Pirates Severely Jolt Cardinals Pennant Chances With Surprise 12-0 Win

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23—Pittsburgh Pirates, buccaneers in more than name today, forced St. Louis Cardinals to walk the plank to the tune of 12-0 at St. Louis and left the 1934 world champions with little more than hope they can pass the league-leading Chicago Cubs and win another pennant.

Chief buccaneers were big Jim Weaver, who limited the Cards to four hits, two of these in the ninth, and Floyd Young, second sacker, who drove in seven runs.

The defeat shoved the second place Cardinals 3 1-2 games behind the Cubs, who go to St. Louis Wednesday for a five-game series to end the season. Chicago was idle today and will be tomorrow. St. Louis could lose tomorrow and take the pennant by sweeping the Cub series.

Big First Inning

Three runs were scored by the Pirates in the first inning, almost before the crowd of 7,500 had settled down for the game. Young's double, one of two he collected among his three hits, scored Woody Jensen, Lloyd Waner and Arky Vaughan, but Young was out at third trying to stretch the blow into a triple.

In the third came the slaughter and the retirement of Ew Heusser, first of five pitchers Frankie Frisch called to the mound in a futile effort to halt the Pirate crew. Four straight hits, the last by Young scoring two runs, finished Heusser. Tony Kaufmann was touched for three more runs before the inning closed.

Frisch's hit in the fourth was the first safety off Weaver, who yielded another to pinch hitter Sam Narron in the sixth and two in the ninth—Davis and Gelbert.

Hubbell Equals Own Record

Carl Hubbell pitched New York Giants to a 3-2 victory at New York over the last-place Boston Braves in the first game of a doubleheader to earn his 23rd victory of the season and equal his biggest previous winning record in the major leagues. Frank Gabler, making his first major league start, couldn't continue the good work, however, and the Braves won the second game 9-7.

Hubbell gave the Braves only six hits in a duel with Ed Brandt and won out when the Giants bunched three of their five blows for three runs in the first inning. A wild pitch and Baxter Jordan's homer gave Boston its runs.

Brooklyn Dodgers retained sixth place by splitting a doubleheader with the Phillies at Philadelphia. Johnny Moore's 10th inning homer gave the Phils a 4-2 victory in the opener and their third straight triumph by the home run route. The Dodgers blasted out an 8-4 decision in the afterpiece, scoring all their runs in the seventh inning.

YANKS DEFEAT SENATORS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—A four-run rally in the fourth inning and Lefty Gomez' seven-hit pitching gave New York Yankees a 5-1 victory over Washington Senators in the opener of their brief series today.

A run behind, the Yanks opened fire on Earl Whitehill in the fourth when Jesse Hill, Red Rolfe and Ben Chapman hit successive doubles and Lou Gehrig and Myril Hoag followed with singles before a man was retired. The fourth run came on Don Heffner's single, the sixth hit of the inning. The last Yankee counter was made off Jack Russell in the eighth.

Boxing Rules To Be Strictly Enforced

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23—Although there was no meeting of the New York State Athletic Commission today, Bill Brown, one of three members, took occasion to emphasize some of the things that will be told Max Baer and Joe Louis about fouls, as a matter of routine, as they weigh in tomorrow.

"They'll be read the rules from A to Z, and I'll tell them a few things without sugar coatings. If a foul is made, one that looks deliberate, the referee will stop the fight at once and we're going to have a referee with that much nerve. We'll hold up the fighters' purses and have all the money returned to the folks who bought the tickets," Brown said.

"There'll be no hanky-panky tomorrow night, but the battle must be a fair one. The boxing law is just as binding as any other state law, and should be strictly enforced.

"The fight game has pulled its if to a new high and we're going to see it doesn't plunge into the gutter because a boxer chooses to win in an unfair manner. If their is a foul, one of the commission believes is deliberate, the commission will bar the low puncher from New York State for life."

Syracuse Wins Final Game From Royals

MONTREAL, Sept. 23—George Hockette hurled four-hit ball and Syracuse Chiefs today won the Governor's Cup and the playoffs of the International League, defeating the pennant-winning Montreal Royals 2-1 in the seventh game for four victories to three.

