ST. PATRICK'S DAY WAS DULY HONORED

Large Parade of Local Irish Societies Yesterday Morning and Service at St. Dunstan's Cathedral.

The feast of Ireland's Patron Saint was duly honored yesterday in Charlottetown by the customary street parade of the members of the Benevolent Irish Society and the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The weather in the morning proved fine and there was a good turnout, the parade being headed by the League of the Cross band which discoursed the old time Irish airs in splendid style.

The procession proceeded to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where solemn High Mass was celebrated in the presence of a very large congregation. The celebrant for the occasion was Rev. Maurice McDonald, who was assisted by Rev. J. Rooney as sub-deacon.

The preacher for the occasion was His Lordship, Right Rev. Louis J. O'Leary, who took for his text the words: "This is the Victory that Overcometh the World—Our Faith."

His Lordship stated that on this occasion they were assembled to celebrate the Feast of Ireland's glorious saint. The first victory of the faith is the victory of St. Patrick himself, his conversion, Gazing at the mountains, the hills and the beauties of nature, he was imbued with the spirit of faith and armed with love God the more; through years of oppression; the faith that was handed down from fathers and mothers, unswayed and unchanged.

Before delivering his sermon His Lordship stated that St. Patrick's body was buried in Ireland but a small portion of one arm was taken to Rome. He went on to say that it was his good fortune while in Rome to secure a portion from the Vatican—a small bone from the arm which was exposed here today. It was the only relic of St. Patrick in Canada and there is only one other in existence that the speaker knew of, which was in Australia.

After mass, the parade reformed and marched through the principal streets, which were thronged with people.

The celebration concluded with a drama in the Prince Edward.

GRAVE CRISIS IN BRITISH GOV'T UNEXPECTEDLY DEVELOPS

Mr. Bonar Law Leader of the House of Commons Resigns on the Alleged Ground of Ill-Health. Lloyd George Greatly Affected. May Mean the Break Up of the Coalition and Return to Party System.

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, March 17.—Andrew Bonar Law, Lord of the Privy Seal today resigned from the Cabinet, his health was given as the reason for his resignation. Mr. Bonar Law also retired from the Government leadership in the House of Commons. The announcement of Mr. Bonar Law's resignation was made in the House of Commons by Mr. Lloyd George who was so deeply affected that he could hardly finish his statement. The Prime Minister said he had received a letter from Mr. Bonar Law this morning stating he had been warned by his physician, that if he continued he would run the danger of a complete breakdown.

Mr. Bonar Law had been absent from the House of Commons the whole of this week but he was reported to be improving in health and his resignation of the leadership of the House came as a complete surprise.

The resignation of Mr. Bonar Law from the Cabinet is the most important political happening in Great Britain since the formation by Mr. Asquith, in May 1915, of a coalition government. It may bring about the dissolution of the coalition, a general election, and a return to the party system in the British House. Mr. Bonar Law's resignation follows closely on the resignations of Lord Milner and Mr. Walter Hume Long who are also unwell; it also follows closely the defection of the Cecil family from the coalition.

Further Uprisings Against Bolsheviks

(Special to The Guardian)
CONSTANTINOPLE, March 17.—French and Turkish forces in Cilicia have been engaged in renewed fighting there, it is said in advices received in this city. Further uprisings against the Bolsheviks in Kuban, Terek and Daghestan are reported.

DEBATE ON THE ADDRESS NEARING THE END

Liberal Members Still Protest Their Innocence With Regard to Broken Promises. Attorney General Endeavors to Explain Suppression of Minority Report.

MARCH 16.
EVENING SESSION
MR. H. D. McLEAN who had begun his address shortly before the House adjourned at 6 resumed, reviewing in detail the pre-election promises of the Liberal party and the manner in which these promises had been broken. He criticized the manner in which the road policy of the government was being carried out in some sections of the province, notably the Souris district, reviewed the school situation and other matters touched upon in the speech from the Throne. A more extended report of his speech will appear later.

