

YESTERDAY'S STOCK AND BOND QUOTATIONS

NEW YORK EXCHANGE

(By Frederick Gardner, Associated Press Financial Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 5—Stocks continued to point upward today and trading expanded a little in contrast with the usual tendency before a holiday.

As the share list crept ahead for the third consecutive session, the bulk of the buying again converged upon issues rated as highly speculative. Not much doubt was expressed in brokerage quarters as to the outcome of tomorrow's elections. Political factors were stressed less as an immediate market influence than business trends.

Traders were attracted to issues representative of those groups on the assumption the government-sponsored building revival campaign would be broadened and that voting in seven states tomorrow on the issue of state prohibition laws would bring a wider domestic liquor market.

Except for strength and activity in a number of low-priced secondary shares, there was little indication of a change along the financial front. Bonds held to a narrow range and most commodities beat a steady course.

In the building group, Certain-Tied Products Preferred, perturbed 5 points and the common more than a point. Johns Manville crossed 30 for a net gain of more than a point.

Other secondary issues in the twilight were Mullins Manufacturing, the preferred, Eastman Kodak, Coca-Cola—both of which touched new 1934 peaks—Coca-Cola Products, California Packing, American Can, R. H. Macy and American Tobacco B. Austin Nichols, Schenley Distillers and American Commercial Alcohol were up a point or more on liquor prospects.

Reports of sustained retail trade kept alive interest in merchandise shares. Steel stocks, however, did little in the face of the American Iron & Steel Institute's estimate of a further rise in steel production to 46.3 percent of capacity against 25 percent a week ago.

Turnover increased to 750,000 shares against 651,220 Friday and the Standard Statistics Co. 90 stock index advanced to 71.6, up five-