The brilliant southpaw, who was with Kansas City of the American Association last season and who had not started previously in the playoffs due to a sore arm, showed perfect control. He had no strikeouts, issued one walk and had the Royals grounding or popping harmlessly all afternoon.

Harry Taylor hammered a home-run for Chiefs over the scoreboard in the sixth to tie the game after the Royals had led from the fourth. In the ninth Specs Toporcer doubled off the scoreboard and Tucker's single to centre brought the former home for the winning run.

LONDON, Sept. 23—Crystal Palace, playing at home, overwhelmed Northampton Town, 6-1, in an English League, third division, southern section soccer match today.

Stockport County won a hard game from Wrexham by a 3-2 score. The northern section match was played at Stockport.

Yarmouth Gateways Win Maritime Baseball Title By Defeating Kiwanis 3-1

(Canadian Press, By Guardian's Special Wire)

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., Sept. 23.—A three-run rally by Yarmouth Gateways in the ninth inning today ended the four-year reign of St. Stephen-Milltown Kiwanis as champions of senior baseball in the Maritime Provinces. The 3-1 victory, third win for Gateways out of four playoff games between the two teams, gave Yarmouth the title for the first time since 1929.

The defending champions led 1-0 at the start of the dramatic ninth. Gateways filled the sacks in the first half of that inning. Halley Norton then doubled to clear the bags, and the Hyslop Trophy passed from New Brunswick to Nova Scotia.

For Cople Leblanc, brilliant Yarmouth southpaw, it meant the breaking of a jinx that previously had left him unable to beat Kiwanis on their home diamond. He waged a keen duel with Roy Boles until the last inning rally, when the latter retired in favor of Cecil (Lefty) Brownell, who on Saturday hurled the locals to their only win of the series.

Kiwanis scored their orphan run in the third after Moffatte had tripled to deep right. A passed ball by White sent the Kiwanis short stop over the plate.

But Yarmouth fought to the end. The ninth was their last chance. The one run by Kiwanis at that time looked big, but Gateways came through like champions. Amirault, the first man up, touched Roy Boles for a single. The hit went to centre. Bain hammered another near the same spot. Boles then left the mound and Brownell hustled out. Goudey hit to Brownell and the portside ace of the Kiwanis scooped it to Harry Boles. Harry was off the sack at the time and Amirault slid in underneath him, filling the bases. Halley Horton smashed a double to right centre and cleared the bags. Kiwanis could do nothing with the offerings of Leblanc in the final frame and went out in order.

Kiwanis had enough men stranded on the paths to win a couple of ball games but the hitting power of the lower end of the batting list seemed absent. Time and again they were afforded scoring opportunities but lacked the punch to send runners across the plate.

8th Battery And Stewart's Meet Tonight

Providing the weather man is on his good behaviour, Stewart's Bakery and 8th Battery softball teams will clash tonight in their all-important fifth game of the playoff series.

Postponed from last evening, the delay has only served to heighten interest in the clash and a large crowd is expected to witness the tilt. Both teams are on edge for the game and another nip and tuck struggle is expected.

The same officials will handle the game which will be played at the Victoria Park diamond at 5 o'clock sharp. Players are asked to make a special effort to be on time.

LONDON, Sept. 23—Bramley was too strong for Featherstone in a Rugby League fixture today, winning 10-8. The match was staged at Bramley.

In a second round Yorkshire Cup game at Huddersfield, Hull gained the third round, nosing out Huddersfield 10-8.

O'Mahony Successfully Defends Title

By Eddie Brietz,
Associated Press Sports Writer
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Danno O'Mahony, recognized as world's heavyweight wrestling champion over most of North America, made another successful defence of his title here tonight when he defeated Jim Browning, Verona, Mo., veteran, after 46:29 minutes of tame grappling.

Browning missed a flying tackle, landed heavily on the back of his head and the Irishman pinned him forthwith, without difficulty.

