WM. CRANDALL OF MONCTON PASSES AWAY

MONCTON, N. B., Feb. 9.—By the death of William H. Crandall, Manager of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in this city which occurred at twelve o'clock Friday, Moncton loses one of its best known and most highly esteemed citizens and the Western Union a faithful and popular official. Mr. Crandall had been in failing health for the past year, but was able to attend to his duties up to Saturday last. He contracted a cold about a week ago and this together with heart trouble which he had been suffering resulted in his death. Deceased who was a son of the late Joseph Crandall of many years postmaster of Moncton, was in the sixty-third year of his age. He was a native of this city for forty-six years, being the local manager for some thirty-five years of that time. He was widely known throughout the Maritime Provinces. Deceased is survived by his widow, who before her marriage was Miss Hunter of St. John, one son, Harry, electrical engineer with T. Eaton Co. here and three daughters, Mrs. J. B. Crandall, of New York, and Misses Dorothy and Margaret at home. Mrs. J. H. Rogers, Moncton, is a sister and Frank Crandall, of the C. N. R., Quebec, is a brother.

COBB-DRUMMOND

One of the prettiest wedding of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Drummond, 1326 Fifteenth avenue, on Christmas Eve, when their daughter Marguerite Jean became the bride of Phillip Simmonds Cobb by a ceremony performed by Dr. Murdoch MacKinnon. Bernie Laubach presided at the piano and the bride, who was given away by her father, entered the drawing room to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin". She was charmingly gowned in charmesuse with tiny ruffles of chiffon and tunic of charmingly lace beautifully outlined with French embroidery and pearls. A court train of satin embroidered in gold and a bridal veil held in place with sprays of narcissus, completed a beautiful costume and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Drummond, and Captain S. J. Booth of Toronto who performed the duties of best man. The bridesmaid wore ivory duchess satin with silver lace and touches of coral, with black picture hat and a coral fan the gift of the groom. Mrs. Drummond was costumed in taupe satin with trimmings of silver lace and touches of rose and Miss Phia Drummond wore a dainty frock of pale pink. During the signing of the register, Miss Helen Leary, accompanied by Miss Laura Fraser, sang "Heart of Gold," the music of which had been composed by the bride's teacher, Mr. Hakel, and dedicated to her. The drawing room was attractively decorated with palms, poinsettias and chrysanthemums, and in the other rooms, carnations and narcissi were used effectively. In the dining room the table was a charming picture, centered with the wedding cake. Pink and white carnations were used to add to the attractiveness of the table. Mrs. J. Stafford presided over the coffee urn. Mrs. L. T. McDonald cut the cake and the assistants were Mrs. Scarlett, Miss Mabel Broder, Miss Anne Gillis, Miss Laura Fraser, Miss Shupe and Miss Phia Drummond. One of the happiest guests of the evening was the bride's namesake little Miss Ritta McDonald, who received from the bride one of her own necklaces which she had worn during so many happy girlhood hours, and on her wedding day she presented to her little namesake. The bride's going away costume was of blue serge, trimmed with taupe fox, with which she wore a black hat. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb left on a trip to Winnipeg and Minneapolis. They will reside at Leslie, Sask. From their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cobb received a great number of beautiful and costly presents. Among them were two silver tea services—Regina Daily Register. The Mr. Cobb above referred to is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Cobb of Crapaud; and manager of the Bank of Commerce Leslie, Sask.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A very enjoyable evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Coady, Hazelbrook, in the celebration of their tenth anniversary. There were upwards of sixty guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Coady spared no pains in trying to make the evening as pleasant as possible for all. Dancing was indulged in, the music being very capably furnished by Mr. Alfred Stewart, assisted by Mr. Charles Walker and accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Alfred Stewart, Miss Annie Praught, and Miss May Jackman. During the evening an address was read by Miss Kathleen Coyle and Mr. and Mrs. Coady were presented with a beautiful bedroom suite, they also received other presents, tinware and glassware from some, and money from several others. The following was the address: Dear Mr. and Mrs. Coady:—We, your many friends and neighbors gathered together here this evening, are proud to congratulate you on this the tenth anniversary of your wedded life. We feel we cannot let the evening go by without expressing in some small measure our appreciation and gratitude for your kindness and hospitality. During your ten years of wedded bliss, the harmony that exists in the home, blessed with five children, cannot but be admired. Not only on this occasion, but also at any time we have had the pleasure of visiting you, we were made to feel as welcome as the flowers in May. Please accept this small gift with hearty congratulations and may happiness and prosperity follow you in the future as it has done in the past. Signed on behalf of a few neighbors and friends: Mr. and Mrs. Coady were taken by surprise and replied in fitting terms, thanking the people for their