MR. W. H. DENNIS followed after the usual compliments to the mover and seconder and intimating that he did not purpose taking up the speech clause by clause but as the government's general policy, while that of the previous government was generally condemned. He quoted the $230,000 deficit and felt sure that the country at large was now behind the government. The poll tax, he said, was a somewhat harsh measure, but it had to be imposed owing to the enormous debt that had been piled against the province. While admitting that in certain cases there might be hardship, he justified the various forms of taxation. He believed the time was coming when the farm lands of the province must be properly valued at the actual cash valuation. This, he said, could be done by the school trustees in each district. He justified the increased seasonal indemnity, the increased salaries of officials. He compared the official government salaries to those paid to railway engineers, railway conductors and locomotive drivers; some of the latter receiving from $2,000 up to $4,000.

HON. A. E. ARSENAULT: "Where did the honorable gentleman get this information?"

MR. W. H. DENNIS: "The information can be obtained within the walls of this building or from Ottawa." He said some attention to the press. The press is a power, capable of doing great things, and the idea should be to do good. He would ask the people of this province would it not be better for the two principal papers of this province to stop throwing mud at each other. It is safe, he said, to leave the destiny of this province to the Liberal party. Of the two, he might be biased, he admitted, but he believed the Guardian was the worse of the two. If he was wrong he was willing to apologize. About the practical question said to have been discussed previously to the last election. Here Mr. Dennis gave a fairly elaborate list of alleged misdeeds committed by the previous government. The War and Health Tax he characterized as a piece of political juggling. Here he quoted figures showing that the interest paid in 1919 was more than was paid in 1911. This, he claimed, proved that the late government had not decreased the debt of the province. The conclusion of the late government that it had reduced the debt of the province, he contended, was a farce. Coming now to the work of a "practical government" he claimed that there was no deception on its part, he made no reference to the pre-election promises of the Liberal party.

A JOLLY NIGHT AT "GRANBERRY CORNERS" Was Spent by the Large Crowd Who Attended the St. Patrick's Entertainment Last Evening.

The St. Patrick's Day celebration was brought to a fitting conclusion last evening when the splendid comedy drama, "Granberry Corners, or Ben Latham's Reward" was staged in capital style in the Prince Edward Theatre before a packed house.

This play proved another triumph for local talent and reflects great credit upon every one who took part and especially Mr. Courtland Hopkins, under whose able supervision the production was staged.

The story has to do with two brothers in business and a murder in which one of the brothers, Ben Latham, is falsely accused of the crime and is sent to prison for a life term and remains there for fifteen years until the death of the real murderer, who before dying makes a confession of the crime.

Mr. R. F. Maddigan in the part of Ben Latham, gave a very realistic portrayal of the character, and showed that he has lost none of that talent which he displayed in local plays of other years.

Mr. E. J. Duffy who has also appeared on the local stage in former St. Patrick's Day plays as Tom Dexter, one of nature's noble men, had a part which he took with credit.

Mr. C. C. Dennis as Sidney Everett, "of the world worried" had a strong part which he carried out in good style while Mr. Courtland Hopkins as Andrew Dexter, Tom's father, and Patrick McTague as Hezekiah Hopkins—condemned in their part of two Yankee farmers. Both Mr. Courtland Hopkins who was formerly a professional actor, and Mr. McTague, who has taken part in many amateur shows in the past interpreted these roles splendidly and made a decided hit.

Two other very funny parts were Nathan Speck, a hired hand, taken in inimitable style by Mr. Joseph Doyle, and Belle Anne, also on the hired help staff, by Miss Rose Ryan, who was equally clever.

Miss Zilla Arsenault cleverly portrayed the role of Charlotte Bannister, a child of fate, and Miss Bertie Stewart as Anastasia Bannister, her stylish aunt from New York was cleverly represented by Miss Bertie Stewart.

Miss May Broderick as Amedea Dexter, the sister of Andrew also proved herself possessed of marked ability and Mrs. Alfred Coady, Mrs. Muslin, "something of a

Close of D.C.S. Meetings

The meetings of the Diocesan Church Society were brought to a close yesterday with a successful meeting of the Women's Auxiliary in the morning in which their business affairs were completed and the annual luncheon at noon in St. Paul's Hall at which addresses were delivered by Rev. H. D. Raymond, who presided. Archdeacon Watson, Rev. H. T. Light, Rev. Mr. Jones, Milton, Rev. C. de W. White, Summerside, Judge Warburton, Messrs. Crisp Moore, Crapanz, Wellington Haslam, Springfield, E. R. Webb, O'Leary, Joseph Thomson, Kensington, W. J. Dennis, Port Hill, and Rev. E. B. Spurr of King's College.