Browning's superb strength saved him from defeat earlier in the proceedings. After his famous "Missouri whirl" had twice failed to click, his strength waned rapidly. Although he time and again applied holds that would have defeated less powerful opponents, he did not have the strength to offset the younger man's stamina.

It was the inaugural of the indoor season and approximately 6,000 fans turned out to cheer and jeer in turn.

It was O'Mahony's youth and agility that finally decided the issue. Browning applied an arm lock five minutes after the bell rang that put Danno on the mat but the latter broke loose and retaliated with a leg scissors that had the older grappler squirming many minutes before he could free himself.

Browning, in a desperate comeback try, slipped on a head scissors. O'Mahony worked loose and they swapped punches before the westerner succeeded in again applying the whirl. He slammed the Irishman to the mat and quickly clapped on a head scissors. There was much squirming around before Danno managed to extricate himself.

Once free, O'Mahony had all the better of the argument until the finish. Trying for a flying tackle, Browning missed completely and landed on his head. It was all over but the counting.

In the 2.17 class Lindenburg Girl and McElwyn The Great were ruled out when they failed to appear on time, and the heat was run without them. An analysis of Thursday's card showed that what is believed to have been a record was established when starter Calkin got away eleven heats with only eleven extra scores. Seven of these came in one race, most of the heats in the other two classes getting away on the score.

LONDON, Sept. 23—Cardiff defeated Pontypool 3-0 and Redruth won from Coventry 14-7 in English Rugby Union games played today.

Thousands Flock Into New York For Greatest Fight Card Since Days Of Rickard

Yankee Stadium Expected To House Greatest Crowd Ever To Gather For An Athletic Event —Louis 5 To 9 Favorite.

(By Edward J. Neil, Associated Press Sports Writer)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A remorseless negro with a tremendous punch; a giant, reckless white man, half killer, half clown, rolled back the years of the fight game tonight to the day when Tex Rickard and hysteria were twin kings, and money was like sand.

Joe Louis, the chocolate soldier from Detroit, and Max Baer, the curly-headed Californian, meet in the ring at the Yankee Stadium for 15 rounds or less tomorrow night. So great was the rush for tickets that there was no question gross gate receipts would exceed $1,000,000, and in doing so perhaps break boxing records New York never thought would be challenged again.

Mike Jacobs, down to the bottom of the ticket barrel, predicted every one of the 94,569 pasteboards printed would be sold by seven P. M. tomorrow night, an hour after 2,000 standing room tickets go on sale downtown.

Record Crowd Expected

If that happens the crowd at the Yankee Stadium will represent the greatest ever to gather for an athletic event in New York, surpassing the 85,262 who saw a baseball doubleheader between the Yanks and Athletics in the Stadium Sept. 9, 1928; pay total receipts of $1,184,-830.10, exceeding the past record of $1,083,530 for a non-title heavyweight match that of Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey in the Polo Grounds in 1927.

Ticket speculators, holding choice ringside seats, were calmly asking $150 to $200 apiece for them as special trains from as far away as San Francisco, from Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Boston, Cincinnati, and one from Jackson, Mich., poured tens of thousands into the city to jam every hotel. Some of the larger hostelries planned to bed down many of the fight fanatics in their public rooms tonight. It was estimated $10,000,000 in extra revenue was flowing into the city.

Money Flows Freely

Everywhere groups were arguing, and all the big commissioners agreed more money was being wagered than on any fight since Dempsey and Tunney met for the second time in Chicago in 1927. Odds favoring Louis at 5 to 8 yesterday lengthened to 5 to 9 today.

The most extravagant police arrangements ever made for a ring spectacle were completed with the assignment of 1,925 patrolmen and detectives to duty around and within the Stadium tomorrow. None will carry nightsticks. There will be another 500 plain clothesmen and members of the pickpocket squads within the park.

