bay, word was brought that a German submarine was firing on a merchant ship just outside Achil Head. The patrol steamer went right out and in four hours sighted a submarine painted black, about two miles off.

When the patrol steamer was about eight hundred yards off she began to use her gun. All the shots were effective and the submarine attempted to get away, but the patrol steamer maintained its fire. Suddenly a lot of smoke was seen coming from the aft side of the conning tower of the U-boat and it stopped. Its stern then began to sink. Soon the conning tower disappeared and only the forepart of the U-boat was above water. After a moment the submarine disappeared entirely, leaving a large cloud of smoke. The patrol steamer waited about the vicinity for two hours but saw no trace of the U-boat.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which stimulates and at the same time improves the digestion. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Free night and sale held by the Mt. Albion Red Cross at the home of Joshua Ballum Tuesday night proved a splendid success. Mr. Ballum and his young wife as well as the old folks vied with each other in making the guests at home, there being over a hundred present! A free-and-easy time was enjoyed by all the ladies knitting the men talking and the young folks playing games. That prince of auctioneers Mr. Benjamin Jenkins auctioned off the goods and after a little more practice should be able to make the "professionals" look to their laurels. The sum of $50 was realized which goes toward maintaining a prisoner of war and for Red Cross purposes. The committee is grateful for generous contributions received from outside the district.

That vital $50 a month

(Guaranteed to you by the Canada Life)

A Man's Income

Whatever your income may be, a certain amount of it is vital to your existence.

Let us say this vital sum is only fifty dollars per month. That you must have.

Why not Insure it?

"How can I," you say, "make sure that I and my family will be certain to have Fifty Dollars a month?"

We have a way

There are two things which might affect or entirely destroy your income. First, accident or ill health which leaves you totally and permanently disabled. Second, your own death. Both are provided against by our new

Special Indemnity Policy

Suppose some day before you reach age sixty you meet with a mishap and become totally and permanently disabled through accident, paralysis, a nerve attack, electric shock, blindness, rheumatism, or one of those many forms of ailment which might leave you unable to earn a living.

Such a thing might happen the day after you secure this new Policy of the Canada Life.

Immediately the payment of premiums would be cancelled.

The Canada Life would become responsible for sending you $50.00 a month (or more, as you may have arranged) for the rest of your life.

No matter how long you might live to receive these monthly cheques, the Canada Life would still pay the full face of the policy—$5,000, and profits—upon your death, to your beneficiary.

Surely you will look into this at once

It is impossible to state here all the advantages of this new Policy nor can we impress upon you too strongly how comparatively small is the premium required to place this barrier between you and possible disaster.

The Canada Life will pay the proceeds of the Special Indemnity Policy to your beneficiary either as an income for a stated number of years or in one sum.