At the Rural Deacons Meeting the day before Rev. C. de W. White, Judge Warburton and Mr. T. E. McNutt were appointed Governors for King's College.

SUCCESSFUL HORSE SHOW WAS HELD YESTERDAY

The Horse Show which opened at 1:30 p. m. yesterday in the Agricultural building, Fitzroy street proved a decided success—there being over one hundred entries of exceptionally fine horses, and a splendid attendance. Considering that the show was held at a time when the roads are very bad and in view of the high railway rates which prevented many from coming by rail the number of entries was very encouraging.

But for the rough condition of the roads, there would undoubtedly have been a very much larger showing of good colts.

Judging was continued all yesterday afternoon and until late last night.

In the aged Clyde stallions three typical animals of this class were shown, the winner being the fine horse imported by Messrs. Horne Brothers last year.

Mr. Gozrey's horse took the second prize and Mr. Wallace Stead's third.

The next class of Clydes brought out good three year olds and the champion, again, was found in the yearlings, shown by Mr. Heber Crosby, Marshfield.

One of the first classes was the pure bred Clydesdale registered mares—of which there were even entries. Mr. Gardfield Warren showed a winning mare and her two year old daughter which also proved a winner.

The aged class of grade mares showed a good commercial type, these being decidedly fine ones, showing the benefit of good stables. There were nine shown in this class. The younger classes were not so well filled. Those exhibited showed up better in every respect than those of last year.

The parade of horses on the streets proved very interesting to the many admirers of good horse flesh. Mr. W. S. McKie's British Soldier and Mr. Hammond Kelly's fine horses provided added interest and showed exceptional class.

Mr. D. J. Gregg of Montreal who was judge at last year's show again acted in that capacity and was greatly pleased with the show, which he says is a big improvement over last year in every respect, particularly in regard to the young colts.

Interesting Address On Child Welfare In Hartz Hall

There was a fairly good attendance at the Hartz Memorial Hall last evening when an open meeting of the Brotherhood of the Methodist Church was held at which Miss McMahon, the Supervisor of Child Welfare in the public schools gave an interesting description of her work in the schools—its aims and objects, which was shown to be a peace time programme of Red Cross activity.

At the close a vote of thanks was moved by Dr. H. D. Johnson seconded by Mr. J. D. Sealman and unanimously tendered the speaker.

On motion of Mr. J. F. Whelan seconded by Rev. G. W. F. Gleu denning and supported by Judge Hazard a resolution was passed expressing approval of the work to be carried out by Miss McMahon and urging upon the government to give this work the fullest support.

Before the address a pleasing solo was rendered by Miss Bertha Carter.

To Continue Food Control

Calgary Teachers Go On Strike

CALGARY, Mar. 17.—Following the refusal of the School Board to grant salary increases the Calgary teachers will follow out their threat and cease work on Friday morning according to a statement made yesterday by the President of the Teachers' alliance.

Island Boy Returns To Enter Shoe Business

We are always pleased to see our Island boys return if only for a visit but it gives us much pleasure to have them return to their Island home to stay.

Mr. Howard F. McInnis, who has had a successful sojourn in the Shoe Business on the mainland returned home to engage in his accustomed line, the Shoe Business and as a result when attending a gathering of merry-makers he still called upon to lead in the singing. He agreed with the leader of the musicians would yet arise among us to sing the glory of Cambridge Vimy Ridge, Hill 70 etc. He agreed with the honorable member for York that flax could be grown profitably in this province and mentioned the recent exhibits of flax and linen shown at exhibitions at Esquimaux Bay. Touching on the question of transportation he expressed the opinion that the honorable member from Brudenell (with the accent on the "ane") claimed he was reduced freight rates on musselmud. Mr. McArthur claimed that it was himself that had secured the reduction. He had also been instrumental in persuading several boys to attend technical school but later they declined to attend. Some one, he said, had interfered and dissuaded them. He did not know who but he had read between the lines and instructed that the dissuadee was the Guardian. He intimated that he would have something to say about the alleged suppression of the minority report of the Public Accounts Committee of which he was the chairman last year. He discussed the question at some length, reading and extracting from the Guardian which he declared was not true. He also intimated that he had written to the Guardian explaining his position and demanding an apology and the Guardian