There was no changing the opinions of the faithful who have made up their minds by now and are sticking doggedly and loudly to their choice. The experts favor Louis by a knockout in the middle rounds almost 3 to 1, but the man in the street, remembering the emotional and fighting heights the Californian catapult rose to in his conquests of Max Schmeling and Primo Carnera, are back on his side again, despite the tossing around Max gave them when he lost his title to Jimmy Braddock this summer.

Can He Take It?

In general the issues boiled down to this: Louis, winner of 24 straight professional fights in his 15-month career, 20 by knockouts in which he had all his own way, will be hit harder than ever before in his life by this perfectly conditioned, serious but still highly erratic Baer. Can he take it?

On the other hand, Baer, who has been hit by experts, will get slugged tomorrow night as he never has been slugged before. Can he, frankly admitting more dissipation and high living over the past two years than any athlete can stand, take it with the same old doggedness?

Lean and fit, anything but overconfident, Baer abandoned his planned airplane trip down from Speculator, N.Y., where it was raining, and instead took a train.

He and Louis figure to earn $300,000 each. They share, too, in the $27,000 return from the broadcast, and the $25,000 for the motion picture rights.

Junior Softball Series Opens In Amherst

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

AMHERST, N. S., Sept. 23.—The first two of a five-game series for the Maritime junior baseball championship will be played here Tuesday and Wednesday between Amherst St. Pats, Nova Scotia champions, and Moncton Rovers, New Brunswick titlists.

A flip of a coin by Sheriff C. D. Shipley, Secretary of the Maritime Provinces Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, determined the schedule. Two more games will be played in Moncton next week and if a fifth is required, the teams will either toss for their home fields or play on neutral territory.

Amherst St. Pats were Maritime champions in 1934.

QUOTA IS EXCEEDED BY CANADIAN BACON

LONDON, Sept. 23—The agricultural correspondent of the Morning Post today alleges that Canadian bacon entering the United Kingdom during the months of June, July and August exceeded the quota by 104,000 hundredweights.

Gives Reasons For Picking Joe Louis

By Howard W. Blakeslee,
Associated Press Science Editor

POMPTON LAKES, N.J., Sept. 23.—This is the story of why you would pick Joe Louis, even as I do, to beat Max Baer tomorrow night, if you could make a trip behind the training scenes as I did.

You and I are only fans, outsiders, and, not fight experts, I am taking you to see what I saw.

With us, in talks with the fighters, their brain trusters, and intimates is a noted psychologist and psychiatrist, J. L. Moreno, M.D., who digs up the things all the experts talk about, but from a different and detached point of view.

Dr. Moreno is picking a winner tomorrow. I don't know his choice. Mine is that of a lucky fellow who got the chance we all love to barge in among the mighty.

Speculator and Baer first. Right away you hear why Baer should win. Because he is pointed to a mighty rage to tear Louis to pieces.

"Don't you think a man can work himself up to that stage, Dr. Moreno?" we hear an expert ask.

The psychiatrist smiles, nods but says there are scientific reasons for thinking it might work two ways.

We think we see an answer later as Baer drives a sparring partner across the ring. After three rushes we hear Baer almost wheezing. That is unbelievable. For Baer's wonderful condition is the second almost sure-fire reason we have been told he must win.

Moreno suggests an explanation. Baer's rushes are the smashing emotion relied on for his victory. Emotions like that, he says, take quick toll of physical strength—explain much of Baer's mixed career.

Then we come here to see Joe Louis.

But maturity, Moreno says, is not always years. Some mature in a few months. Geniuses particularly. And punching geniuses among them. They "have it from the start."

To my eye he cannot match the symmetry of Baer's punching physique. But as a non-expert I imagine I see something that may be equally deadly, just behind Louis' shoulders, webbing them to his upper arm—something that looks like angle irons of muscles.

For seven rounds he never lets up. And suddenly you and I notice he is not even breathing hard.

Our minds flash back with puzzlement to Baer—almost wheezing. Was that condition, or the emotional rush, or a lot of other things?

Laying the green bills on the counter now to make a purchase, we can choose between a "mystery" at Speculator or some goods which are very plain to see down here.

So we buy what we can see—we pick Joe Louis.
